

THE WEATHER—FAIR TONIGHT and Tomorrow.

Recorder Windley Has Busy Time

MANY CASES BROUGHT UP FOR DISPOSITION YESTERDAY AFTERNOON AND THIS MORNING.

Johnson And Bonner Appeal

CASES WILL BE BROUGHT UP AT NEXT SESSION OF THE CRIMINAL COURT. FORBES SKIPPED HIS BOND.

Recorder Windley had a busy time of it yesterday and today. He disposed of several important cases.

In the case of State vs. Ben Edwards, convicted under the search and seizure act, the state took no plea with leave.

J. F. Donner, also convicted under the search and seizure act, was found guilty and fined $50.00 and costs. He took an appeal and his case will be brought up at the next term of the criminal court.

J. C. Forbes, who was charged with retelling and larceny failed to appear at court and it has been learned that he has left town. His bond of $75 was forfeited.

Richard Johnson, whose case came up in court a few days ago, took an appeal. He is under $100 bond for his appearance at the next term of the criminal court.

Charles Fagan, colored, was charged and found guilty of assault. He was fined $5.00 and costs, which he paid.

Henry Williams, colored, was found guilty of carrying concealed weapons. He was sentenced to four months on the road. He was also found guilty of larceny and received another four months on this account.

Percey Taylor, colored, was found guilty of assault and was sent to work on the roads for six months.

M. H. Hines challenges his views. Daniel Williams has given to Daily News on Friday.

Mr. Editor—In your issue of August 15th this year, you had an article in your paper on the front page and first column thereof entitled "Serenaders in Dutch," in which you told of certain persons coming to my house and serenaded and that I shot and it had the desired effect. I wish you would kindly publish the following facts in as conspicuous manner:

I was awakened on last Thursday night by singing. At the moment I was alarmed and had no idea who it was. I ran out on my porch up stairs and fired my pistol twice. You stated in the issue of your paper of the 15th that the parties were on my porch. This is not true. No one came on my porch or made any boisterous or unbecoming noise. They were only four young gentlemen in the city who were passing on the street singing a quartette in a very gentlemanly manner. They had not been on my porch and were not in front of my premises, nor had they been on my premises.

I am very sorry that the matter occurred, and had I known or had any idea who it was, I would never have noticed it at all. I would have known that the gentlemen who were singing would not have come on my premises or in any way been guilty of rowdiness.

Yours respectfully,
M. JOHN.

(Editor's note: The above article, as it reads, is a direct denial of the facts that Mr. John gave us Friday. For reasons best known to himself, he has seen fit to change his views. We are under no obligation to publish the above article but hope it will appease the ire of those concerned. We also hope that this will be the end of this matter. As one of our lawyers says, "those fellows are making a mountain out of a mole hill.")

THAW'S SAFETY LIES IN FLIGHT

IF HE HAD NOT LEFT COUNTRY MAY BE ARRESTED ON THE CHARGE OF CONSPIRACY.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Aug. 18.—If Harry K. Thaw has not left the country he will be arrested on a warrant charging him with conspiracy and returned to the Mattewan state hospital for the criminal insane. Action with this end in view was taken by a special term of the Supreme court here this afternoon when Justice Joseph Morchauer issued a warrant for the arrest of Thaw, charging him with conspiracy with Keeper Howard Barnum and five other men if making his escape from Mattewan.

Richard Johnson, whose case came up in court a few days ago, took an appeal. He is under $100 bond for his appearance at the next term of the criminal court.

Charles Fagan, colored, was charged and found guilty of assault. He was fined $5.00 and costs, which he paid.

Henry Williams, colored, was found guilty of carrying concealed weapons. He was sentenced to four months on the road. He was also found guilty of larceny and received another four months on this account.

Percey Taylor, colored, was found guilty of assault and was sent to work on the roads for six months.

M. H. Hines challenges his views. Daniel Williams has given to Daily News on Friday.

Mr. Editor—In your issue of August 15th this year, you had an article in your paper on the front page and first column thereof entitled "Serenaders in Dutch," in which you told of certain persons coming to my house and serenaded and that I shot and it had the desired effect. I wish you would kindly publish the following facts in as conspicuous manner:

I was awakened on last Thursday night by singing. At the moment I was alarmed and had no idea who it was. I ran out on my porch up stairs and fired my pistol twice. You stated in the issue of your paper of the 15th that the parties were on my porch. This is not true. No one came on my porch or made any boisterous or unbecoming noise. They were only four young gentlemen in the city who were passing on the street singing a quartette in a very gentlemanly manner. They had not been on my porch and were not in front of my premises, nor had they been on my premises.

