MASCULINE HYSTERIA.

A New York suffrage leader remarked, when the war started, that "war fever" was merely a pernicious form of hysteria to which men, "the hysterical sex," were particularly subject. The present conflict, she declared, was due to the collective hysteria of the men of Europe.

It seemed a rather unfair thrust. But when we read of German battleships shooting each other to pieces in the belief that each "squadron" is fighting the enemy, when we are informed that three regiments of Austrian artillery have been decimated by blundering Austrian batteries, and that Austrian soldiers have been ordered to stop shooting at airplanes because they brought down so many of their own aviators; when occasional dispatches hint at similar though less costly mistakes in France—well, there can't be much question that those soldiers and sailors are suffering from acute attacks of hysteria.

And yet, in their place, subject day after day to a storm of bullets and shells, sleepless from the constant boom of cannon, herded hither and yon by half-comprehended orders and driven by a pitiless foe, would women be any more self-possessed, and less likely to see an enemy in every uniform, a hostile airship in every cloud, and death stalking them behind every tree?

But the suffragist answer to that is, "Women wouldn't be there at all. Women know better than to engage in such an absurd business." And there you are.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE POLITICS.

The American public is rather inclined to the notion that women, like hereditary monarchs, should be superior to partisan politics. It may be a foolish prejudice, and yet the fact is obvious that the astonishing progress made by the suffrage movement thus far has been accomplished by ignoring party lines and appealing to basic principles of citizenship.

Recently the suffrage leaders have shown a marked disposition to "play politics" in their campaign for nation-wide suffrage. Their latest move is to declare war on the Democratic Congressmen of the nine suffrage States because the national Democratic party will not champion their plan for a suffrage amendment to the federal constitution.

Whether or not the thirteen Democratic Congressmen whose seats are threatened by the women deserve re-election, their fitness had better be determined on other grounds.

Many sincere friends of woman suffrage are grieved to see the leaders deliberately antagonizing any party. They can gain nothing by such action, and may set the cause back for years. Moreover, most male citizens are convinced that the principle of enfranchisement by federal action is itself wrong; that suffrage is a State issue, and that it is unwise and improper to enfranchise the women of any State until that State is ready to take the step voluntarily.

THE KEY OF CREDIT.

Secretary Redfield, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, has warned the United States Senate, and indirectly the business men of the country, that there is danger of the United States going wrong in its campaign to win South American trade.

"For the moment," he says, "it seems to me that the policy called for is service to South America by helping her to regain her credit, rather than to expect her under existing conditions to make large purchases."

Coincident with this statement comes the announcement that the Federal Reserve Board has approved the plan of the National City Bank of New York to establish branch banks in Rio de Janeiro and Buenos Ayres. These branches are intended primarily as credit bureaus to facili-

WM. SWANNER ANNOUNCES HIMSELF FOR POSTMASTER

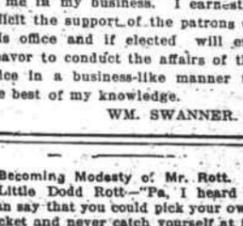

To the Patrons of Washington Postoffice:
After mature deliberation I have concluded to announce my candidacy for the Postmastership of Washington. As I understand it the man to be named will be selected by a preferential primary to be held in the city of Washington and on the rural free delivery routes from this office.

I am only a country boy, whose advantages have been limited. I came to the city of Washington four and one-half years ago and engaged in the mercantile business in a small way and since that time have been dealing with the public. I have tried to conduct myself in such a manner as to merit the confidence of those with whom I came in contact, notwithstanding the police of Washington have endeavored to begrudge my character and are constantly nagging at me in my business. I earnestly solicit the support of the patrons of this office and if elected will endeavor to conduct the affairs of the office in a business-like manner to the best of my knowledge.

WM. SWANNER.

Only Sure Corn Cure Known

"Get-it" the New Way, 2 Drops Do It.
To endure the pains and tortures caused by a little thing like a corn is ridiculous, simply because it is unnecessary. The new plan corn cure, "GETS-IT," is the first one ever known to remove corns without pain, without pain and without trouble. This is why it's the biggest selling corn cure in existence today. It is now used by millions, because it's easy to use with sticky tape, with plasters and cotton rings that shift their position and press down onto the corn, with salves that "raw up" the toe, with "hardness" that cause pressure and pain, with knives, razors and files, clawing and pulling at a corn.

"GETS-IT" is applied in two seconds. Two drops applied with the glass rod do the work. Pain goes, the corn shrivels, vanishes. Accept no substitute. Try it on any corn, wart, callus, prp unbon tonight.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF WASHINGTON.

TO THE FARMERS:—
The business men of Washington are building a cotton storage warehouse in which you can store your cotton, for which a negotiable warehouse receipt will be issued. You can bring this warehouse receipt to the First National Bank, and they will advance you $30.00 a bale. This will enable you to harvest your crops and meet pressing obligations. It is absolutely necessary that your cotton be kept off the market. Do not sell for less than ten cents per pound. The business men of Washington and this Bank will co-operate with you, and by a united effort you will get a fair price for your cotton.

THE WAREHOUSE WILL BE COMPLETED BY NOVEMBER 1.
DO NOT SELL YOUR COTTON FOR LESS THAN 10 CENTS PER POUND.
