Butcher Wouldn't Belleve it, Health Commissioner F. A. Kraft of Milwaukee tells a good story on a Sixth ward butcher, whose market is one of those that worry the chief food inspector into sleepless nights and who was cited to appear before the health commissioner. He was told that his market was a diagrace to the neigh-borhood and his methods too filthy to tolerate. Prosecution and a probable fine was suggested. After voluably protesting his good intentions and promising improv-ment, his syes, according to Doctor Kraft, fell upon a picture of a model butcher shop erected by a North sido butcher. The man studied the picture critically and a studied the picture butcher. The man studied the picture critically, and not without reverence