I am very sorry that the matter occurred, and had I known or had any idea who it was, I would never have noticed it at all. I would have known that the gentlemen who were singing would not have come on my premises or in any way been guilty of rowdiness.

Yours respectfully,
M. JOHN.

(Editor's note: The above article, as it reads, is a direct denial of the facts that Mr. John gave us Friday. For reasons best known to himself, he has seen fit to change his views. We are under no obligation to publish the above article but hope it will appease the ire of those concerned. We also hope that this will be the end of this matter. As one of our lawyers says, "those fellows are making a mountain out of a mole hill.")

Recorder Windley had a busy time of it yesterday and today. He disposed of several important cases.

In the case of State vs. Ben Edwards, convicted under the search and seizure act, the state took no plea with leave.

J. F. Donner, also convicted under the search and seizure act, was found guilty and fined $50.00 and costs. He took an appeal and his case will be brought up at the next term of the criminal court.

J. C. Forbes, who was charged with retelling and larceny failed to appear at court and it has been learned that he has left town. His bond of $75 was forfeited.

Richard Johnson, whose case came up in court a few days ago, took an appeal. He is under $100 bond for his appearance at the next term of the criminal court.

Charles Fagan, colored, was charged and found guilty of assault. He was fined $5.00 and costs, which he paid.

Henry Williams, colored, was found guilty of carrying concealed weapons. He was sentenced to four months on the road. He was also found guilty of larceny and received another four months on this account.

Percey Taylor, colored, was found guilty of assault and was sent to work on the roads for six months.

M. H. Hines challenges his views. Daniel Williams has given to Daily News on Friday.

Mr. Editor—In your issue of August 15th this year, you had an article in your paper on the front page and first column thereof entitled "Serenaders in Dutch," in which you told of certain persons coming to my house and serenaded and that I shot and it had the desired effect. I wish you would kindly publish the following facts in as conspicuous manner:

I was awakened on last Thursday night by singing. At the moment I was alarmed and had no idea who it was. I ran out on my porch up stairs and fired my pistol twice. You stated in the issue of your paper of the 15th that the parties were on my porch. This is not true. No one came on my porch or made any boisterous or unbecoming noise. They were only four young gentlemen in the city who were passing on the street singing a quartette in a very gentlemanly manner. They had not been on my porch and were not in front of my premises, nor had they been on my premises.

I am very sorry that the matter occurred, and had I known or had any idea who it was, I would never have noticed it at all. I would have known that the gentlemen who were singing would not have come on my premises or in any way been guilty of rowdiness.

Yours respectfully,
M. JOHN.

TWO FAMOUS EXPERTS TO BE HERE AUG. 26th.

MR. AND MRS. TOPPERWEIN.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Topperwein, the celebrated marksmen, will give an exhibition of expert and fancy shooting at the local gun club grounds on Thursday afternoon, August 26. Mr. Topperwein is the acknowledged dean of fancy and trick shooting, and his many feats are of a highly sensational character. Mrs. Topperwein has no equal among women for adeptness in shooting. Ladies are especially urged to witness her astonishing skill with the shotgun, rifle and revolver. Admission is free to all.

ROBBERS TRY TO RIFLE HOUSE TO FIND INFANT ON CHURCH STEPS

ENTERED THE RESIDENCE OF MR. AND MRS. A. S. FULFORD OF SECOND STREET.

MADE TOO MUCH NOISE BABY 4 WEEKS OLD

Had Been Deserted on Steps of Church. Ayers and Mueller Had It Taken to Hospital.

E. W. Ayers, who is in Philadelphia on a business visit, met with a rather strange adventure the other night. He and Major Mueller, who is well known here, were walking along one of the streets of the city and saw a white bundle lying in front of a large stone church. Mr. Ayers touched it gently with his foot, not knowing what it was, and the "bundle" let out a weak little cry. It was an infant child which had been deserted on the steps of the church. It was taken to a nearby hospital, where it was found to be a healthy four week-old boy. Mr. Ayers had it named Wilson Mueller. The baby is being cared for in the hospital.

DANIELS SCATHINGLY CRITICIZES NAVAL COURT.

