

WASHINGTON, D. C., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1915

ATHLETICS WIN FROM THE GIANTS

WORLD SERIES FANS CLAMOR FOR TICKETS

Over forty thousand saw First Game. Weather Damp and Cloudy. Next Game tomorrow.

SCORE BY INNINGS
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	Total
New York	0	0	1	0	3	0	0	0	0	0	4
Athletics	0	0	0	3	2	0	0	0	0	0	6

BATTERIES
NEW YORK	Marquard, Cradall and Myers.
ATHLETICS	Bender and Schang.

PAPERS PASS TRANSFER OF WATER PLANT

Mayor turns over $55,000 Worth of City Improvement Bonds today. Aldermen met last night.

HITS.
NEW YORK 11. PHILADELPHIA 11.

New York, Oct. 7.—Long before the dawn of day, a long line of baseball fans were standing in line outside the gates at Polo ground, seeking admission to the first game in the world series between the Giants, of the National league team, and the Athletics, of the American league team today.

The man who can guess the outcome of the series has his fortune made for now and all time. Guesses are as plentiful as watermelons in August. It appears to be conceded that the teams are remarkably well matched this year and the outcome hinges on whether the hard hitting Athletics can overcome what is assumed to be the stronger pitching of the giants. This is vague, to say the least, but it simply means that many critics feel that John J. McGraw is much fortified with pitchers in Mathewson, Marquard, Demaree and Torgren than Connie Mack is with Bender, Plank, Houck, Brown and Shawkey. In a long series this would count materially, but in a short one it has less significance, unless one of the stars is not at the top of his form.

HARVESTER CIRCLE MET LAST NIGHT

Miss Rosa McDevett entertained the Club at her home on Harvy street. Delightful social function.

One of the most pleasant and enjoyable social functions given in Washington in quite a while took place last evening at the home of Mr. W. M. McDevett on Harvy St when his daughter, Miss Rosa, so charmingly and graciously entertained the Harvester circle of the First Presbyterian church. This meeting of the circle was the annual gathering and the following officers were named for the coming year: President, Mrs. J. H. Fulford; Secretary, Mrs. H. M. Holbrook; Treasurer, Mrs. James McCluer. The circle is composed of twenty-seven young ladies of the First Presbyterian church, and they meet once a month with the members. The next monthly assembly will be with Mrs. George Paul on East Main street.

PROF. BROGDEN ADDRESSES THE BOARD

Interesting meeting of the County Board of Education held yesterday much Business transacted.

The county board of education met in the office of W. L. Vaughan yesterday. All members of the board were present. The following business for the month was transacted:

H. R. Woolard appeared before the board in behalf of district No. 7 Washington, colored, asking that they be allowed to spend one half of their funds in either end of the district or rather that the funds be divided. The request was granted.

A petition was presented signed by more than one fourth of the free holders of the Wharton district asking that an election be called in said district to ascertain the will of the voters as to whether they shall be levied in said district a special annual tax of not more than 30 cents on the $100 valuation of property and 90 cents on the poll for school purposes. The petition was granted and the petition turned over to the board of county commissioners for the purpose of calling the election. The election will be had sometime in November next.

The board decided upon the recommendation of the chairman, who visited the locality in company with Superintendent Vaughan to establish a new district between Latham district (district No. 9 Long Acre, white) and the new county line on the Long Ridge road northern boundary to be the county line and southern boundary to be Great Swamp. Sit selected for the new school house is on the land of W. M. Stubbins on the east side of the road—said land is to be donated. The district is to be known as District No. 16, Long Acre.

The chairman reported that he and Superintendent Vaughan had selected as the new site for the school house in district No. 15 Long Acre, white, on the west side of the road near J. I. Bowen place. The northern boundary of this district is the county line and including the land of W. W. and J. R. Bowen L. T. Thompson of Aurora, asked that the board allow the Aurora district one third of the cost for painting the school building and that the district and people would furnish the balance. His request was allowed.

Ordered that attendance officers be instructed to send census of each district to the respective teacher by mail and that the board pay the postage.

The board heard a very interesting talk upon the subject of additional supervision by Professor L. C. Brogden of state department education but no action was taken in regard to same as one member of the board opposed it.

