Attractive Program Has Been Arranged For Lee's Birthday

Takes Place Court House Tuesday Next

Messrs W. L. Vaughan and John G. Bragaw Jr. the Speakers. Occasion will be fittingly observed.

As already announced through the columns of this paper the Pamlico Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy are to celebrate the birthday of General Robert E. Lee at the Court House, this city, on next Tuesday evening. On account of another attraction in the city on Monday evening the Daughters decided to postpone the exercises in commemoration of the natal day of the Southern chieftain until Tuesday evening. The committee of arrangements have certainly arranged a very attractive and entertaining program for the occasion and all who expect to attend can rest assured they will be amply repaid.

Mr. W. L. Vaughan, superintendent of the county schools, is to deliver a short address on Robert E. Lee, and Mr. John G. Bragaw, Jr., will make a short address on the Confederacy. All three of the speakers are well known in Washington and what they will have to say will prove of interest to each and every hearer.

The children of the Confederacy will take part in the exercises. In addition to the above a very attractive musical program is promised. This feature of the evening is as follows:

Miss Rosale Conoley will sing "The Sword of Lee"; Messrs. L. Y. Shaw, Z. M. Potts, John Smith and R. Lee Stewart will sing "Teating Tonight"; Children of the Confederacy will sing "Jackson and Lee"; Misses Bragaw and Rhodes and Messrs. Ayers and Harding will render, "Where is Now the Merry Party"; a choir of about forty voices will sing "Carolina" and "How Firm a Foundation."

Miss Ruth Butler, vocal teacher of the Washington Public Schools, will sing a vocal solo. As will be seen from the above a rich treat awaits all the citizens on the evening of Tuesday, January 20th at the Court House.

A SCENE FROM "A MODERN EVE"

Great Musical Success At the New Theater Monday Night January 19

Heralded as the greatest musical success of the decade, and boasting of the most popuulous summer witnessed in Chicago in years, "A Modern Eve" announced as the attraction at the New Theater Monday night, January 19th, promises to be an event of more than usual interest to the music lovers. Chicagoans have been enraptured in its swinging music all season and was loath to permit the Berlin opera to depart to other triumphs. "A Modern Eve" was first staged at the Neues Theater, Berlin, where it remained for two years. Its success was immediate and emphatic, and it speedily became the talk of Berlin.

Mort H. Slinger, who was visiting the German capital, was delighted with the offering and was greatly impressed with the popularity of this company are far above the average.

Assuring himself of the Berretto's adaptability for the American stage, he secured exclusive rights to it on this side of the Atlantic. Victor Hollander, who wrote most of the music score, is ranked as the best composer of light music in Germany, and his collaborator, Jean Gilbert, a younger man, is distinguished as an author of "The Polish Wedding," which ran for two years in Berlin. Among the song hits now heard are the alluring "Good-bye Everybody," "Rita, My Margie," "Every Day is Christmas When You're Married," "Won't You Smile," "Excuse Me! Certainly," "Hello, Sweetheart" and "Is the Girl You Married Still the Girl You Love?"

Seats now selling at Worthy & Etheridge Drug Store.

GREAT SHOW NEW THEATER JANUARY 22

Beverly of Graustark is to be Presented Here. From Pen Of one of the Greatest Novelists.

"Beverly of Graustark" has been secured by Manager Sparrow for the New Theater Thursday, January 22nd. The play can safely be recommended to the public inasmuch as it comes from the pen of one of our greatest novelists, George Barr McCutcheon, and has been dramatized by the equally famous, Robert M. Baker. The players also come well recommended, and as the company carries all scenery and equipments, there is no doubt but that the attraction will meet with success in this city. Seats go on sale Tuesday morning at Worthy & Etheridge Drug Store.

Miss Dorothy Decker, leading lady with "Beverly of Graustark" is said to be one of the best on the road this season and as she is supported by some of the best known people of road attractions there is little doubt but that all who attend the performance will come away well pleased. George Barr McCutcheon is the author of the novel and Robert M. Baker, the dramatist. It is said the scenery and costumes of this company are far above the average.

TO THE PUBLIC

My attention has been called to a report unless corrected might leave the impression on some who have heard it, that Mr. E. L. Archbell was not treated fair in the dissolution of the co-partnership of E. L. Archbell and Hugh Paul, trading under the firm name of the Central Pure Food Market.

The facts are these: Mr. Archbell and I could not agree on several matters involved in the dissolution of the co-partnership. It was finally agreed that a board of arbitrators composed of three business men be chosen to settle the matter. Mr. Archbell chose one and I one, the two selecting the third. We both agreed to accept the adjustment made by this board. The men who were on this board are among the most prominent business men of the town and neither of them were interested in the matter. The board heard Mr. Archbell and myself in our contentions—the books being left with them for inspection. They made their report of the adjustment in writing—it being unanimous.

Mr. Archbell received the full amount the arbitrators named as being a just settlement of his interest in the business. I mention these facts that the public may be correctly informed and that no false impressions may prevail. The firm of F. G. Paul & Bro., will continue to run the market under the same name—Central Pure Food Market. It is our desire and intention to give the public the very best service and to carry a complete line of fresh meats. On Friday's of each week we will have prime Western beef to supply our Saturday's trade. We expect to carry nothing but good prime stock and conduct our market in a clean and sanitary way. We appreciate the support this market has received and trust that its customers will continue to phone their orders in or call in person.

F. G. PAUL & BRO.,
