RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas, through the Providence of an all wise and merciful Heavenly Father, our brother, Mr. George W. Jarvis a member of Union Lodge No. 17, C. B. H. of South Creek, has been removed from our order by the grim reaper death, and desiring to give some expression of our regret and sorrow at losing our brother from our councils here below, therefore, be it

Resolved 1. That in the death of Bro. Jarvis our lodge has lost one of its most valued and faithful members.
Resolved 2. That while we keenly feel our loss, yet from the life he lived we have that hope and confidence that our loss is his gain.
Resolved 3. That we extend to the widow and children of our brother our sincere sympathy in this dark hour of sorrow and point them to that Savior who is acquainted with all of our grief and is able to heal all our sorrow.
Resolved 4. That a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of our lodge, a copy sent to the bereaved family and a copy sent to the Washington News with request to publish.

Rough on the Old Maids. In a quiet English village there was recently held a celebration in the schoolroom at the dedication of a new fire engine. It was a giddy evening, with three speeches by local clergymen and a long-winded oration by a bald-headed politician. The gem of the evening was the following toast: "May she (the fire engine) be like the dear old maids of our village—always ready, but never wanted!"

In Her New Place. "How are you getting on at your new place?" remarked a lady of a girl whom she had recommended for a situation. "Very well, thank you," answered the girl. "I am glad to hear it," said the lady. "Your employer is a very nice person, and you cannot do too much for her." "I don't mean to say," was the innocent reply.

HAWKINSVILLE NOTES.

The weather continues very dry and dusty. Miss Jennie Woolard spent Saturday in Washington. Mrs. J. H. Wallace of your city, spent several days here last week the guest of Mrs. Sarah E. Woolard. Mr. B. B. Pinkham and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leah Pinkham Sunday. Mrs. Charley Baynor and Miss Alice Woolard spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. James Bennett at Bunyan.

Remember services at Hawkins school house next Sunday afternoon by Rev. C. E. Durham. Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Ambrose of Roper, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Swain Saturday. Mrs. O. L. Sparrow and children were visitors near Bunyan Sunday. Mrs. J. Smith of Norfolk, Va., was the guest of her sister Mrs. J. D. Swain one day last week.

Quite a number of our people attended services at Beaver Dam Sunday. The young people of this place are planning to give an entertainment at Finetown Thursday night, June 11, 1914, for the benefit of the public school building at that place. An attractive program has been arranged and every one is invited to go out and aid a worthy cause. Following is a portion of the program with cast of characters. Play—"OUR AWFUL AUNT" Aunt Matilda Johnson—Miss Mattie P. Woolard. Mrs. Hasselton—Jennie Woolard Alice Hasselton—Hattie Singleton. Frank Hasselton—Wm. J. Sparrow. Arthur Wallace—J. B. Woolard. There will be a number of attractive songs and recitations also several shorter plays. The entertainment will begin about 8 o'clock. Remember the time and the hour.

North Carolina—Beaufort County, Superior Court—May Term, 1914. F. T. PHILLIPS vs. FOREIGN PRODUCTS CO.

Notice of Summons and Warrant of Attachment. The defendant, above-named, will take notice that a summons in the above-entitled action was issued against said defendant on the 15th day of April, 1914, by George A. Paul, Clerk of the Superior Court of Beaufort County, directed to the Sheriff of New Hanover County, which said summons has been returned by the Sheriff of New Hanover County, endorsed "defendant not to be found in this county"; that an alias summons has been issued to the Sheriff of Beaufort County against said defendant on the 15th day of May, 1914, which said summons has also been returned by the Sheriff of Beaufort County endorsed "defendant not to be found in this county."

The defendant will also take notice that a warrant of attachment was issued by the Clerk of the Superior Court of Beaufort County on the 15th day of April, 1914, against the property of said defendant in Beaufort County, North Carolina. That said action arises out of a breach of contract between the defendant and plaintiff, and the plaintiff claims as damages the sum of $268.85.

The defendant is, therefore, required to appear at the next term of the Superior Court of Beaufort County, to be held on the 5th day of October, 1914, and answer or demur to the complaint, or the relief demanded will be granted. This 15th day of May, 1914. GEO. A. PAUL, Clerk Superior Court, 5-16-4wc Beaufort County.

Ornaments of the Oyster. A kindergarten teacher, after explaining to her much interested class that birds have feathers, bears have fur, sheep have wool, etc, asked the question: "Now, who can tell me what oysters have?" A bright little girl, very eager to recite, answered: "Crackers."—National Monthly.

Cough Lasted Eight Years

BUT BEAR'S EMULSION FINALLY CURED IT.
Read the Testimony of Mr. H. B. C. Gentry, the Well-Known Postmaster at Elkton, Va.
Dr. John D. Bear, Elkton, Va. Sir—About eight years ago I contracted a bad case of pneumonia which left me with a cough. At first I paid but little attention to it, being elated over my recovery, which had been regarded unfavorable by my physician. The cough continued to annoy me up to four years ago, when my physician advised me to use Petroleum Emulsion prepared by you. I did so, using three bottles when I had been so much benefited that I discontinued the use of it. Since that time I have used several bottles during the winter, and at such times as when affected by colds. I have been completely cured of the cough. Very respectfully, H. B. C. Gentry. Elkton, Va., Nov. 20. Guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. One dollar a bottle or six for five dollars. Sold by Worthy & Etheridge.
