

President Wilson to Take Same Stand in Mexican Affairs

Under Sam to take no cognizance of forthcoming election. Situation is being discussed in Washington by Diplomatic Representatives.

Washington, Oct. 24.—It is understood upon very high authority that President Wilson and the members of his cabinet will assume the same attitude toward Gen. Gamboa in the event of his election as President of Mexico as has been maintained toward Huerta.

Diplomats of foreign countries in Washington are daily discussing the situation, but, of course, not for publication. The more important than the Mexican situation and the effect of the administration's attitude in the opinion of many in Washington familiar with the details, is the ultimate effect the step will have on the Monroe Doctrine.

It has always been a cardinal principle of that doctrine, it is pointed out, that in affairs of this hemisphere the United States must be supreme, must exercise the controlling hand and must do so without European assistance or interference.

Observers here feel that it must be with keen satisfaction that European powers have obtained this plan for archaize. The spectacle of a multitudinous Congress in Latin America and growing distaste for the Monroe Doctrine, gladly complying with America's invitation to take part in a Latin-American affair, and Austria, with little or no interest in affairs on this side, is a sight to be noted.

Richard Johnson Fined $100, and Six Months in Co. Jail

The United States District Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina adjourned yesterday afternoon. The following cases were disposed of by the court:

Richard Johnson of Beaufort county, who was indicted for illicit distilling was found guilty. The judgment of the court was that he pay a fine of $100 and be confined in the county jail for a period of six months. This sentence is to begin on January 1, 1914.

The case of United States vs. J. R. Bedard for illicit distilling, the defendant was found not guilty by the jury.

United States vs. C. R. Flowers and Otis Hardy, illicit distilling. Jury returned a verdict of guilty and each fined $100 and cost and to appear again at the next term of court and show their good behavior.

The next term of the United States Court is to be held in April 1914.

Almond Wedding. Mr. George E. Crabtree of Goldsboro, and Miss Hays of Front Street, N. C., attended the long-looked-for nuptials at the First Presbyterian church last evening.

Ontion Market. List follows: 14 1/2 cents. Seed cotton, 1 1/2 cents. Cotton, 2000, 100, 100, 100, 100.

AURORA FAIR PROMISES TO BE SUCCESS

The Agricultural Fair to be held at Aurora, N. C., November 12-20 promises to be one of the most attractive exhibitions of East Carolina in a decade. Notwithstanding the great havoc wrought by the recent storm the good people of this section have shown their faith by their works and those who attend this fair will be amply repaid.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT BAPTIST CHURCH LAST NIGHT

Those who attended the services at the First Baptist church last evening were delighted with the excellent sermon delivered by the pastor, Rev. R. L. Gay. Mr. Gay is certainly a speaker far above the average and during his short residence in Washington has greatly endeared himself to all classes irrespective of denomination.

Attractive Pictures at The Lyric Tonight

The Lyric Theater this week has been quite an attraction for the actor-supper pleasure seekers. Not only have the pictures been far above the average but the vaudeville attraction has been such as to commend admiration.

CONFERENCE OF BOYS. Bridgeport, Conn., Oct. 24.—The annual State Boys' Conference of Connecticut opened here today.

Keep an Art Scrap Book. And there's no better way to start keeping a book of this kind than to preserve it in the series of twenty great pictures depicting the life story of pretty Dorothy Perkins.

OCTOBER 24 IN HISTORY 1829—Provision made for the free navigation of the river Rhine in Germany.

FOOTBALL. Western colleges has nothing on Dartmouth for queer football names. Here are some of the men who are on Dartmouth squad: Pudirith, Wacasser, Saladine, Trier, Switzer, Gornick, Pender, Duhamel, and Thierscher.

PREPARE FOR BUSCH FUNERAL. B. Lusk, No. 604 1/2. The body of Joseph Busch, who died in Germantown three weeks ago, is expected to reach here tomorrow, when the funeral will be held.

DAVID POTTER PASSED AWAY LAST EVENING

Has been suffering from Blood Poison since September 3. Popular citizen goes to his reward.

David Potter, one of Washington's highly esteemed citizens fell asleep at the Fowle Memorial hospital late yesterday afternoon after suffering from blood poison since the storm of Wednesday, September 3rd.

