THE CONVENTION.

Yesterday's convention was one in which every one aired his personal grievances. While at times it was somewhat stormy it adjourned with practically everybody satisfied.

The voting down of the two term resolution adopted four years ago proved a surprise no doubt to a great many people throughout the county and votes were cast by the delegates from the different precincts against the two term proposition, when as a matter of fact a majority of the voters in their precincts are in favor of such a policy.

However, the action of the convention does not bind any of the people; it merely leaves the situation for the people to deal with as they may see fit at any future election.

FROM WILKINSO.

Messrs. Clarence Daw and Ebe Ratcliff were Washington visitors last Saturday.

Misses Nora Daw and Kathleen Bishop spent the glorious Fourth in Belhaven.

We announce with regret the indisposition of Mrs. G. W. Gaylord. Mrs. John Benson and Miss Zudie Gilles returned to their home Monday after a two weeks visit of relatives and friends in Hyde county.

Miss Susie Harris is now visiting relatives in Hyde county.

Miss Eva Gaylord spent Monday in Belhaven.

Mrs. Nelson Nixon and little daughter Gracie returned to their home in Belhaven Wednesday after a few days visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Crumpler.

Miss Audrey Brooks of Bath, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. W. B. Boshen.

Misses Eva Gaylord and Wiste Duke were the guests of Miss Odessa Crumpler Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duke left Tuesday for Washington to be with their daughter, Adelaide, who had to undergo an operation Tuesday in the Washington Hospital. We wish Miss Adelaide a speedy recovery to health.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Gibbs are now occupying the residence formerly occupied by Mr. Lennie Dunbar.

Darwin's Regret.

If I had to live my life over again I would have made a rule to read some poetry and listen to some music at least once a every week, for perhaps the parts of my brain now atrophied would thus have been kept alive through use. The loss of these tastes is a loss of happiness, and may possibly be injurious to the intellect and more probably to the moral character, by enfolding the emotional part of our nature.—Charles Darwin

Soft Soap Used With Concrete.

A solution of soft soap instead of water was used in making a waterproof concrete in building the foundation of a grain elevator on a river bank in Budapest.

Would Be Dangerous.

Almost any man would be sent to the penitentiary or an insane asylum if he admitted as much to his discredit, that wasn't true, as he will admit falsely to his credit.

Taylor, December 1, 1908, to secure certain notes therein described due Isabella Craddock, I will sell at the Courthouse door in Washington, on Wednesday, August 19th at 12 o'clock M., for cash the following described property in Belhaven, Beaufort county, particularly described as follows:

Constantinople Mosques. There are three hundred mosques in Constantinople, of which the 15 royal ones are regarded as the finest in the world.

Must Have Been. Says Mr. Filson Young in the Pall Mall Gazette: "I began yesterday by swimming in a sunlit sea, continued it by motoring through a hundred miles of lilac and gorse, and ended it listening to the most perfect concert program at Queen's hall that I have ever heard."

Pointer for Swains. "The damsel who hateth thee greeteth thee with soft words, saying: 'Behold, I am exceeding glad that thou hast come; thou rejoicest mine eyes. Lo, surely it was sweet of thee to call. But as for her who loveth thee, she runneth to the door, she holdeth thy two hands, saying only, 'Oh, Ned!'"

Harder Task to Do Present Duty. Pleasant it is to entertain the picture of ourselves in some future scene, planning wisely, feeling nobly, and exulting with the holy triumph of the will; but it is a different thing, not in the green avenues of the future, but in the hot dust of the present moment, to do the duty that waits and wants us.—James Martineau.

An Actor in Spite of Himself. President Arthur Twining Hadley, of Yale, used to recall with zest his one appearance, in his early days, as an amateur actor. "They didn't give me any words to speak," he said; "all I had to do was to walk across the stage, but it brought down the house."

Daily Thought. We do not know what ripples of healing are set in motion when we simply smile on one another. Christianly wants sunny people.—Henry Drummond.

Wakens Something Akin. To be able to appreciate anything excellent reveals that something akin to that excellence also dwells in ourselves.—The Christian Register.

Drama Followed the Dance. In ancient times the dance was the first mode of entertainment; then came the drama, derived from a Greek word, meaning "to act." In Greece it was given in the open air in buildings, known as theaters, after a Greek word meaning "to see."

Spilled the Effect. "What's the matter?" a colleague asked of the advertising manager. "Matter enough. The fools have placed Mme. Soprano's testimonial for a cold cure on the same page with the announcement that she had a sore throat and couldn't sing."—Topeka Journal.

The Making of a Man. No university can make a man. Men may load themselves with lore till they stoop beneath the weight of their accumulations, and yet fail to lift a care from the heart of the weary, or impel a single soul an inch on its way to God. The real building of a man is within.—Dr. Clifford.

Elephant Remembered Him. When Henry Shaw revisited a circus to which he had belonged many years before, no one of the people connected with it recognized him, but the elephant started trumpeting as soon as he appeared, and showed every sign of glad recognition.

Importance of Trifles. After a mad chase the escaped lunatic was carried back to his ward and the affairs of the asylum were resumed as before. "Beats all," panted an attendant, "how the wheels of a large institution can be stopped by a loose nut."

Sex Ole Cliff Fox. "Honesty is largely a matter of 'not being found out. Ye can't call a man a heavyweight just because he's at the top—look at 'th' foam on beer."—Detroit Free Press.

Good Things Must Be Used. Good is no good, but if it be spent; God gives good for no other end.—Spenser.
