

DO YOU SUCCEED OR FAIL?

Are you successful, do you wonder why? This is easily explained in the planetary law, for everybody has his good and bad periods. It is only in knowing these that success can be obtained. Here a reading from that Mammoth Crystal, would guide you right.

KNOWLEDGE OF THE FUTURE IS POWER FOR THE PRESENT.

Three-fourths of the people are in business or following vocations they are not adapted to or are in locations that are unfavorable to them. If you are in doubt and perplexity as to the future, consult MADAM ELDON and be started on the road to SUCCESS.

Madam Eldon

How to dress during these first days of autumn, when the nights are cool and the days are often warm, even hot sometimes, is a problem that bothers some folks. But the reason it bothers them is because they do not want to be bothered a little physically. They want to wear the same clothes all day and still be comfortable. So they either pull on heavy underclothing that makes them uncomfortable early in the morning and late in the evening, and very uncomfortable and likely to say harsh things after the sun gets high in his course, or else they continue to wear the same gauzy, diaphanous garments that feel light and airy in the blaze of the September sun, but seem like the nothing they almost are in the cool of the evening and morning.

Now every normal person is possessed of that sort of common sense that has been described as horse sense, "the kind that a jackass hasn't got." The difficulty is that some will not exercise it, especially if the yielding to that horse sense involves the expenditure of a little effort.

Of course there is only one thing to do to be comfortable in the fall of the year and avoid any chilling of the system that is liable to weaken the resistance to disease, and that is to have convenient for early morning and late evening some kind of outer wrap to slip on and off as the temperature changes. That's where the trouble comes in. People hate to take upon themselves all the extra effort of carrying around that wrap. Well, of course they don't have to; they can pay for the privilege of not being bothered with it by being uncomfortable a good part of the day, and maybe by being sick in the bargain.

It is just as unwise to put on winter underclothing before the cold weather comes to stay as it is to pull it off before the summer weather gets settled. The sensible way to keep pace with the rapid changes in the fall and spring is by changing the outer clothing.

It is found advisable by many to use intermediate undergarments for the period of season change, but that is hardly necessary for the average person. The outer wrap kept handy is the thing.

DON'T STOP THE COLD SPONGE BATH.

There is a strong tendency to quit the morning cold sponge or plunge bath as soon as the cool days come but there is, as a matter of fact more need for it in cool than in warm weather as a stimulant to circulation, which is more prone to be come slow as the cold weather comes on and lead to make the feet and hands cold.

Cold baths are one of the best guarantees against winter colds and "grip" you can have. Furthermore they tone up the system to resist pneumonia and tuberculosis better than almost anything else except fresh air. Right now is the very time to keep up those cold baths made you feel so fine in hot weather. If you would derive the same benefit and be as free from colds, grip etc. this winter as you were this summer, keep up the cold baths all fall and winter. It pays.

THE LOVELIGHT IN HIS EYES.

He Thought That Was What Made All the People Stare.

"You have read in novels how a great emotion will transform a man's countenance, how a poet's face in the hour of inspiration sets the sparrows singing on the housetops. My own features are of the commonplace type—nobody thinks of regarding them twice—yet I, too, have had my experience. I declared a contributor to Punch I received a letter from Phyllis, which said briefly, 'Yes, I think so.' Not much to get excited about, but when I told you it was the delayed answer to a proposal of marriage you will understand. Shortly after reading it I stepped out into the street to walk in the office.

"What a walk that was! The light in my eyes seemed to brighten the very sun; the song in my heart was echoed from a hundred throats. Never have the winds of May wooed so winningly a February morning.

"Every man I met turned his head as if loath to take his eyes from my irradiated countenance. Every girl seemed to take the keenest pleasure in my happiness and smiled at me prettily as if infected by its contagion.

"The wall, I thought (in blank verse), that Phyllis now is pledged to me or by my oath; these flattering glances shot from beauty's eyes might make my heart unfaithful.

"It was only when I reached the office and looked in the glass that I discovered the large black smudge on the end of my nose.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Bishop, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework.

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would spin, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally I took Cardui. My womanly troubles, and I am not bothered with pain any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable woman, who feels as if everything were wrong, and needs something to quiet her nerves and strengthen the weak-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, buy Cardui. It will help you. At all drug stores.
