

Football Hero Spending Week End With Parents

Capt. Taylor Is Re-elected For Coming Year

With Direct the 1915 Eleven. His Re-election is an Honor Worth the Wait. He Being Showered With Congratulations.

Captain David V. Taylor, of the University of North Carolina football eleven, whose record this season has never been surpassed and who downed all other opponents in every game until they were forced to defeat in Richmond Thanksgiving Day, arrived in the city last night to spend the week-end with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Taylor, before returning to Chapel Hill to resume his studies in medicine.

The hero of North Carolina football is today being showered with congratulations by his home people. Not only has he made an enviable record on the gridiron, but after the game in Richmond, Thanksgiving Day he was re-elected captain of the eleven for next season. This has never occurred before in the history of football. The Richmond Times-Dispatch in speaking of the re-election of Captain Taylor says:

"David T. Taylor, Jr., of Washington, D. C., now serving his third year as a member of Carolina's football team, was re-elected captain of the Tar Heel football squad for 1915. The election which conferred a distinction honor on the sandy-haired football half-back by electing him to the position of leader of the North Carolina team for the second consecutive year, was held in the Jefferson Hotel Thanksgiving night immediately after the upper hour. The election was by secret ballot, only twenty players participating. Dave Taylor will end his football career next season and the distinction of receiving the honor of leading a Carolina team for two terms has been accorded few football players in Carolina's athletic history. Taylor is a student in the medical department of the university and will follow the profession of his father, Dr. David T. Taylor."

In writing of the contest, the News Leader of Richmond says: "By gravestone telegraph service with Lambert Field it is learned that Coach Wood and his assistants devoted a lot of time in secret practice in instructing the Orange and Blue players to watch Taylor in the Carolina back field. Trinchard is said to be aware of this and by placing Winston in Fuller's place in hopes that while the Virginia players are busy taking care of Captain Taylor, Winston, who is exceptional in fact, will be able to get away with something."

Both the Richmond Times-Dispatch and the Richmond News-Leader have pictures of Captain Taylor.

Under his leadership the University squad has made the greatest record in its history.

Gives 10 Per Cent of Sales to Belgians

Mr. J. E. Adams, one of Washington's enterprising merchants, has so far proven to be one of the largest contributors to the relief of the Belgians as he today turned over to Mr. John G. Reagan, Jr., treasurer of the fund for Washington, $8.16, being ten per cent of his cash sales of yesterday. Mr. Adams, through the columns of the Daily News, on Thursday last stated that he would give ten per cent of his cash sales and he was as good as his word.

Mr. Adams has always proven loyal in any enterprise that meant advancement for his community and in this instance has demonstrated his loyalty by contributing to those unfortunate across the water. He has set the example for other merchants to follow.

His cash sales yesterday are satisfactory and had they been big or small he would have carried out his statement to the letter. What a pity it is to Washington has not more such merchants who are ever ready to help those in distress.

THE TREATMENT AND PREVENTION OF TUBERCULOSIS

Washington, D. C., Nov. 28.—With the expressed approval of President Wilson for the holding of a national tuberculosis day, several States in the Union have made arrangements to hold exhibits and take preventative steps in the matter of the disease during the week commencing tomorrow. A number of governors have issued proclamations on the campaign, and churches and schools have invited in an educational campaign against the dread disease. The movement is not for the purpose of raising funds, but simply to bring to the people all over the country the essential facts with reference to the treatment and prevention of tuberculosis. The national association for study and prevention of tuberculosis has undertaken to make this educational work nation wide in its good effects, and is using sermons, lectures, motion pictures, exhibits and many other methods. While the work of the association is necessarily slow, owing to the social entrenchments of the white plague, the campaigners are gaining ground.

TEMPEST AND SUNSHINE AT NEW THEATER

At last we have the real play of Southern type, of beautiful quaint old costumes, melodies of long ago that brings one back to the day of grand-dad, "Tempest and Sunshine." The audience that greets this production on Monday night at the New Theatre will be well pleased, for this company carries the original play, taken from that famous novel under the same name, by Len. B. Parker. Rightly costumed, artistically staged with gorgeous scenery painted especially for the piece by master artists. The play is truly well-told for each performance its unity in their parts and each a master in their work.

Mr. C. W. Carleton, the manager of the company, is bringing to this city on Monday night a guaranteed attraction surpassed by none and seldom seen in a play of this kind having spared no expense to get the best talent obtainable to handle the respective parts of the play. As each curtain rises the audience is gently transferred to the beloved days of our forefathers. Miss Holmes, the author of the famous novel that will live forever, from which the play is taken, got her characters from real life the hills of old Tennessee. The play is truly Southern in the day of slavery. Those wishing an evening passed of real entertainment and lovers of true art and history should not fail to purchase their tickets early to "Tempest and Sunshine," the play that will live forever.

NOT GUILTY SAYS THE JURY IN R. H. MILES CASE

The jury in the case of State vs. R. H. Miles for the shooting of H. M. Holbrook returned a verdict of not guilty this afternoon at three o'clock. The jury was given the case at the noon recess and did not deliberate over one-half hour.

The jury in the case of State vs. R. H. Miles for the shooting of H. M. Holbrook on the morning of January 1, 1914, at the Palace Barber Shop, was given to the jury this afternoon. The defendant was indicted by the State for murder in the second degree or manslaughter. The case was started on Wednesday afternoon last and has consumed the entire attention of the court since that time. The prosecution was represented by Solicitor Ewing and Messrs. Small, MacLean, Bragg & Rodman, and the defense by Messrs. Ward and Grimes and Edward D. Stewart.

