

WASHINGTON HIGHS ADD ANOTHER GAME TO THEIR STRING OF VICTORIES

Washington added a still more victory to her long string by defeating Goldsboro High School yesterday, 15 to 6, in the semi-final High School contest for State championship. The game was played in Goldsboro under ideal weather conditions and was characterized by the clean playing of both teams, good refereeing, and few penalties. The two contestants played hard every minute of the game and conducted themselves throughout the contest after the manner of true sportsmen. Goldsboro, though out weighed by Washington, put up a good hard fight and it was by no means a walk-over for the winning team.

The game was called promptly at 2:30 p. m. Goldsboro won the toss and elected to receive the ball at west goal.

From start to finish, the Washington leads went into the game with the determination to win. Every man was always on his job and the tackling of the whole was fierce. Goldsboro was on the defensive the greater part of the first quarter and at no time was the goal in any serious danger. The ball was saved up and down the field and finally ended with Goldsboro in possession about middle of field.

The second quarter began by Goldsboro leading the ball on an attempted forward pass. Elbert Weston then got away around end for 25 yards. Jim Weston and Willie Jones, by line plunges, averaging six yards each, carried the ball to Goldsboro's three-yard line, and Washington lost the ball on a fumble. Goldsboro punted to Warren, who returned the ball ten yards. E. Weston again made a gain around the end which totaled 29 yards.

The first touchdown came at the end of this period when Jim Weston carried the ball across goal line after several successful line plunges.

At the beginning of the second half it looked as though Goldsboro would score. Time and time again they would manage to get the ball within easy striking distance of Washington's goal, but the line would always tighten and stand impenetrable. The playing of the line on an offense as well as defense was always good. Every man did his duty.

The second touchdown came in the third quarter as a result of a series of line plunges by Willie Jones and Weston. These two boys marched steadily up the field, taking 6, 8 and 10 yards at a clip. Warren kicked an easy goal.

The Goldsboro boys are many clean set of fellows and treated the visiting team with every consideration, making the trip was enjoyable. Every man on Washington team started, ends, backs and line.

Referee, Manning (Carolina). Umpire, Paul Garrison (Carolina). Quarters, 15:12; 14:12.

ELKS LODGE OF SORROW ON SUNDAY, DEC. 6

Throughout the entire United States the many lodges of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks will on Sunday, December 6, 1914, hold Memorial services, this being the time fixed by the Grand Lodge of the Order. All of these services will be held in the afternoon of that day.

There are 1,394 lodges of Elks in the United States, consisting of a total membership of 406,251. The order is distinctly American.

Washington Lodge, No. 222, B. P. O. E., will hold its annual memorial service, in keeping with the custom of the order, on the above date in the New Theatre at 3 o'clock.

The services of the local lodge this year will be conducted by the Exalted Ruler, Mr. John H. Bonner, assisted by the other officials of the lodge, as follows: Mr. John W. Smith, Exalted Leading Knight; Mr. W. B. Wadley, Past Exalted Knight; Mr. C. H. Sterling, Sr., Exalted Leading Knight; Mr. W. J. Phipps, Past Exalted Knight; Mr. E. L. Archbell, Secretary; Mr. C. B. Sterling, Treasurer; Mr. C. A. Little, Inner Guard; Mr. J. M. Hodges, Tiler.

The lodge is fortunate in having as its guest and principal speaker Mr. J. C. B. Ehringhaus, of Elizabeth City. Mr. Ehringhaus comes as a Past Exalted Ruler of his own lodge and as a Past District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler of the State, the latter being a very prominent and important office which Mr. Ehringhaus has heretofore filled with dignity.

It is needless to introduce Mr. Ehringhaus to the citizenship of Washington. Everyone knows him as the very efficient and honorable collector of the First Judicial District of North Carolina. He is a man of high seriousness and serene confidence, and we bespeak for him a warm and an address of the deepest learning.

Two members of the local lodge will all appointments at the service elsewhere in the State on the same date: Mr. Stephen C. Bragaw will address the Lodge of Elks at Durham, N. C., and Mr. Wiley C. Rodman will address the Asheville Lodge of Elks at Asheville, N. C. Both of these gentlemen are speakers of magnetism and it is indeed fortunate that these two lodges have been able to secure their assistance upon this occasion. Washington Lodge is proud that it has two such speakers to offer its sister lodges.

ATTRACTION NEW THEATER WED. NIGHT

Fresh from the triumphs of the large cities of the South, where it has been playing to the capacity of the theatre, Oliver Morosco's production of "Peg O' My Heart," the comedy of youth, laughter and love, comes to Washington for an engagement at the New Theatre tomorrow night.

Per, the winsome little Irish girl, who in real life is Mae Martin, is a character that has strongly gripped the heart of our theatre-going public.

