Way to Rest.
Lying flat on the floor is a ready way to rest and relieve but a much better way is to lie on the floor with a pillow under the knees resting on a chair. This changes the entire circulation and is the very quickest way to rest. To rest the eyes and head, lie on the floor with a pillow under the head and a soft blanket over the head.

Value of Proper Spelling.
The value of proper spelling cannot be overestimated. It is a mark of a well-educated man. It is a mark of a man who is careful and accurate in all his work.

Task of Separation.
The task of separation is a heavy one. It is a task that requires a strong will and a clear head. It is a task that is often misunderstood and is often the cause of much suffering.

Bar to Anti.
The bar to anti is a barrier that is often placed in the way of progress. It is a barrier that is often the result of a narrow-minded and selfish attitude.

Heavy Penalty for Carelessness.
A heavy penalty is often paid for carelessness. It is a penalty that is often the result of a lack of attention and a failure to do one's duty.

Much Money Spent for Samples.
Much money is often spent for samples. It is a waste of money that could be better spent on other things.

Fever Statistics.
Fever statistics show that fever is a common ailment. It is a fever that is often the result of a cold or a flu.

Their Handicap in Life.
Many people have a handicap in life. It is a handicap that is often the result of a physical or mental defect.

Dawn of the Matriarchal System.
The dawn of the matriarchal system is a new era. It is an era in which women are equal to men.

More Valuable to Community.
A man who is more valuable to his community is a man who is more useful. It is a man who is more helpful and more generous.

Had the Goods.
The man who has the goods is a man who is successful. It is a man who is more fortunate and more prosperous.

Greater Conqueror.
The greater conqueror is a man who conquers himself. It is a man who is more self-controlled and more disciplined.

Way to Obey That Impulse.
The way to obey that impulse is to act on it. It is a way that is often the result of a strong will and a clear head.

All of It.
The nurse to young doctor—Your piece is waiting, sir? Shall I show him in?

able When Proper Aid to Nutrition is Given.

A low state of the general health is now the accepted cause of backwardness of children. So in the case of a building up its health, it will usually be found that the main trouble is in the blood, in lack of assimilation and digestion. Hence care should be taken in the kind of food given to the child. This, with plenty of air and exercise, should bring about a change for the better.

LUCILE McBROOM

Watch the condition of the bowels to note whether the waste is being passed off or not, or whether it is being passed too freely. If either condition prevails give a small dose for that gentlest of all laxative-tonic, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

and the price is only fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, the latter for families who use it regularly.

It is pleasant to the taste and easy to take and it is given to infants and not equally effective for grown people. All druggists sell it.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 419 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

Definite Reserved.
An English schoolmistress, says the Manchester Guardian, who was helping to make some costumes for a Browning play, was asked if she had ever read any of the poet. "No," she replied. "I've never read any of that sort of stuff; not Browning, nor Shakespeare neither. But then, you know," she added, "my mother has her own opinion about Shakespeare."

Giving Them Warning.
At the annual picnic of a Manchester firm one of the packers was called upon after dinner to propose the toast to the firm. He was rather nervous, and began thus: "Mr. Chairman and gentlemen, I have very great pleasure in rising to propose the health of the firm, which will be very brief."—Manchester Guardian.

Keeping Tab on the Men.
In the effort to secure an accurate record of the hen's egg achievements, an aluminum crayon-holder has been invented by which the chicken makes her mark as she leaves the nest. The crayon is mounted on the foot and the color of the crayon indicates the particular bird.

In Moment of Inspiration.
The present Lord Tennyson tells in his charming biography of his father, the late poet laureate, that he wrote "Crossing the Bar" in a few minutes. He had been down to Seacombe, near Bolt Head, where there is a bar which makes a curious moaning. He sat on the cliffs listening to it, but it was not until long afterwards that the great lyric came like a flash of inspiration.

Task of Separation.
The task of separation is a heavy one. It is a task that requires a strong will and a clear head. It is a task that is often misunderstood and is often the cause of much suffering.

Clergyman's Pun.
A clergyman who had worked for many years in a certain wild section of the country, was being queried by a brother as to the church which made most appeal to the people in that region. He answered that the Baptists had been most successful in making converts. The questioner made some objection to the practice of total abstinence, which was the only baptismal ceremony recognized in the country. It seemed to him supererogatory.
