MR. STEPHEN WILLIAM OUTERBRIDGE

Mr. Stephen William Outerbridge, son of Stephen and Winifred Outerbridge, was born January 13th, 1825, at the place where he passed the most of his life, in Martin county, N. C., about three miles above Spring Green church on the road from Williamston to Tarboro and died in his 91st year, at his home in Robersonville, at 2:45 a. m., January 13th, 1915.

He married Miss Susan Ann May Andrews, March 6th, 1851, who is in her 89th year. No children were ever born to them, and so their love went out to the children of others. Having experienced a pungent conviction of sin and a hope of salvation in Christ, they professed their faith before the Primitive Baptist church at Spring Green, and were received by the church, and baptized by Elder C. B. Hassell in Concho Creek at Butler's Bridge, the fourth Sunday in November, 1868. They proved the reality of their faith by their honorable, upright, laborious, useful, humble, gentle and loving lives. In both the community and the church they were bright and shining lights.

Mr. Outerbridge went to school to Mr. James Horner in Hamilton, N. C., during the forties. (Mr. Horner afterwards taught and died in Oxford, N. C., and was one of North Carolina's most eminent and successful instructors. He was father of Bishop Junior Horner, of the Missionary Jurisdiction of Asheville.) Mr. Outerbridge was a Confederate soldier for two and one-half years, serving as First Lieutenant in Captain William Biggs' company in the 17th Regiment of North Carolina troops, and was then elected for two terms to the legislature of North Carolina.

He began teaching in his home in 1848, teaching one year in Arkansas; removed to Hamilton in 1852 and taught. In 1855 he changed his residence to Robersonville, and taught worthily in his own private school, and also in the public school till 1900, thus teaching three generations of pupils for a period of fifty years. His life and services won for him the title of the "Grand Old Man of Martin County."

After five days of confinement to his bed, he died peacefully of heart disease, in peace with God and all his fellow-men. His remains were interred in the cemetery of Robersonville. Elder B. S. Cowing, his pastor, spoke briefly at his home and Elder Sylvester Hassell at the grave.

DYNAMITER SENTENCED COUNTY JAIL

Washington, Mo., Feb. 4.—Warner Horn was today sentenced to thirty days in the county jail on conviction of having damaged property in Vanceboro by the explosion of dynamite under the International bridge.

Vanceboro, Mo., Feb. 4.—Warner Horn, who attempted to blow up the International bridge over the St. Joix river, was arrested today on a warrant issued by a local trial justice, charging him with defacing and injuring buildings in Vanceboro. The injury to the buildings was caused by the shock of the explosion when Van Horn exploded a charge of dynamite under the bridge.

This move was made it is understood, to avoid possible complications in further detaining the dynamiter without a formal charge having been made against him. Deputy Sheriff Ross, who took him into custody Tuesday morning, feared personal liability in the matter after communicating with the State attorney general obtained the warrant which was served on the prisoner.

Horn will be given a hearing late today. It is expected he will be surrendered to Federal jurisdiction and transferred to Portland for a hearing before a commissioner on England's application for his extradition.

Extradition Request Before State Department.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Great Britain's request for the extradition of Warner Horn rested in the State Department today. While officials consistently declined to discuss it, the case will be put on its course only after the most careful investigation.

Officials pointed out it was one of the most interesting legal questions that had arisen since war's outbreak.

When the evidence is received by mail the application for extradition and evidence will be sent to the local magistrate in Maine, where Horn is held on charges preferred by the State. The Secretary of State finally, however, has discretionary powers, and if he has reason to believe that a prisoner may be tried for a political offense he will hold extradition.

Whether Horn's act was a violation of American neutrality was discussed among officials as a question which might raise another complication.

HELL IN BUSINESS.

The Damn family of world fame is likely to lose its renown by discovery of the Hell family in the town of Farrell, built by the United States Steel Corporation.

