GREAT TREAT IN STORE FOR CHAUTAUQUA PATRONS SATURDAY EVENING

Judge Lindsay The Star Of The Week On The Platform This Evening He Is a Most Interesting National Character, Is Known As The 'Kid's Judge'.

For the benefit of our readers we wish to publish some interesting facts relative to Judge Lindsay, which Mr. Brown, a local business man, and including a copy of Mr. Lindsay's letter to him last year, which is enclosed herewith to all subscribers to this paper.

Our informant volunteered his name and was in all readiness to go to Denver to make a campaign for his retention should this have been necessary.

His letter reads as follows: 'I have been reading with great interest and with every letter that comes to me the amount which is now being made upon you and those under and with you in Denver.'

'It is such more than a matter of mere local interest. You are one of the men who has done most of the good work of our people. We are proud to have you in our midst and we are glad to have you in our midst.'

'You should still be in the concrete, not merely in the abstract. Five or six people are willing to attend to the business for you, but it is necessary to have a direct agent. But very, very few are willing to have the business of another man, which follows upon such an act as this.'

'You would have among those few who are willing to render this great service with a fine and high degree of ability to yourself. Any one who will turn to your book and read the character of your attacks upon the most powerful and ablest leaders of the political and industrial world and understand why they are made upon you is made with such impressive power of misrepresentation.'

'The most potent ally of the bad man is the foolish good man who permits himself to be used as a tool in breaking down the only good man of whom the bad man is afraid, that is, the good man who is not a weakling, who knows how to hit and who does it.'

'The force of evil always heartily approves of that innocent victim which is wholly unable to do anything effective against wickedness. The only good man who can fight is not only an idealist, but in addition is a thoroughly practical, efficient and fearless man.'

'You are being assailed because you have shown common sense in addition to the highest type of courage and a lofty idealism. Every decent man and woman in the United States should be heartily with you in this struggle and honor you for standing fearlessly by every man who has been faithful in his fight in serving under you.'

'With all good wishes faithfully yours, THEODORE ROOSEVELT.'

'The Quaker's letter was so strong that it was a most striking revelation, resulting in a letter to him from the Quaker, which through him, has been published in this paper. It is a most interesting and valuable document, and one which should be read by every man and woman who is interested in the welfare of our country.'

HOUSE PARTY HOME OF MISS ELLSWORTH

Miss Mary Lillian Ellsworth and Mr. William Ellsworth are having a house party at their home on West Second street and the occasion is being greatly enjoyed by the guests. The guests of Miss Ellsworth and Mr. Ellsworth are Miss Ariene Joyner, Greenville; Miss Jane Gibson, Gibson, N. C.; Miss Ethel Cohen of Charleston, S. C.; Miss Emma Cole, Rockingham, N. C.; Mr. Fitzhugh Wallace, Kenansville; Mr. Lister Wallace, Kenansville; Mr. Oliver Westbrook, Kenansville.

YOUNG MEN KINSMEN OF C. W. MELICK

With the College Players last night were Messrs. Joel and James Melick, the former playing the part of Sir Toby Belch, the jolly old trifling uncle, the latter portraying the character of the Duke. A fact interesting to our people is that those two young gentlemen are near kinsmen of Mr. C. W. Melick, of Elizabeth City, who married Miss Annie T. Bragaw, daughter of Mr. J. G. Bragaw of this city. They were especially good in their parts, and Sir Toby furnished a vast amount of fun and called forth much laughter from the audience.

Mr. James Melick played shortstop on the crack Swarthmore College ball team this spring. The Messrs. Melick were guests while here of Judge and Mrs. Stephen C. Bragaw.

TO MY LOYAL FRIENDS THOUGHTOUT COUNTY

I most sincerely thank each and every one of you for your loyal support in making me your choice for your next Sheriff of Beaufort County. I feel proud of my achievement, to be such a young man with no means or machinery to use and to poll the largest majority of any candidate with opposition in this campaign. I shall use every effort to make you a good Sheriff and will do nothing to bring reproach upon you or to myself.