The board decided to employ Miss Rebecca Simmons to assist the superintendent in stenographic work for the next four months.

Upon petition of L. W. Guthrie his land was attached to and made a part of district No. 11, Chocowinity, white.

Founder's Day Normal College Congressman Small Speaker

Founder's Day set apart by the State Normal and Industrial College, Greensboro, in celebration of the opening of the institution twenty-one years ago and also to honor the memory of the late Charles Duane McIVER, the founder and first president, was fittingly observed Saturday last when the student body, faculty, alumni and friends gathered in the student's building at 11 o'clock. The address for the occasion was delivered by Congressman John H. Small of this city. Mr. Small in his address defined the purpose of the Normal college and its influence on the life of the state. The speaker declared that he came to Greensboro, in his workday clothes to make a workday talk and his address bore along with this idea being practically devoid of flowers and applicable to present conditions urging his hearers and especially the students to embody the purpose of the Normal college and defining that purpose for them. "The longer I live," said he, "the more I notice the qualities of men and women." "Behind the plant lie the brain and the heart of those who dominate it." After the address President Foust read many messages of greetings from the former students, among the number was one from Washington signed by Miss Margaret S. Jarvis which reads: "Loving greetings for our alma mater from Beaufort county alumnal. Similar messages were read from all parts of the state.

Sen. Simmons Work Praised

Jerry A. Mathews, senate correspondent of the New York Sun in a personal letter to Senator F. M. Simmons, pays him the following high tribute which doubtless will be read with pride by every citizen of North Carolina. Mr. Mathews' letter follows:

Dear Senator Simmons:

I cannot let this opportunity pass without writing a word to express the feeling of profound and lasting obligation that the Washington Bureau of The Sun feels to you for the facilities that you, as chairman of the great committee on finance, afforded to the newspapermen in reporting the progress of the tariff bill. You took the public into your confidence at every step, through the press.

I do not feel, now that it is over to recall the long vigils outside of the committee room, and when I was over and you were tired and often ill, you did not turn away from us but were at all times patient and obliging. I do not recall of the three tariff bills that passed, since I came here to do newspaper work, a single case when we were treated generously. My associates with whom I have talked are equally generous. My associates with sensible of their obligations to you. We can never forget your kindness. And concluding let me say that I never knew a tariff bill or any other important piece of legislation handled so successfully in the senate. You never lost a battle. It is almost incredible that on 117 separate votes in the senate on amendments, you won every time with a party majority to rely on so narrow that it might well have caused you anxiety. Nor do I now recall ever to have witnessed the spontaneous recognition by the minority of the generous treatment accorded them by the majority leader in a tariff bill session, as it was voiced by Senator Gallinger, republican leader in his resolution thanking you. I think it was unprecedented. You have been a quiet, modest, unobtrusive man in the senate. But your deeds will be your monument.

Your grateful friend,
JERRY A. MATHEWS,
Senate Cor. New York Sun

In this particular case, however it looks to us as if the Athletics would not be able to work so much damage with the stick against the New York pitchers as the Giants will, even though they are behind their opponents in team batting. The chief reason, then, for picking the New York team lies in what Matty Marquard, Demaree and Torgren can accomplish in keeping hits scattered and runs scarce.

Definitely there is little to choose between the two teams, even though so much has been written and said about the wonderful $100,000 in field of the Athletics, made up of McInnis, Collins, Barry and Baker.

Apart from mere figures, the Giants look a bit stronger in the outfield, while behind the bat "Big Chief" Myers is almost sure to prove steady and of more value to his team than either Schang, Thomas or Lapp for Philadelphia. John J. McGraw and Connie Mack are masters of the baseball world in keen strategy and sane judgment so that in this respect also there is little to choose and both teams will be well served.

In only one position can the champions of the National League show better batting, and in only one place can better fielding be found, although McInnis and Markle are practically on a par in this department of the game. Fletcher has a better batting average than Barry, while Herzog and Shaffer, at third, are far ahead of Baker as fielders.

FRANK NASH AND FRANK LAURENZE AT THE LYRIC

Frank Nash—the banjo phonic and Frank Laurenzen eccentric, singing, talking and dancing comedian opened at the Lyric last night for a three day engagement, both artists were well received and played to a large audience. The banjo playing of Mr. Nash was very clever and rendered several selections both ragtime and classical. Mr. Laurenzen received good applause.

