NEW THEATER HAS BOOKED NINE PLAYS FOR COMING SEASON

Playhouse Will be Credit to Promoters and City. Stage Will be One of the Best Lighted in the State. Will Operate Motion Pictures.

LET US SMILE The thing that goes the farthest towards making life worth while. That costs the least and does the most, is just a pleasant smile. The smile that bubbles from a heart that loves its fellow men. Will drive away the cloud of gloom and coax the sun again; Its full of worth and goodness, too, with many a kindness blent— It's worth a million dollars and doesn't cost a cent.

As has already been announced the new theatre in the Hodges building will have its opening night November 12.

The new theatre is certainly going to be one of the very best playhouses in North Carolina. The scenery alone means an outlay of over one thousand dollars. One of the best artists in the country is now engaged in painting it. Those who are in a position to know state that the stage will be one of the best lighted south of Richmond. The footlights will be in three colors the border lights will contain three colors, too, the proscenium arch light. The Demer controlling all the lights on the stage as well as the entire theatre alone will cost the management approximately two hundred dollars and the stage lights independent of the main auditorium means an outlay of over six hundred dollars.

It is the intention of the management in addition to placing on the boards first class attractions to also have first class motion pictures which are begun prior to the regular opening night of the play house.

The management of the new theatre are young men of push and being desirous of having Washington in the forefront with an up-to-date opera house, have given their time and money to the enterprise and the result is soon to be a theatre comparable with any in the state.