This case was postponed from the May term of this year, due to the fact that it could not be reached. The case has attracted considerable attention throughout the city and county. The argument of counsel on both sides was able and the final result is awaited with interest.

HER DEATH IS LEARNED WITH REGRET

A telegram was received in the city this morning by Mrs. E. W. Ayers announcing the death of Mrs. H. M. Randall at her home in Brooklyn, New York, this morning. In consequence of this announcement Mr. E. W. Ayers left today to attend the funeral which will take place on Long Island Tuesday next. The deceased was a cousin to Mrs. E. W. Ayers and Mrs. H. B. Mayo, of this city. She has visited Washington repeatedly and had many friends here. She was gifted as a vocalist and always loved to sing for her Lord and Master. Her sweet voice has never been forgotten here. Those who knew her will be pained to learn of her going. Death is the loser, while Heaven gains. "She did what she could."

With the recent development in lenses for signal purposes on the Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad, it is now practicable to illuminate signal targets sufficiently for the different colors to be readily distinguishable in daylight at a distance of two thousand feet.

Since the European war began the cost of living in San Francisco has advanced about 13-15 per cent.

BERLIN CONTENTS NO DECISIVE BATTLE HAS BEEN FOUGHT IN EAST

Petrograd, Nov. 28.—The following statement has been received from the Russian commander in chief: "On the Cassiochowa-Cracow front our successes are assuming a marked importance. Our troops on November 28 captured more than 4,000 prisoners. Our offensive was particularly fortunate on the lower Chmalava river where a whole battalion of the 31st Hanover regiment surrendered."

"Our troops also stormed a powerfully fortified Austrian position on the left bank of the Raba, where some of our attacking units forded the river during the breaking-up of the ice and attacked the enemy. The water was neck deep."

"The Austrians desperately defended Nochnia (35 miles southeast of Cracow) which we stormed, capturing more than 3,000 prisoners, machine guns and ten field guns. On the left bank of the Vistula the enemy in the region of Cracow is beginning to retreat in disorder. Our troops are pursuing them energetically."

"According to the reports of the commanders of the armies the morale of our troops is very high."

"Trustworthy reports show that the Austrians have mounted in the steppes of Cracow wireless apparatus and machine guns for protection against attacking aeroplanes."

VICTORY WILL ASTONISH THEM WORLD SAYS REPORT

London, Nov. 28.—The Morning Post's Petrograd correspondent says that when full details of the Russian victory in Poland are available they will furnish a story that will astonish the world—a story telling of a blow to the German's finest troops such as had not been dealt since the days of Napoleon.

A RUSSIAN NAVAL VICTORY IS WOULD

The correspondent also makes an interesting disclosure concerning a success he says the Russian Baltic fleet had under command of Admiral Von Essen early in September. The dispatch was as follows: "It appears that German warships had acquired the habit of cruising in the Baltic up to the limit which the Russian fleet had decided to hold. Admiral Von Essen painted several of his cruisers and destroyers with the German colors and under cover of foggy weather joined the German ships. The presence of the Russian warships was not suspected."

FINE SPORT AT OCRACOKE THIS WEEK

Dr. R. T. Gallagher and wife returned from Ocracoke, N. C., yesterday, where Dr. Gallagher has been hunting. He brought back 75 geese and brant and 18 duck as a result of a three-day hunt.

Last season Dr. Gallagher and Mr. Frank Moss proved to be champion sportsmen and this season it looks as if Dr. Gallagher will again carry off the trophy alone, inasmuch as Mr. Moss was unable to accompany him. The geese and ducks were much admired by all who saw them. Dr. and Mrs. R. T. Gallagher enjoyed their outing immensely.

"The Admiral opened fire, sinking one German cruiser and badly damaging another, while the Russian destroyers put in good work on the smaller German craft. Having delivered this blow the Russian vessels sailed home, untouched."

"The Germans naturally remained silent regarding this fight and various rumors of the Russian also kept silent but a number of the coveted St. George crosses were distributed among those who were responsible for the success of this venture."

SEVEN DESTROYERS AND TORPEDO BOATS DAMAGED

In connection with the foregoing story it is interesting to note a brief official statement given under date of September 4, which read: "According to information derived from a trustworthy source seven German destroyers and torpedo boats have arrived at Kiel in a damaged condition and it is understood that others have been sunk in the victory of the Kiel canal."

THE RUSSIAN GENERAL STAFF MAKE REPORT

Petrograd, Nov. 28.—The following statement from the Russian general staff was made public here last night:

"On the left bank of the Vistula our troops, advancing from the lower part of the Bzura river have reached Gombin."

"In the center of the battle line we captured the town of Bredany and the villages in the valley of the Mroga river. In some places we dislodged the Germans by bayonet attacks. Our offensive in this region continues."

"Between Bredany and Glowac our cavalry succeeded in several charges against the German infantry. During the retreat of the enemy we captured a number of field guns, some with their teams complete."

"We are computing the number of prisoners captured."

"Among the German troops we pushed back from Engow and Tuszyn toward Bredany was a division of the Prussian guard."

"In the region of Szigor and Strukow, we attacked the German toward Lods. Between Szigor and Edumka Wola some German troops are still holding themselves in their trenches."