It seems that all classes have opened their hearts to Peg, who as a sweet good-natured and decidedly human Irish lass, who has the will of her race, she is also philosophical, and full of quaint pathos, with a touch of melancholy, sobering the brightness of her laugh.

"Peg O' My Heart" has proven conclusively that theatre-goers of all sections of the country can still laugh as heartily and sincerely as of old, which is not coarse—that a story directly and sincerely told is more potent than any fantastic plot conceivable, for this romantic comedy has been playing to tremendous business in New York where it recently cleared its remarkable run of 604 consecutive performances, with Laurette Taylor in the principal role.

Associated with Miss Martin, are the members of last season's cast, which comprises, Frederick Mends, Harry Calver, George Mendelsohn, Raymond Branley, Clara Sidney, Helen Haskell, George Claire and Kattie O'Connor.

Exhibits are hereto attached, showing the Treasurer's and Sheriff's accounts with the various funds as follows:

Exhibit "A," County Treasurer's account with General County Fund.

Exhibit "B," County Treasurer's account with General County School Fund.

Exhibit "C," County Treasurer's account with Sinking Fund.

Exhibit "D," Sheriff's account with General County Fund.

Exhibit "E," Sheriff's account with General County School Fund.

We return vouchers of the several funds duly cancelled as follows: General County Fund, General County School Fund.

The small balance in the hands of the Sheriff to the credit of the several school districts will be paid over by him to the County Treasurer after this report has been passed upon as has been his custom in the past.

We note that Sinking Funds have been established by you to provide for the several outstanding bond issues as they mature.

We have inspected the Treasurer's Bank books and certificates of deposit and find that he has on hand as of May 31st, 1914, the following sums:

In Bank of Belhaven	$4,662.64
In Bank of Aurora	6,511.16
In Bank of Washington	6,088.14

Cash items on hand	1,178.00
Total	$29,801.72

While the aggregate is more than the Treasurer's statement calls for, the difference is due to the fact that some of the checks drawn prior to May 31st had not been presented and paid at the banks on that date.

Respectfully submitted,
A. J. COX,
JNO. G. BRAGAW, JR.,

YVONNE DE TREVILLE KNITTING

Little Yvonne de Treville is successfully conducting three district campaigns, one for the soldiers in Europe's frightful war, one for the southernness whose bent-up cotton crop threatens hardships to many the third, her own campaign of song with which she enlightens a million people each year in a dozen different lands.

Miss Treville is knitting socks. She knits at home when she is not answering business letters and arranging dates with impresarios. She knits on her way to and from the theatre, and she knits in the cottage between songs. Also, she is a cotton campaigner. She says: "This is my second campaign. I'm trying to move the cotton crop! Until 1914 I had no idea of the beautiful fabric that can be woven out of cotton. I have had all my costumes duplicated in cotton materials, and the audience doesn't know the silk one from the cotton ones. Every woman in the land should look into this and find out what lovely gowns she can have from home-grown cotton, domestic woven, American-designed."

LEAVING FOR HOME.

All the trains leaving the city yesterday afternoon were crowded with speakers and laymen and visitors returning to their respective homes after attending the conference. The issue of the Daily News containing the appointments of the conference were in great demand and went like hot cakes at all the railroad stations and on the streets.

THE ALLIES VIEW.

Alfred W. Bryan, in writing of the European war, has the following comment on the allies:

It were not fair to underestimate the services rendered by the German people to the cause of European progress, but those who have known Germany during the years following the disasters of 1870 have seen with dismay the growth of their arrogance and egotism. It is difficult to view as a sign of progress the cold blooded barbarity advocated by Bernhardi, the cynical view taken of international treaties of the obligations of honor by the German Chancellor. Stupendous blunders have been made by the German diplomatic corps—the successors of the marauding hordes of the Middle Ages such as Italy and Roumania. They believed that England would be embarrassed by civil war and unable to take any effective part in this fray in a like manner they had reckoned on the unpreparedness of Russia, in consequence of internal dissension and administrative weakness. They counted on the fratricidal feud between Poles and Russians, on the resentment of the Jews, on Mohammedan sympathies with Turkey, and on other things.

But they have not been met with law and strength (troops), they are faced with a united force, which speaks a standard, indomitable resolution, dispelling all Orientalist delusions. They say they realize what a force they have awakened!

From the foregoing there appears to be in the hands of the Treasurer some $19,000.00 for "New Bridge Account," which is the difference between the amount of the Bond Issue and the amount expended for repair and construction of bridges since last year's storm. We understand that since May 31st vouchers to the amount of about $2,000.00 have been paid, leaving still in this account some $17,000.00. Of this amount $5,000.00 is invested in a certificate of deposit bearing 4 per cent interest. If there is no immediate need for the balance of this money ($12,000.00) for the particular object for which the bonds were issued, we recommend that it be placed on interest bearing certificates of deposit with the banks or otherwise invested to yield an income in some manner consistent with the law and the act authorizing the issue.