For Findings in Case of Paymaster Arms on Charges of "Culpable Inefficiency"—Sentence Too Light.

Washington, Aug. 18.—Scathing criticism of the Naval court which tried Paymaster Theodore J. Arms on charges of "culpable inefficiency" was endorsed by Secretary Daniels today upon the findings of the court sentencing the paymaster to a term of three months in grade for his connection with the commissary frauds aboard the battleship Louisiana. The secretary said the sentence was wholly inadequate and that he approved it only to prevent the officer escaping punishment entirely.

Fraudulent transactions by enlisted men in the commissary department cost the sailors of the Louisiana several thousand dollars. Paymaster Arms was the commissary officer in charge. Commenting upon his Secretary Daniels wrote upon the court's report:

"That frauds of such magnitude could be perpetrated by an enlisted man in the very presence of the officer in charge of his work without even arousing the latter's suspicions is difficult to comprehend, and is sufficient evidence that the commissary officer managed to keep himself absolutely uninformed of the work of his weekly prize drawing takes place at the Lyric tonight promptly at 7 o'clock. The prize offered by the management today is one well worth striving for and something that can be well appreciated.

The motion picture program today is another feature class and a program that offers a series of pictures to please from the old to the younger set. The ones exhibited last evening were certainly a feature for the evening and ones that received the best comment.

Thursday's program offers something new in the vaudeville line billing "Lewie and Adams" in Politics, presenting a singing, talking and dancing act.

Today's program is by far another that will amuse and ones that will be enjoyed. The admission prices are 5c and 10c.

Tobacco Market Will Open Tomorrow

HUERTA DEMANDS RECOGNITION

UNITED STATES GIVEN UNTIL MIDNIGHT TONIGHT TO DECIDE COURSE OF ACTION

Lind Has Forwarded Statement to Wilson and is Awaiting Reply.

Mexico City, Aug. 18.—The United States government has been given until midnight tonight by President Huerta to recognize Mexico, it is officially stated.

The government is not specific in the public announcement as to what course then will be pursued but it is understood that it means that severing of all relations between the two countries.

Provisional President Huerta, replying today to President Wilson's note which was recently delivered to the Mexican government through ex-Governor John Lind, refused mediation in the Mexican situation or any similar suggestion made by a foreign government. Mr. Lind has forwarded General Huerta's answer to Washington and is awaiting a reply.

MASTER EDMUND PHELPS WINS BABY SHOW CONTEST

BOWEN ROSS IS A CLOSE SECOND, WHILE LITTLE MISS ISABELLE HANDY CAME IN THIRD

The Whitley Baby Show Contest, which has been running at the Lyric theater for the past two weeks, came to a triumphant close last night. A large audience was present to witness the presentation of prizes and also see the final display to the children on the screen. After the first two reels of the regular motion picture program, Mr. Whitley appeared upon the stage and announced the winners of the contest. The results were as follows:

First—Edmund Phelps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Phelps, 644 votes.

Second—Bowen Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Ross, 597 votes.

Third—Isabelle Handy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Handy, 521 votes.

Gold rings of different styles and values were given to the three lucky winners.

ALL READY FOR OPENING.

Greenville Tobacco Market Will Begin Operations Today.

Greenville, Aug. 18.—Everything is in readiness at all of the warehouses of the town for the opening tomorrow morning of the tobacco market for the season of 1913. All of the buyers who will represent the dozen or more firms that will be on the local market have arrived in town, and will be ready for the opening tomorrow morning. They have visited all of the warehouses in town, and are by this time thoroughly acquainted with the field in which they are to labor for the next three or four months. Some of the buyers have come here from a distance, and are representing the biggest concerns in the world.

All of the warehousemen have put the finishing touches upon their houses and by this time have everything in waiting for the opening office.

Of the members of the court who recommended clemency the Secretary said: "They have placed themselves on record as in favor of condoning an offense which anyone having the real interest of the service at heart must regard as calling for severe punishment."—News & Observer.

Will Open Tomorrow

GREAT MEETING FOR TONIGHT

REV. C. L. ORGAN TO PREACH STRONG SERMON.

"KNOCKING OUT MORE PROPS"

SAID THAT TONIGHT IS ONE OF THE BEST MEETINGS OF THE ENTIRE REVIVAL.

