TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 10TH ENFORCE ORDINANCE

There is an ordinance against the riding of bicycles on the sidewalks of the city and this law is being violated daily. Pedestrians wending their way on the sidewalk actually have to get in the gutter in order for those riding to pass. The city should either repeal this law or enforce it. What is the use of having such a law if it is not enforced by the authorities. It would pay the city to place a policeman in the West End of the city for a few afternoons and see what amount of money would be placed in the city treasury.

Either repeal the ordinance forbidding bicyclists riders from the use of the sidewalk or enforce it. Do one or the other.

NEW EXCHANGE The Greenville Gazette with C. F. Carroll, editor and manager is the newest exchange to our table. The first issue is a most creditable one and shows that the management is newspaper men of worth. We wish the Gazette, published in Greenville, N. C., every success.

FEW LATE COMERS The recent rule of the management of the New Theater with regard to late comers for a performance was evidenced last night. The few waiting at the main entrance after the first rise of the curtain were conspicuous. The ruling of the management is to be commended. Nine cases out of ten those who are late have seats right in the middle of the orchestra which would necessitate a disturbance during the act if given seats when they arrive. It is to be hoped that those patronizing the theater will endeavor to arrive on time.

May Wedding. In ancient Rome there was held a May festival called the Lemuria, or feast of the Lemures, which was a ceremony in honor of the spirits of departed souls. It became with the Romans what we should call "bad form" to have matrimonial feasts at the season of a solemn ritual, being a doubt thought to be an insult to the dead to marry at such a time. From this a number of stories grew of the revenge made by the outraged goddess upon those who dared to disregard them, and if anything unfortunate happened to a couple who had been married in May it was, of course, because they had been put down to retribution. So the repugnance to May weddings arose and its influence has lasted ever since even to our time.—Exchange.

Easy to identify. "I was going down the street the other day," the fellow said, "and I met a little boy crying. He was a miserable object and seemed to be suffering keenly. So I stopped and spoke to him. "What's the matter, son?" says I. "A b-b-big boy hit me," he sobbed. "Well, that's a shame. You tell me who the big boy was and I'll give him a talking to and he'll give him a good one." "It was the b-b-big boy," answered the abused youngster, "with a show of interest. He's down there with all those other kids." "Which one of that crowd is he?" "You kin tell easy enough. He's the one with the black eye an' the bloody nose, an' he's cryin' too!"—Chicago News.
