Bethaven, N. C., Mar. 6.—(Special.)—A rather unusual shipment of freight, it being a car of about one hundred fat hogs, was made by F. P. Latham and P. H. Johnson from this section to Norfolk, Va. last week. This is probably the first car of finished hogs ever shipped by individual growers from this sec-

These gentlemen do not make hose gentieren do not make hog raising their specialty, but con-duct it as a side line in their gen-eral system of progressive farming. Each of them having previously cured sufficient bacon to furnish cured sufficient bacon to furnish their farms for the present year.

These hogs were raised largely upon clover and gleanings of catch grown with the corn. Mr. Latham of any move that spells progressive agriculture and their success unquestionably will open the way to the growing and shipping of many cars of hogs from this section of the county in the future.

The fact that such diversification can be carried on to a profitable con clusion here, is evidence that this locality offers advantages to homeeekers that are equalled by few and surpassed by no other section of the state,
