

Tobacco Brings Good Prices at Opening Sale

Many Farmers Bring Weed to Local Markets at First Day's Sale.

BUYERS ARE LOUD IN THEIR PRAISE OF GRADE OF WEED ON FLOOR OF WAREHOUSES

QUALITY IS EXCELLENT

Washington is sure of successful and profitable tobacco season. Estimated that from eighty to one hundred thousand pounds were on the floors this morning.

The Washington tobacco market opened today. The morning sale was fast and lively and the prices rose beyond even the expectations of the most hopeful.

The farmers began arriving in the city at five o'clock this morning. Until almost ten o'clock they drove in a steady stream to the two warehouses on the floor. Although the sale was scheduled to start at ten o'clock, the quantity of tobacco brought in was so great that it was after eleven o'clock before it could be put in readiness.

Once the sale started, however, there was no holding back. A goodly number of buyers were present and the bidding was fast and furious. Down one side and up the next went the auctioneer, followed by the buyers and a crowd of hundreds of spectators. Bids followed one upon the other and where an especially good heap of the weed lay, the bids were hurled back and forth for several minutes.

The farmers are jubilant over the prices that their crops are bringing. Those who held back and did not bring in their weed today are fully satisfied with the price and will do so within the next few days. All are satisfied that Washington is paying as good prices as any market in the state.

The buyers are loud in their praise of the quality of the tobacco which is being sold. One man, in particular, stated that taken altogether, it was the best grade of weed he had ever seen.

Now that the farmers are assured of getting good prices for their crops, Washington is certain of a successful and profitable tobacco season, and at the end of the season will be found well up among the leaders in the number of pounds sold.

THAW ARRESTED IN CANADA

CANADIAN LAW EXPELS ANY PERSON WHO ENTERS THE COUNTRY FIVE YEARS AFTER INCARCERATION IN PRISON OR ASYLUM

WILL BE DEPORTED

Final Disposition of the Fugitive Rests with the Canadian Government. Will be Tried First as Fugitive from Justice in United States.

Couttslock, Aug. 19.—Harry K. Thaw is under arrest here. He will be arraigned at Sherbrooke as a fugitive from justice in the United States. The final disposition of the prisoner, however, rests with the Dominion government.

Thaw was arrested this morning at Harpenegilde-Gardoff, a village near here. An hour before he had driven across the line from New Hampshire. He admitted his identity and complacently declared that he could not be extradited as he had committed no crime.

Thaw was examined by Dr. Tremaine this afternoon, who found that he was suffering from excitement. The examination was made because Thaw looked foxy and feverish. The doctor asked Thaw to give him a thumb print impression, but this the prisoner declined to do.

Thaw during the day sent several telegrams to relatives and friends apprising them of his whereabouts. One of the telegrams was addressed to his mother, Mrs. William Thaw, at Pittsburg, while another was dispatched to Roger O'Mara, the detective in Pittsburg, who has for many years looked after Thaw's interests in charge of officers Thaw left here shortly after 2 o'clock for the Sherbrooke jail. He said he would resist any attempt to take him to the New York state boundary line.

Two men, who are supposed to be accomplices of Thaw in his spectacular flight from the insane hospital at Mattawan, N. Y., last Sunday morning, were in his company and were also detained.

Miss Laura Weddell of Tarboro is the guest of Miss Eliza Branch on N. Market street.
