THE PRESIDENT READS BILL

FOR INCREASING THE INTERNATIONAL REVENUE TAX. MADE NO SUGGESTIONS.

national revenue tax to one hundred millions annually.

The chief executive stated that a bond issue would be unwise. He made no suggestions that commodities be taxed. President Wilson said:

"We ought to borrow, but should resort to taxation," however, he regretted the necessity of putting an additional tax upon the people. The country, said he, is able to pay a reasonable tax without any distress. The American people have always been exceedingly patriotic. Extraordinary expense of the industrial interest has been brought about by the present European war conditions which at present no man can foresee so far as effecting the world is concerned.

The treasury must accept the present conditions as inevitable and pay the bills, although they did not incur it.

President Wilson made no suggestion as to the source of revenue.

NEW PONTIFF AN ITALIAN BY BIRTH

At twenty-five minutes before eleven o'clock Cardinal Della Voip appeared on the balcony with Monsignor Capostesti bearing the Pope's cross on his right and pronounced the ritual announcing the election of Cardinal Della Chiesa. To this he added that the new Pope had chosen the name of Benedict XV.

Again the crowd of several thousand persons cheered, and at once began to make their way into the Basilica to hear the benediction of the new pontiff.

It is asserted on good authority in Rome that the new Pope will appoint Cardinal Domenico Ferratta his secretary.

Cardinal Giacomo Della Chiesa was created a cardinal May 25, 1914. He is the archbishop of Bologna, Italy.

He was born at Pegli in the diocese of Genoa, November 21, 1854, and was ordained a priest December 21, 1878. He served as secretary of the nonciature in Spain from 1883 to 1887, in which year he was appointed secretary to the late Cardinal Rampolla.

He was appointed substitute secretary of state in 1901 and in 1907 was elected to the post of advisor to the holy office. In the same year he was appointed papal nuncio of Madrid in succession to Monsignor Rinaldini but this appointment was cancelled three days later. This incident had occurred just before he was made archbishop of Bologna. When Monsignor Della Chiesa was given this post it was declared in Rome that it was mainly with the object of combating modern religious ideas, Bologna being the headquarters of the National Democratic League whose members advocate what is known as "modernism" in religion.

In January, 1914, while still at Bologna the present Pope issued a pastoral letter strongly condemning the tango.

It has been 174 years since the time of the last Pope Benedict. In his election to the papacy in 1749 Cardinal Prospero Lambertini assumed that title. It is an interesting fact that the new Pope was archbishop of Bologna while Pope Benedict XIV. was born in Bologna.

According to a dispatch from Rome yesterday and received in New York, the White Star Line steamer Canopic bearing Cardinals Gibbons and O'Connell to Rome was not due at Naples until tomorrow. Therefore, it is probable that neither of these two American cardinals participated in the election of the new Pope.

That the choice falls on a cardinal of Italian birth coincides with tradition and with expectations on account of the disturbed conditions in Europe.

It was at the age of twenty-four that the new Pope was ordained in the priesthood. He soon attracted the attention of Cardinal Rampolla, later secretary of state for Pope Leo XIII.

As secretary to the secretary of state, Cardinal Chiesa was brought into notable prominence throughout the Catholic hierarchy, but his position was not at that time of cardinal rank. On the accession of Pope Pius X. Monsignor Della Chiesa continued in the secretariat until December 16, 1907, when Pius X. gave him a noted promotion to the position of archbishop of the important see of Bologna.

For seven years he administered the see of Bologna with notable success, until in May last Pope Pius X. named him among thirteen members of the hierarchy to receive the red hat.

The full title of the new Pope in addition to Benedict XV. will be Pope Bishop of Rome and successor of St. Peter, Supreme Pontiff of the Universal church, patriarch of the west, primate of Italy, archbishop and metropolitan of the Oman province, sovereign of the temporal dominion of the Holy Roman church.

He is described as a man of great spiritual character and one of the most highly esteemed in the hierarchy. He is about average height, of stocky build and rather quiet and reserved in manners.

Miss Roper Entertains

GIVES PICNIC IN HONOR OF HER HOUSE GUEST, MISS REBA STUBBS, OF BELHAVEN.