Sincerely Yours, WILLIAM B. WINDLEY

TO MY FRIENDS

I wish to express to my democratic friends my deep and sincere appreciation of their generous support at the polls Friday. In view of the fight that has been made against me, I cannot help but feel that the people are the best judges, and that they have agreed with me that I have made a fight on principle, and that on this basis, I am not only entitled but that I am capable, purely on merit to faithfully and conscientiously represent their interests in the Hall of the General Assembly.

I realize fully that the victory is not my own but that of the people at large, my campaign was made on the machine part of the organization and by their votes the people have said they are not satisfied with the boss ridden conditions under which we are now living and were willing to bring about a change.

This change can not be accomplished all at one stroke but must be brought about gradually and the fight for cleaner politics and economical government in Town and County has just begun and I shall continue my efforts in that direction until the desired results are accomplished.

Sincerely, JAS. L. MAYO.

JUDGE LINDSAY SUNDAY

Judge Ben Lindsay who lectures tonight at the Chautauqua will also make an address at the Chautauqua Sunday afternoon.

Fortunate Indians. In a composition dealing with the habits and customs of American Indians a boy deeply impressed with their two-and-a-half year life wrote the following: 'The Indians had few laws, but they were well visited.'

PROGRAM FOR SUNDAY AFT. ANNOUNCED

The Chautauqua management and the local committee have arranged for a very interesting and enterprising program which is scheduled to take place at the Chautauqua, beginning promptly Sunday afternoon at 5.30 o'clock.

The first number will be a sacred concert by Victor's Italian band. The sacred concert will last one-half hour. Following this the combined local choir of the city will render old time favorite sacred hymns.

They will be seated on the platform. Following this the address of the afternoon will be made by Dr. Harmon a speaker of national reputation.

The different pastors of the city will be seated on the platform and are expected to take part in the program. The entertainment will last until seven o'clock or possibly a few minutes after and the outlook is that next Sunday afternoon the program will be one of the most delightful and enjoyable of Chautauqua week. It will be free and everyone has a cordial invitation to attend.

BRAGAW & CO HIT UPON A NOVEL SCHEME

The firm of William Bragaw & Co., is always abreast of the times. As every reader of this paper knows today is Primary Day not only in Washington but throughout the county for the naming of the respective candidates. While the firm of Bragaw and Company are not candidates for any political office they are, however, candidates for insurance.

In order to give the citizens an opportunity to vote for them in this respect they have a voting booth in front of their office and in big and attractive letters a pedestrian reads: "Vote for Bragaw for insurance." Catchy tickets have been prepared and not only do the citizens vote but they can take to their home literature on the subject of insurance, the kind which the firm of Bragaw writes. Their scheme for today is surely a novel and unique one.

DANCING AND SINGING LAST NIGHT GOOD

'Bene and Hammond' opened their three day's engagement at the New Theatre last night to a fair sized audience. This clever sister team are certainly the best that has ever been here. The songs are all catchy and well rendered. As for the dancing there has never been a more successful one on the stage of this town than when compared with the little sister that was seen there last night. The audience used by them are one of the latest out. They will give a complete change of program tonight, as if you did not see it at last night, you will see it tonight. You will see it tonight. You will see it tonight. You will see it tonight.

A former resident Mr. George Wright of Christfield, Md., arrived here this afternoon via the Atlantic Coast Line and is spending a few days with his father Mr. M. J. Wright. He is an old Washington boy who has made good in his adopted home.

Mr. Edward Merrill expects to leave tomorrow for an extensive visit to his old home at Rising Sun, Ind. While away Mr. Merrill will also visit relatives and friends in Hamilton, Ohio and Indiana. He will be away about two months. His many friends wish him a pleasant trip and a safe return.

Mr. Charles E. Roe is having word of a new building on West Third street. Mr. J. J. Harding is the contractor. It will add much to the appearance of that part of the city which is being reclaimed.
