FIGHTING CONTINUES NO DETAILS FROM FRONT MORE TROOPS NEEDED

(By the United Press.)
Sept. 19.—The fighting all along the line of the allies is continuing. The Allies have pushed the Germans back to new positions which were prepared in the rear. The Germans are not at all confident.

(By the United Press.)
Sept. 19.—The fighting all along the left line continues to be an artillery duel. There is no infantry fighting. The past thirty-six hours, the Allies are realizing the non-utility of attacking men while in their entrenched positions held as now. Every effort to demolish the German batteries.

(By the United Press.)
Sept. 19.—The French artillery has increased its activity all during the night and the positions are that they forced the Germans to their positions. The Germans are now sending reinforcements.

COMMANDER COURT MARTIALED

(By the United Press.)
Sept. 19.—General Paffhof, Russian's commander, has been court-martialed for ordering troops to fire on all male inhabitants in East Prussia. The verdict of the court trying him has not as yet been reported.

(By the United Press.)
Sept. 19.—General Von Derholt, the German commander of Belgium, is taking steps to save from destruction the art treasures in Belgium. He is now engaged in having them all listed and the greatest care is being observed. There is a strong protection for the monuments.

ATTACK WAS FRUSTRATED

(By the United Press.)
Sept. 19.—Reports are received that the German attack on an attempt to break through the lines of the allies has been frustrated.

FIGHTING CONTINUES IN NORTH FRANCE

(By the United Press.)
Sept. 19.—The war office announced that fighting in Northern France will continue and that the position is still unchanged. It is believed that the losses in the Allies' total one hundred thousand. It is insisted that the losses of the Germans are much more than those of the allies. The fighting has taken place under the best of conditions possible. The Allies have held the battlefield and trenches are now filled with troops.

Great Show Here Tuesday

"BINGOAT FAMILY" AT THE NEW THEATRE NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT.

They have written about "wonderful girls" and all the other sorts of altering femininity in an effort to strike a responsive chord in the beauty-loving and romance-craving American mind. But the supreme sensation of all girl combinations is said to have been conceded to "The Bingoat Family" chorus on all points—number, beauty and ability to sing and dance. This latest musical comedy with its "150 minutes of solid fun" will be at the New Theatre Tuesday, September 22. Seats on sale at Worthy & Friends's Saturday, the 19th.

TRIMMED MOLLINERY

Hodges is the Winner

MADE HIGHEST GUN SCORE IN WEEKLY SHOT OF THE CLUB YESTERDAY.

The Washington Gun Club had its regular weekly shoot at the grounds on North Bonser street yesterday afternoon, but owing to the inclement weather only a few of the members were present. Good scores were made with Hodges leading the list of contestants. Hodges broke his last week's record and broke 22 straight. The following is yesterday's score:

Name	Shop	Brook	P.C.
Hodges	50	47	94
Maxwell	50	46	92
Squires	100	84	84
Moore	75	62	70
Gallagher	75	44	60
Merriman	25	14	56

MORE TROOPS WILL BE NECESSARY

(By the United Press.)
Sept. 19.—There are no details from the front. The war office says that the fighting continues with satisfactory results to the allies. It is stated that if the allies drive the Germans out of France more troops will be necessary. It is now stated that the Germans are greatly strengthening their positions.

GET TOGETHER TOBACCO MEETING ENTHUSIASTIC

The Get-Together-Tobacco meeting at the Chamber of Commerce rooms last night proved to be one of the most enthusiastic gatherings ever held here. Not only were members of the Chamber of Commerce on hand, but members of the Tobacco Board of Trade and citizens generally. The crowd present was a good one and every one was sanguine as to the future of the tobacco market here and all expressed their gratification at the prices received by the farmers at the sale yesterday when between one hundred and one hundred and ten thousand pounds of tobacco was disposed of. All the farmers were well satisfied with the result. At the meeting last night the merchants were especially requested to attend the sale at the warehouses. This suggestion met with a hearty response from those business men present and no doubt but what it will be sanctioned by all others. The meeting turned itself into an old-fashioned family talk. Washington's tobacco market is growing daily, the prices are increasing and the outlook is surely one that should encourage and cheer. Among those attending the Get-Together meeting last night were the following:
J. F. Cowell, George T. Leach, W. H. Ellison, E. F. Bowers, C. A. Flynn, J. F. Buckman, Floyd J. Berry, C. F. Bland, Hoyt Moore, George Hackney, Jr., J. K. Hort, E. H. Jefferson, C. G. Morris, W. W. Leggett, D. W. Bell, H. M. Jenkins, A. M. Dymay, J. D. Grimes, William Braxton, J. S. Ross, J. P. Lovelace, Mr. Shelburne, Mr. Hutchinson, C. Carrow and Thomas Bland, and others.

The following is the program for the anniversary services at Saint Peter's Episcopal church tomorrow:

Morning Prayer, with sermon by Rev. F. H. Harding, of Camden, S. C., with Holy Communion after the sermon. Thank offering for purpose of installing electric motor and blower to pipe organ. Sunday school at 4 p. m. E. K. Willis, Jr., superintendent.

Evening prayer, with sermon by Rev. Isaac Hughes, of Henderson, N. C., at 8 o'clock. Special music by the choir, under the direction of Mr. E. H. Harding.

If a Washingtonian were asked by a visitor who was considered the city's most popular citizen—one held in the highest esteem by people of all colors—be they white or black—who would be that man? At whose feet could be laid this wreath of honor? Around whose name could be written in ineffaceable letters this coveted honor?

Tomorrow forty-one years ago a young man in clerical garb, with all the vigor of young manhood coursing through his veins, with all the requisites for a useful career beckoning him onward, Rev. Nathaniel Harding stood for the first time within the historic walls of St. Peter's Episcopal church, this city, to break the bread of life as an under-shepherd.

Then he was practically unknown, as it were; to morrow forty-one years afterwards, he can and is crowned Washington's most popular citizen. All honor, love and admire him.

As this sainted father in Israel sits around the fireside of his home with retrospective thoughts and visions of past years and too, enjoying the scenes of a happy home, a home where children and grand-children know him best and love him most, there issues forth from every heart in Washington congratulations for him and best wishes. If God's ideal of beauty were to nestle and cluster around his feet, he tonight could sleep beneath a coverlet of roses and immortelles. His sunrise was bright and auspicious, his afternoon is radiant with the glow of a well-spent life and may the zenith of his days for usefulness be as one grand sweet melody as he is permitted to witness his life's sunset.