Thus passes away a man who was held in the highest esteem by all classes. He was the soul of honor and did what he could for his fellows in sunshine and shadow.

He was a native of Pamlico county, born there thirty-six years ago on February 18th. Seven years ago he was happily married and the result of the union was three bright and interesting children, whom with his heart-broken widow survive. All that medical skill and the loving care of friends was done but all to no avail.

The deceased has been a member of the Christian church of this city for the past 17 years and at the time of his death held the responsible position as deacon which he filled most creditably and well.

For many years Mr. Potter was in the employ of the Bugler Lumber Company as engineer. In this position with the company he always proved faithful and true.

His going is to be deplored by both his employers and friends. He was faithful in a few things and now he is to receive the plaudits of greater things in that House not made with hands. Upon his book of life, this paper can well write well done.

The funeral took place this afternoon from the Christian church on East Second street conducted by the pastor, Rev. Robt. V. Hope, and the interment was in Oakdale cemetery. The following were the pallbearers: O. M. Winfield, C. F. Harris, S. F. Allgood, Howard Russ, J. P. Jackson, F. A. Lilly.

Only one case Before Recorder Yesterday

There was only one case tried before Recorder W. B. Windley yesterday at the city hall. John R. Perry was indicted for cruelty to animals. After hearing all the evidence the court found the defendant guilty and fined him $5 and cost.

GOOD PRICES FOR TOBACCO LOCAL MARKET

Another great sale of tobacco was had on the Washington and Beaufort warehouse floors today. Between thirty and forty thousand pounds of the golden weed was disposed of and the prices received were entirely satisfactory.

On yesterday J. J. Bright of Chowan county, sold 300 pounds of tobacco at the Beaufort warehouse at the following prices, which should be gratifying not only to his friends but the admirers of the market. The prices speak for themselves. They follow:

- 20 pounds at 24 cents. 18 pounds at 27 cents. 60 pounds at 28 cents. 74 pounds at 33 cents. 14 pounds at 38 cents. 70 pounds at 44 cents. 24 pounds at 57 cents. 40 pounds at 61 cents. 20 pounds at 75 cents.

GOOD PRICES FOR TOBACCO LOCAL MARKET

Another great sale of tobacco was had on the Washington and Beaufort warehouse floors today. Between thirty and forty thousand pounds of the golden weed was disposed of and the prices received were entirely satisfactory.

On yesterday J. J. Bright of Chowan county, sold 300 pounds of tobacco at the Beaufort warehouse at the following prices, which should be gratifying not only to his friends but the admirers of the market. The prices speak for themselves. They follow:

- 20 pounds at 24 cents. 18 pounds at 27 cents. 60 pounds at 28 cents. 74 pounds at 33 cents. 14 pounds at 38 cents. 70 pounds at 44 cents. 24 pounds at 57 cents. 40 pounds at 61 cents. 20 pounds at 75 cents.

Brilliant Wedding Presbyterian Church On Last Evening

Thomas Long weds Miss Winifred Fowle in the presence of a distinguished company. Reception follows.

Washington has never witnessed a wedding of more surpassing beauty and brilliancy than that which took place at the First Presbyterian church last evening, October 23, 1913, at nine o'clock, when Miss Winifred Wilson Fowle became the bride of Mr. Thomas Sparrow Long, of this city.

In all of its appointments from the splendor of the simplicity of it, this wedding was one of the most beautiful and attractive ceremonies that has ever taken place in that sacred edifice, and in which was centered the interests of large hosts of friends and relatives. The interior of the stately old church was beautifully and artistically decorated in Chrysanthemums, Palms, ferns and other potted plants successfully carrying out a pretty color scheme of pink and white, and with the soft rays of numerous waxen tapers shedding their brilliance over the decorations, a beautiful picture was presented to the large number of friends and acquaintances assembled, all eager to witness the joining of two young lives.

