Drunkens Couldn't Run.
Four big bears were killed near Marlinton, W. Va., by a gunning party who came upon the animals after they had destroyed a "moonshine" still and lapped up a large quantity of the illicit whisky. The bears were so visibly intoxicated that they could not run and fell easy victims to the gunners.

Comparative Worth.
Scribbler—"Now, dear, I can't come and take the baby. Don't you see I am very busy on this poem? Call the servant!" Mrs. Scribbler—"I'll do nothing of the kind, Henry. Just remember that the servant girl's time is worth exactly four dollars a week!" —Puck.

Appendicitis Known 30 Years.
As a disease, appendicitis became known about thirty years ago. Since that time it is estimated that fully 200,000 people in this country have undergone surgical operations as a cure.

Strictly Up to Date.
Seven-year-old Peggy was drawing the picture of a house and finally announced it completed. "But where are the chimneys?" she was asked. Peggy's face fell for a moment as she noticed this important omission, but she quickly recovered her presence of mind. "Oh, this kind of a house doesn't need chimneys," she answered calmly. "It is heated by radiators."

Wells Should Be Deep.
Experiments have proved the shallow wells contain twenty times as many dangerous germs as are contained in the deeper wells and considering that the water supply usually is stronger as the depth increases, the putting down of deep wells ought to appeal strongly to every farmer.—The Homestead.

Food From the Sea.
Nearly 5,700,000 crabs were landed in England and Wales last year, according to the annual report on sea fisheries, while over thirty-three million oysters, between six and seven hundred thousand lobsters, and some twenty-six thousand tons of other shell-fish were taken.

American Forests the Best.
The original forests of the United States contained timber in quantity and variety far exceeding that found on any similar tract in the world.
Remarkable.
Frost—"Sometimes one runs across his friends in the most unexpected places." Snow—"True. Yesterday I found Agnes at home."

FOR SUCCESS WITH POULTRY
Essential that the Male at Head of Flock is Pure Bred—Uniformity Increases the Profits.
Be sure that the male at the head of the flock is pure bred. Pure-bred poultry means uniformity of products. Uniformity of products means increased profits. If products are properly marketed. Given the same care and feed, pure-bred fowls will make a greater profit than mongrels. Uniform products command the best prices. Pure-bred fowls produce uniform products.
In order to obtain eggs it is necessary to have healthy, vigorous stock.

Brood Coops With Hens and Chickens on a Well-Managed Poultry Farm.
properly fed. A splendid mixture for laying hens is equal parts of cracked corn, wheat and oats, which should be scattered in the litter. Bran or middlings and beef scraps could be kept in receptacles to which the fowls have access at all times.
Plenty of exercise increases the egg yield. Provide four or five feet of good, clean litter in which to scatter the grain.
Cabbages, mangels, potatoes, etc., make excellent green feed.
When wet mash are fed, sure they are crumbly and not sticky.
For the first three days chicks may be fed a mixture of equal parts hard-boiled eggs and stale bread, or stale bread soaked in milk. When bread and milk are used, care should be exercised to squeeze all milk out of the bread. From the third or fourth day until the chicks can eat wheat and cracked corn, commercial chick feed is a good ration.
Plenty of pure, fresh water, grit, shell and green feed should be available from the first day.
Feed the chickens about five times daily and only what they will eat up clean in a few minutes, except at night, when they should receive all they want.
