The meetings at the First Baptist Church have started off with a good deal of enthusiasm. The congregation last night was unusually large for Monday night and the people seemed to be charmed with the services. Mr. Ham's preaching is clear plain and forceful. His sermon last night on "Love" was greatly enjoyed couraged at the expense of current by the entire audience. It is apparent that his one aim is to obtain results in higher Christian living and winning souls for Christ. Another feature of the meetings will be the music. Prof. Lyon is master of his department. He will be assisted by strong choir and accompanied by the splendid orchestra of the First Baptist church.

The Oliver Jubilee Company that opened at the New Theater last night for the week was greeted with a good sized audience that enjoyed the entire performance. Among the sprcial features that was presented was the singing of little Lillian Carter, who won her way through the hearts and applause of the audience by her clever singing of the "Million Dol-lar Doll." The little miss has an extra good voice, strong and sweet and musical, and as she closed her singing, she made a great hit by coming from the stage down among the audience and selecting a gentleup to her own as the little singer made her way back to the stage. Saltillo, Mexico, Via Laredo, Tex., July 6 .- The division of the north Villa's army, has agreed to acknowledge the authority of General Carranza as "first chief" and General Villa will remain commander of the Division of the North as a result of tatives of Villa and Carranza, according to news received here.

The conference has but begun its work, it was said the two points agreed upon being the first presented for consideration of the delegates gathered in an attempt to deal with the breach between their chiefs. That these points were agreed upon with such little delay has caused a feeling here that other steps toward settling the differences between Carran-za and Villa will be taken with fa-