Sweet little Miss Lila Roper, the bright and interesting daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Roper, gave a picnic at Washington Park yesterday in honor of her house guest, Miss Reba Stubbs, daughter of Mr. W. E. Stubbs, cashier of the Bank of Belhaven.

No social function ever given at this popular resort was more enjoyed and no hostess has ever proved herself more gracious. Those present besides the honor guest, Miss Stubbs, were the following: Miss Nancy Marsh, Miss Irman Linwood Roper, Miss Elizabeth Oden, Miss Julia Harvey Bright, Miss Annie Latham, Miss Marcia Lee Oden, Hunters Bridges; Masters Latham and Dale Tanfield.

The spread at the dinner hour was tempting and appetizing, showing that the winsome little hostess already knows how to tickle the appetite and appease it. All during the day delightful and entertaining games were played.

All left in the afternoon for their respective homes carrying with them memories of a day never to be forgotten.

He Expressed His Opinion

GIVEN THREE YEARS' SENTENCE BECAUSE HE SAID SOCIALISTS WOULD SHOOT DOWN ARMY OFFICERS.

Berlin, Sept. 4.—(By mail.)—Three years in prison was the sentence imposed upon a private soldier named Fischer by the military court of the Third Army Corps for having expressed just before the outbreak of hostilities the opinion that in the event of war the socialists in the army would shoot their own officers. Her von Lengerke, a former soldier, testified that while riding in on of the suburban trains Fischer had expressed himself in this way and further had declared that a large percentage of the soldiers in the Prussian army were socialists. Her von Lengerke called the attention of the commander of the regiment to the conversation he had had with one of his soldiers whom he claimed he did not know, but whom he described as having "red hair." All the red-headed men in the regiment were lined up and Her von Lengerke picked out Fischer.

During the trial it developed that the quarters of the men are often searched for socialistic literature. Fischer is also alleged to have said that there is an extensive secret propaganda and quiet agitation going on in portions of the German army. Although Fischer's companions who were riding in the same compartment testified that they had heard nothing of such a conversation which Fischer also denied, the military court found him guilty.

CONDITIONS IN CHINA WORSE THAN BEFORE OVERTURNING— MONEY SENT FROM U. S. TO FINANCE THE UPRISING.

San Francisco, Sept. 4.—It is the sentiment in the Oriental quarter here and reports from Los Angeles, Seattle, Portland, Vancouver, B. C., and other coast cities indicate that the view is general, that there will be another revolution inside of a year.

Revolutionary agents have been working tirelessly all up and down the Pacific slope and much money unquestionably has been sent from the United States to finance an uprising.

Because President Yuan Shi Kai, while just as reactionary, is a stronger man than any of the great officials of the fallen Manchu regime, the revolutionists assert conditions in China are worse than before the last Overturning. What the agitators want is a republic of an advanced type as to average on a condition of pure socialism.

The view is freely expressed in Chinatown that matters would be greatly facilitated by President Yuan's assassination and good judges of the situation say his life will be an extremely poor risk for an insurance company so long as he remains in office.

CANADA MARKET FOR U.S. WHEAT

UNITED STATES WHEAT BEING SHIPPED INTO CANADA BY THOUSANDS OF BUSHELS—GREAT DEMAND.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 4.—Even though the wheat business of the United States may be imperilled by the European war, so far as exports to Europe is concerned, demonstrations today were that Canada, usually a wheat country, will become a market for the United States. The crop of Canada is small than it has ever been.

One grain firm reports the sale of 50,000 bushels of United States wheat in Toronto. A firm in Detroit, Mich., writes that they have shipped 50,000 bushels of United States wheat into Ontario. The price is $1.10 duty paid and delivered to the mills. A wire from British Columbia states that the United States wheat is being shipped into that province and after paying the duty is underselling Alberta wheat.

With the impetus given the Canadian milling industry by British purchases of flour and the enormous wheat crop in the United States the Canadian duty on wheat will probably be inadequate to stop the importation.

By instructions from the Canadian government the holders of warehouse receipts covering lots of commercial grade in store at the terminal elevators at Fort William and Port Arthur, Ont., are requested to present these receipts to the Canadian grain commissioner immediately. The Canadian government has purchased 700,000 bushels of oats stored in these terminals for the British government.