All were surprised last night at the Tabernacle meetings. The tabernacle was packed and many were on the outside. This was not expected on Monday night. Just before coming to Washington, Evangelist Organ enlarged his tabernacle, 20x60 feet. It was thought this would be most too large for a place of this size, but the crowds show that the tabernacle should be much larger. There is evidently a great interest in religion in Washington. The meeting is the town talk.

Last night the evangelist spoke on "Knocking out the Props." Tonight he will speak on "Knocking Out More Props." A great meeting is planned for tonight. If you can't attend but one more service, you should go tonight. This is the advice of those who have the meetings in charge. Every morning at nine o'clock there is held a devotional service of one half hour. All are invited to this meeting.

Plans are being laid for a great Bible school next Sunday. The meetings will continue another week. This week promises to be the greatest and best. Fifteen have been added to the church already and many others are thinking of duty.

MOB STORMS JAIL AND THREE ARE SHOT.

Spartanburg, S. C., Aug. 8.—Three men, Frank Eppley, J. C. Ownesby and John Turner, were seriously wounded tonight when a mob stormed the county jail in an effort to lynch Will Fair, a negro prisoner, charged with assaulting a young white woman near here today. Sheriff White and a deputy, facing the mob alone, repeatedly drove them back with pistol shots, when they advanced with battering-rams.

Members of the mob finally turned the fire and in the darkness the three men were struck. They were not fatally wounded, but were taken to a hospital for attention.

The young woman was assaulted in a lonely farm-house this morning in the absence of her husband.

Will Open Tomorrow

GREAT MEETING FOR TONIGHT

REV. C. L. ORGAN TO PREACH STRONG SERMON.

"KNOCKING OUT MORE PROPS"

SAID THAT TONIGHT IS ONE OF THE BEST MEETINGS OF THE ENTIRE REVIVAL.

All were surprised last night at the Tabernacle meetings. The tabernacle was packed and many were on the outside. This was not expected on Monday night. Just before coming to Washington, Evangelist Organ enlarged his tabernacle, 20x60 feet. It was thought this would be most too large for a place of this size, but the crowds show that the tabernacle should be much larger. There is evidently a great interest in religion in Washington. The meeting is the town talk.

Last night the evangelist spoke on "Knocking out the Props." Tonight he will speak on "Knocking Out More Props." A great meeting is planned for tonight. If you can't attend but one more service, you should go tonight. This is the advice of those who have the meetings in charge. Every morning at nine o'clock there is held a devotional service of one half hour. All are invited to this meeting.

Plans are being laid for a great Bible school next Sunday. The meetings will continue another week. This week promises to be the greatest and best. Fifteen have been added to the church already and many others are thinking of duty.

MOB STORMS JAIL AND THREE ARE SHOT.

Spartanburg, S. C., Aug. 8.—Three men, Frank Eppley, J. C. Ownesby and John Turner, were seriously wounded tonight when a mob stormed the county jail in an effort to lynch Will Fair, a negro prisoner, charged with assaulting a young white woman near here today. Sheriff White and a deputy, facing the mob alone, repeatedly drove them back with pistol shots, when they advanced with battering-rams.

Members of the mob finally turned the fire and in the darkness the three men were struck. They were not fatally wounded, but were taken to a hospital for attention.

The young woman was assaulted in a lonely farm-house this morning in the absence of her husband.

MILLION DOLLAR FORGERY

The remarkable story of a million dollar forgery will be one of the many features of the 24-page illustrated magazine of next Sunday's New York World. In this interesting section of America's greatest Sunday newspaper will also be chronicled: Facts showing the United States is the world's most spendthrift nation; an architect's dream of a world capital; second instalment of the great love serial "The Masked Bride," etc., etc. And don't forget the Sunday World's weekly Joke Book, the best cure for the blues. Order the Sunday World in advance.

NOTICE

Special Order No. 24. To Members of the 6th Division, N. C. Naval Militia:

You are hereby ordered to be present at your company armory Tuesday night, Aug. 19, at 8 p. m. Preparations for cruise. You will bring in all company property in your possession. Failure to comply with this order will mean a summary court martial.

DAVID T. PICKLES, Lieut. Comdr. E. S. Simmons, Boatswain. 8-18-21.

Farmers from adjoining Counties are invited to come and inspect the grades of tobacco grown in Beaufort if they wish to purchase land or raise tobacco for next season. Quality is High Grade. Market Opens Wednesday August 20th.