The motion pictures were the feature of the evening bill. As usual they were a class of pictures fully up to the standard and a variety that pleased the audience.

Today's program offers changes in acts and complete change of motion pictures. The last half of the week will be filled by Harris and Hilliard in a singing, talking and dancing act.

RESIDENT OF WASHINGTON WILL COMPLETE COURSE

Mr. Joseph Warren is erecting an attractive bungalow on Fairview avenue, Washington Park. Mr. Warren expects to reside at the Park until he can complete his college course at the Washington College Institute. He is a brother of Rev. J. H. Warren, district superintendent of the Blue Ridge Atlantic District of the M. E. church. When the bungalow is finished it will enhance greatly the already attractive appearance of this well-known resort.

TEACHERS MEETING AFTER PRAYER MEETING SERVICES

After the prayer meeting services at the First Methodist church tomorrow evening there will be a teacher's meeting of the Sunday school. All teachers and those interested in the work are requested to attend.

The arrangement of classes and the hour of the meeting for the school will be discussed.

For good reasons the school next Sunday will meet at 9:45 in the morning as has been the custom during the summer months. The superintendent, Mr. E. R. Nixon, hopes to have a large attendance of the teachers present Wednesday night.

Storm Injures Organs.

Ever since the storm of Wednesday, September 3, the large pipe organs of the First Methodist and 1st Presbyterian churches here practically been out of commission since the storm both instruments have been in such a condition they could not be used at the regular Sunday services.

In Western Carolina

Rev. J. H. Warren, district superintendent of the Blue Ridge Atlantic district of the M. E. church is now in Western Carolina on business.

Home From Ohio

Mr. W. M. Kear, has returned from the state of Ohio where he visited his old home, Van Wert, and several other towns. He was absent from the city for a month. He says that he enjoyed his visit immensely.

WILL BECOME A LAW.

Messrs. F. J. Berry, E. Hoyt Moore, C. H. Richardson and C. F. Bland returned from Raleigh last night where they went yesterday to meet Hon. E. J. Justice for the purpose of discussing the merits of his bill which he has introduced in the general assembly for the purpose of reducing the freight rates on all railroads within the bounds of North Carolina.

Mr. Bland in speaking of the bill this morning gave it as his opinion that the Justice bill would become a law.

Cotton Ginned

Up to and including September 25 there had been 503 bales of cotton ginned in Beaufort county against 876 bales ginned up to the same period last year.

J. K. Hoyt is showing superbly stylish cloaks for the kiddies which will delight mothers and they will be more than delighted with the value.

Regular Communication

There will be a regular communication of Orr lodge No. 104 A. F. & A. M. this evening at their hall, corner of Third and Bonner streets at 8 o'clock. Visiting Master Masons are cordially invited to attend.

Cotton Market.

Lint cotton 12 and 5-8.
Seed cotton 5 cents.

MEETING NUMBER 13 AUCTION BRIDGE CLUB

The No. 13 Auction Bridge club met yesterday at the home of Mrs. Henry P. Brigham on Pierce street and reorganized. Several of the members were present and the following rules were adopted: The club is to meet from the hours of three to five p. m. every other week. The refreshments are limited to two courses and the total number of members never to exceed thirteen. It was with regret the club accepted Mrs. Harry McMullen's resignation and Mrs. A. L. Bowers was invited to fill the vacancy. The other members are: Mesdames Henry Bridgman, Claud Carrow, John Gorrow, Geo. Hackney, Frank Hovers, James Ellison, Beverly Moss, John C. Rodman, Thomas Clark, Louis Mann, Edward Mallison and Walter Wolfe.

Death at Small, N. C.

S. A. Gaskins, aged 50 years, passed away at the home of his brother, C. L. Gaskins, Small, N. C., Sunday between three and four o'clock of bright disease. The deceased had been in feeble health for some time and went to his brother's home Sunday a week ago with the hope he would improve. The deceased leaves a widow and one son. The funeral took place yesterday morning, conducted by Elder Jesse Bennett of the Free Will Baptist church, and the remains were carried to Askin, Craven county, for interment.