Previous to the entry of the bridal party a very attractive musical program was rendered by Mr. and Mrs. R. A. G. Barnes, organ and violin. Then Mr. James L. Fowle, a brother of the bride, in a rich tenor voice sang "Because" by D'Hardiot. The following guests of honor then entered: Misses Bessie Payne, Mary Fowle, Mary Bonner, Margaret and Annie Jarvis, Mattie W. Wall, Mary Elizabeth Thomas, Mary Lillian Ellis, Worth, Sedie Martin, Mesdames L. H. Mann, N. L. Simmons and Mrs. H. D. Seagriff. The little ribbon girls, Selgnora Jennette, Marcha MacLean, Jessie Brown and Eliza Grimes, daintily attired in white lingerie dresses with pink ribbons, formed a chain of ribbons leading up from the door, while the organ pealed forth Medelhossion's wedding march under the deft touch of Mrs. Barnes. Next came the ushers, W. B. Rodman, Jr., McGilvary Orr, N. L. Simmons and H. C. Carter, Jr. Following them were the bridesmaids, Misses Annie Payne, and Caddie Fowle, gowned in white chamoisee and carrying pink chrysanthemums. Next entered the groomsmen, Messrs. Robert Fowle and Lindsay C. Warren. The dame of honor, Mrs. W. H. Ellison, entered, wearing white satin and carried pink chrysanthemums. She was followed by the maid of honor, Miss Ethel Fowle, gowned in a crystal net robe over pink chamoisee, and carrying a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Dainty little Helen Brown, flower girl, preceded the bride, scattering roses in her pathway. The bride entered leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. Samuel R. Fowle. She was exquisitely attired in Duchess satin, embroidered in pearls, trimmed its real lace with court train. Her tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of Lillies of the Valley, Brides Roses and Asparagus ferns.

At the altar she was met by the groom and his best man Mr. Samuel Long. Together they stood before the altar, while Rev. H. B. Seagriff, performed the ceremony, making them man and wife, during which the soft strains of Schubert's serenade were wafted through the church. Then to the strains of Lohengrin the bridal party rapidly passed out of the church and taking automobiles drove to the home of the bride's parents where a reception was tendered them. Mrs. S. R. Fowle, mother of the bride, was handsomely attired in white chiffon over chamoisee, trimmed in pearls, and wearing Palma violets. At the reception the beautiful and handsome home was exquisitely decorated with a color scheme in the parlor, white and green, in the library golden red and autumn leaves, in the dining room pink and green and hall palms and ferns. The guests were first received at the door by little Misses Margaret Bra-gaw, and Etta Cordon Carter who took their cards. In the reception hall Mesdames J. B. Sparrow, J. T. Lawson, C. M. Brown, Jr., J. B. Fowle and J. B. Moore received. In the parlor the receiving line was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel R. Fowle, Mrs. Eliza Long, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sparrow Long, Mrs. W. H. Ellison, Mr. Samuel Long and Miss Ethel Fowle, Mr. R. B. Fowle and Miss Annie Payne, M. L. C. Warren and Miss Caddie Fowle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Payne, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Beckwith, Miss Mat-tie Fowle, and Mrs. V. M. Hargrave in the dining room Miss Bettie Harvey, Mrs. F. H. Rollins, and Mrs. F. C. Kugler received, where a bevy of young girls served dainty refreshments. In the library Mesdames C. M. Payne and A. W. Thomas received. Here the numerous hand-some and magnificent gifts were displayed. Mesdames S. C. Bragaw and John G. Blount presided at the punch bowl.

The out-of-town guests at the wedding were, Mrs. Eliza Long, Lake Landing, N. C., Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Payne, Norfolk, Va., Mrs. M. R. Kinn, Durham, N. C., Mrs. J. F. Beckwith, Rosemary, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. Z. V. Walser, Lexington, N. C., Mr. McGilvary Orr, Statesville, N. C., Mr. Sam Long, Lake Landing, N. C.

A large number of friends and acquaintances called at the reception to extend best wishes and congratulations, after which Mr. and Mrs. Long left on the midnight train for a wedding tour of the northern cities.

broided in pearls, trimmed its real lace with court train. Her tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of Lillies of the Valley, Brides Roses and Asparagus ferns. At the altar she was met by the groom and his best man Mr. Samuel Long. Together they stood before the altar, while Rev. H. B. Seagriff, performed the ceremony, making them man and wife, during which the soft strains of Schubert's serenade were wafted through the church. Then to the strains of Lohengrin the bridal party rapidly passed out of the church and taking automobiles drove to the home of the bride's parents where a reception was tendered them.

