Greatest Chicken Farm. Meeches farm, Poole, England, is said to be the greatest chicken farm in the world. Experiments made there in the forcing of the growth of chickens by electrical influences are reported as showing remarkable results. In five weeks electrically treated chickens have attained the normal weight of chickens three months old. The experiments may have possible corollaries in the treatment of sub-normal children.—The Outlook.

New Author.
Mr. Cory is greatly given to study. His wife, on the contrary, never reads at all. She does, however, occasionally take down a volume in order to show some sympathetic interest in her husband's favorite pursuit.

One morning, during breakfast, Mrs. Cory remarked:
"I took down a book yesterday by an author named Voliv. It is considered a good writer."
"Voliv, my dear?" queried the husband, in perplexity. "Voliv, did you say?"
"Yes," she replied. "I got it and show you."
Leaving the table, she soon returned, bringing a book which she handed him. It was a volume of Browning's poetry and had been bound with no name on the back, simply bearing the legend, "Vol. IV."

Common Oriental Headwear.
The fez or tarbush is limited by no considerations of nationality or faith. It is the almost universal head covering of the eastern and southern lands of the Mediterranean and has been widely distributed in the still active diffusion of Mohammedanism. This type of felt hat without brim is of the utmost antiquity and seems to have undergone no marked change, save the tassel, from the early monumental record of the Euphrates valley. The designation fez, comparatively modern in its application, derives from the oasis the only source of dyestuffs which could give the peculiar shade of red most favored.

NOTICE!
To the People of Beaufort County:

You are notified that the compulsory period for Beaufort county, as designated by the county board of education, will begin on Monday, November 24th, and continue for four consecutive school months—80 days. During this period all children not under eight and not over twelve years of age are required to attend school every day, unless excused under exceptions named in the act.

It is the duty of the attendance officer for your township to force this law, and the duty of your teacher to assist him in doing so.

We sincerely hope every person will give this measure his hearty support and encouragement. It is not unreasonable and we anticipate no difficulty in enforcing it.

E. W. AYERS, Chairman,
W. M. BUTT,
T. R. HODGES,
County Board of Education.
W. L. VAUGHAN,
County Superintendent.
