

AN HONORED CITIZEN GOES TO HIS REWARD

Mr. Jehu Foreman After a Lingered Illness Passes Away. Funeral Takes Place Tomorrow From The Residence.

One of Washington's honored citizens Mr. Jehu Foreman fell on sleep this morning at 3.15 o'clock at his home on East Main street after an illness of four months.

Mr. Foreman was born November 20th, 1851, and at the time of his death was sixty-two years of age.

He was a carpenter and contractor by trade and was most efficient in his line of work. As a citizen he was esteemed, as a husband and father dutiful and affectionate. For years he has been a consistent member of the Episcopal church and did what he could for the uplift and betterment of his fellowman.

While all that the skill of his physicians was done aided by the tender nursing of loved ones, God knew best and called him to that home not made with hands eternal in the heavens. The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord. The funeral will be conducted from the late residence tomorrow by Rev. Nathaniel Harding and the interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

Besides a heart broken widow he leaves three children, Mrs. Edith Sparrow, Miss Elsie Foreman, Mr. Pat Foreman, to mourn their loss. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the stricken family.

BATTLE MEMORIAL.

Mr. O. F. Goforth of Durham, N. C., a student at the University of North Carolina, who is raising a fund of $5,000 for the Battle Memorial at Chapel Hill is here today canvassing the city in its interest. Mr. Goforth where he has been, has met with splendid success and is receiving much assistance from the citizens here. The parish house to be erected is a memorial to Dr. Kemp P. Battle and will be a made a part of the enlarged and virtually rebuilt Episcopal Church at Chapel Hill.

Right Age for an Actress.

In "The Diary of a Beauty," published in the Woman's Home Companion, appeared the following: "The stage is an ingrateful profession, and no woman can count on her public one day after she can no longer appear thirty-five years of age."

Commercial Possibility.

Little Ruth was busily occupied with her slate and pencil. Presently she ran to her father, whose face at the time required the services of a barber, climbed upon his knee and rubbing her chubby little hand over his chin, said: "Papa, can you sharpen slate pencils on that?"—Exchange.

Rightly Proud of His Road.

Two Pullman porters, representing different railroads, met off duty and progressed from friendly gossip to heated argument. Their quarrel centered about which one worked for the better road. Their claims, figures and arguments came fast and furious. At last the tall, thin porter settled the dispute with these classic words: "Go on, nigger; we kill 'em people den you fellows tote."

Always Continue to Hope.

We do not command ourselves to hope. We just hope. It is a part of our vitality. It lifts, inspires, nerves us. It is as indefinite as life itself. It is an inseparable function of a sound mind. The ceaseless struggle of hope, on the invisible battlefield of the mind, is one of the wonders of creation.

Candid, at Least.

For commercial candor and unconscious telling of the truth it is hard to beat some of the circulars received from various European resorts. Often they are translated literally from the foreign languages into English, and the results are a delight. One of these advertisements of a Hungarian summer resort tells us that it charges "Moderate prices, except during the height of the season!"

Bucket Shop.

A bucket shop is an office where people may gamble in fractional lots of stock, grain or other things which are bought and sold on the exchange. The bucket shop uses the terms and outward forms of the exchange, but differs from these in that there is no delivery and no expectation or intention to deliver or receive securities or commodities said to be sold or purchased.

N. C. DENTIST HONOR DR. GALLAGHER

Made First Vice President Of Dental Society Recently Held In Hendersonville. A Merited Honor.

Another one of Washington's professional men has been signally honored in the person of Dr. R. T. Gallagher one of the city's leading dentists. At the recent meeting of the North Carolina Dental Society held in Hendersonville Dr. Gallagher was elected first vice president of the society for the coming year. This is an honor worthily bestowed for there is no man, a member of the dental profession in the state who is more competent as a practitioner. The society is to be congratulated in naming our townsman as one of its officers for he will fill the position with ability and honor. An exchange gives the following account of the close of the meeting in Hendersonville.

After completing a crowded program of three days and enjoying an auto tour to surrounding points of interest this afternoon, the fortieth annual meeting of the North Carolina Dental Society adjourned tonight to meet next year at Wrightsville Beach, N. C., as first choice, provided reasonable rates can be secured.

The following officers were elected:

Dr. J. A. Sinclair, of Asheville, president; Dr. R. T. Gallagher of Washington, N. C., first-vice president; Dr. W. F. Nickel, of Hendersonville, second vice president; Dr. J. A. McClung, of Winston-Salem, secretary; Dr. R. M. Squires of Wake Forest, secretary. Doctors J. N. Johnson of Goldsboro, and C. R. Thompson of Raleigh, whose terms expire this year on the state board of dental examiners, were re-elected to succeed themselves.

The clinical program held during the afternoon was very instructive and enjoyed by the members present.

The report of the prosecuting committee revealed the fact that there had been three cases prosecuted for practicing without a state license during the past year.

Committee Express Thanks To Chautauqua Workers

As chairman of the guarantors of 1914 Chautauqua, we desire to thank all on behalf of the guarantors public and personally all those who assisted in making Chautauqua the great success that every one agrees it was. It is hardly fair to mention any names so genuine has been the co-operation, yet, we cannot refrain from speaking of the effort of Mr. C. G. Morris, whose excellent salesmanship and faithful work helped greatly in reducing the deficit the guarantors had to make up, and of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ellison, who planned, arranged and carried out the fine automobile advertising trips prior to the opening of the Chautauqua. We wish to thank the following gentlemen, who either loaned their cars or gave their services for that trip (in some cases both): W. W. Leggett, Suskin & Berry, J. F. Randolph, C. L. Carrow, E. R. Mixon, Geo. Diamond, W. H. Ellison & Co., Harris Hardware Co. We extend thanks also to Mrs. Lucy W. Myers, Mrs. C. F. Warren and Mr. Lindsey Warren for granting without charge the use of the lot on which the tent was pitched and to Mr. M. A. Smith, who as lot committee, had charge of this feature.

Mrs. John H. Small, Mrs. J. K. Hoyt, Mrs. J. G. Blount, Mrs. J. B. Fowle, Mrs. Geo. T. Leach, as the decoration committee, Misses Estelle D.

via, May Blount, Mollie Mayo, Annie Cox, Margaret Jarvis, Lucretia Hughes and Mrs. W. R. Bright as the Junior Chautauqua committee, were faithful throughout and rendered very valuable assistance. Most cordially we commend the ladies who had charge of the selling of the tickets: Misses Adeline Mayo, Corrine and Mattie Bright, Margaret Williams, Mildred Rumley, Mrs. F. H. Rollins, Misses Madeline Ellsworth, Ethel Fowle, Mary Fowle, Misses Jane Myers, Edna Willis, Lillie Belle Willis Bonner Archbell, Maud Swindell, Margaret Wells, Sadie Bland, Lizzie Hill, Elsie Kelly, Elizabeth Mollihenney, Mary Hill, Minnie Woodard, Leona Windley, Myra and Clair Hodges, Norma Jones Bernice Nicholson, Mae Ayers, Mary Tankard, Laura Branch and Mr. Z. N. Leggett.

It has been very gratifying to observe the fine community spirit manifested by most of our citizens not only in the attendance upon Chautauqua in spite of the excessive heat, but also in the fact that over sixty have already signed the guarantee for next year and 500 season tickets for 1915 subscribed for. Again thanking one and all.

CHAS. A. FLYNN, Chairman Chautauqua Committee. J. G. BRAGAW, JR., Chairman Ticket Selling Committee.