Mrs. S. R. Fowle, mother of the bride, was handsomely attired in white chiffon over chamoisee, trimmed in pearls, and wearing Palma violets. At the reception the beautiful and handsome home was exquisitely decorated with a color scheme in the parlor, white and green, in the library golden red and autumn leaves, in the dining room pink and green and hall palms and ferns.

The guests were first received at the door by little Misses Margaret Bragaw, and Etta Cordon Carter who took their cards. In the reception hall Mesdames J. B. Sparrow, J. T. Lawson, C. M. Brown, Jr., J. B. Fowle and J. B. Moore received. In the parlor the receiving line was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel R. Fowle, Mrs. Eliza Long, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sparrow Long, Mrs. W. H. Ellison, Mr. Samuel Long and Miss Ethel Fowle, Mr. R. B. Fowle and Miss Annie Payne, M. L. C. Warren and Miss Caddie Fowle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Payne, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Beckwith, Miss Mat-tie Fowle, and Mrs. V. M. Hargrave in the dining room Miss Bettie Harvey, Mrs. F. H. Rollins, and Mrs. F. C. Kugler received, where a bevy of young girls served dainty refreshments.

In the library Mesdames C. M. Payne and A. W. Thomas received. Here the numerous handsome and magnificent gifts were displayed. Mesdames S. C. Bragaw and John G. Blount presided at the punch bowl.

The out-of-town guests at the wedding were, Mrs. Eliza Long, Lake Landing, N. C., Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Payne, Norfolk, Va., Mrs. M. R. Kinn, Durham, N. C., Mrs. J. F. Beckwith, Rosemary, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. Z. V. Walser, Lexington, N. C., Mr. McGilvary Orr, Statesville, N. C., Mr. Sam Long, Lake Landing, N. C.

A large number of friends and acquaintances called at the reception to extend best wishes and congratulations, after which Mr. and Mrs. Long left on the midnight train for a wedding tour of the northern cities.

HAWKINS NOTES

Mrs. J. B. Tetterton and children of Broad Creek, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. O. L. Sparrow.

Mrs. Amanda Congleton and son John, of Route 4, were the guests of Mrs. John Hawkins while Sunday morning.

Mrs. Francis Lewis who has been spending some time in Washington returned home last Wednesday.

Miss Jennie G. Woolard, who has been spending the past several months in Richmond, Va., returned home Tuesday.

Miss Larcy Woolard was the guest of Miss Maggie Woolard Saturday night and Sunday.

We are sorry to note the continued feebleness of Mrs. John Hawkins.

Mr. O. L. Sparrow was a Washington visitor Saturday.

Mr. T. P. Braddy of Jessama, was in our midst Sunday.

Mrs. Alice Singleton of Pineville, spent several days with her daughters, Mrs. J. G. Woolard and Mrs. Claude Woolard last week.

Mr. Moses Woolard, who has been spending quite awhile with his daughter, Mrs. D. A. Holtzschotten, at Andrews, S. C., returned home Tuesday. His many friends are glad to welcome him back.

Mrs. Mary C. Bynner was the guest of Mrs. O. L. Sparrow Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Luther Woolard of Beckwith, spent Saturday night and Sunday at the home of his uncle Mr. F. A. Woolard.

Potato digging is the order of the day with most of our farmers.

CROW BRANCH ITEMS

Crow Branch School will open on November 3rd with Miss Viola Liverman of Ahsokie, N. C., as teacher.

Miss Claude Hollowell of Ransomville, formerly a school teacher of this place to the delight of her many friends and admirers visited this community on last Saturday and Sunday. Miss Hollowell is now teaching school at Wilmar, N. C.

Miss Essie Barr spent Saturday night with Miss Lillian Buck.

Several people in this community are expecting to attend the fair at New Bern.

We are sorry to note the illness of Mrs. Lena Barr. Her friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Josephine Roberts and Little Miss Violet Hines spent Saturday night with Mrs. J. B. Downs.

Mrs. R. M. Warren and children spent Saturday night with Mrs. W. W. Moore on Moore road.

Mr. W. F. Downs is very ill at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Downs and children visited Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Buck Sunday afternoon.