Members of the Hell family are not adverse to using their name in a business way. The head of the family, Conrad Hell, an ice cream manufacturer, has signs reading: "Go to Hell for Ice Cream" scattered throughout the city. Another sign reads: "Ice Cream from Hell is Guaranteed Pure and Cooling." Still another bears the inscription: "Have You Been to Hell, It's the Coolest Place in Farrell."

When a stranger enters Main street he is startled by a big billboard reading: "Hell is Here; Don't Miss the Place." A block further down the street this sign is encountered: "You Will Find Everybody There on a Hot Day; Hell is Always Open." The big sign which however attracts most attention is in front of Hell's place of business. It represents a young couple eating ice cream and the young woman saying to her escort, "Hell For Mine; Always"—Exchange.

MR. PRIVETTE DESIROUS OF COOPERATION

Washington, N. C., Feb. 5, '15. To the School Committeemen:—

As you have doubtless already learned, the schools of this county are to have a County Commencement at Washington on April 2nd. Practically every school in the county will take part in this Commencement, and for some time the teachers and the pupils have been hard at work making preparations for the occasion. This should indeed be a notable day in the history of Beaufort's educational progress, and it will be if the teachers and the committeemen in each community will co-operate to make this commencement a success.

Here are some of the features of the coming commencement: There will be first, in all schools having seventh grade pupils a uniform county examination which will entitle the pupil who successfully passes it to a county diploma to be awarded on the day of the commencement. Suitable prizes are being offered for the pupils making the best showing in this examination. Then from every school, whether it has seventh grade pupils or not, will come exhibits of work done by the children such as drawing, specimens of writing, maps, handwork, sewing etc. Properly arranged, with suitable placards and banners showing the record of the work and progress of each school, these exhibits should make a most interesting and valuable feature of the commencement and would give to the people of the city and county a new conception of rural school progress in Beaufort county.

The first event of the commencement day exercises will be a great parade of school children. The children of the Washington schools are expected to take part in this parade and it is hoped that a large number of children from all the schools of the county will be here to participate in this unusual parade. Each school will march under its own banner; an excellent band will be engaged to lead the parade. After the parade the exercises will begin with a brief address by some prominent speaker. Following this there will be songs, presentation of prizes and diplomas and other interesting features. The exercises will be over in time for all wish to, to return on the afternoon train.

It is earnestly hoped that every committeemen in the county will staid this commencement. We urgently request also that the committeemen co-operate with the teachers in arousing community interest in this county commencement.

Very truly yours,
W. G. PRIVETTE.

"MY AUTO 'TIS OF THEE."

My auto, 'tis of thee, short cut to poverty—of thee I chant. I blew a pile of dough on you two years ago, and now you quite refuse to go, or won't or can't. Through town or country-side, you were my joy and pride; a happy day. I loved thy gaudy hue, thy nice white tires so new, but now you're down and for true, in every way. To thee, old rattle-box come bumps and knocks for thee I grieve. Badly thy top is torn, frayed are thy seats and worn; the whooping-cough affects thy horn, I do believe. Thy perfume swells the breeze, as we pass by. I paid for thee a price 'twould buy a mansion twice, now everybody's yelling "ice"—I wonder why? Thy motor has the gripper, thy sparkplug has the pip and woe is thine. I too, have suffered chills, ague and hundred ills, endeavoring to pay my bills since thou were mine. Gone is my bank roll now. No more 'twould choke a cow, as once before. Yet if I had the mon, so help the John—amen, I'd buy myself a car again and speed some more.—Exchange.

Mr. H. W. Williams of New Bern, is in the city today on business.

A GLANCE AT THE LATEST WAR NEWS

German attacks have been resumed in several sections of the western battle front, and according to today's Berlin communication one of those movements, in the Argonne, has resulted in a victory of importance. Three lines of trenches were stormed, and the statement is made that the principal French positions for more than a mile were taken, with the capture of 600 prisoners, 18 guns and much war material.

The French statement mentions a few small engagements, said to have ended favorably for the allies.

The German statement confirms Petrograd's assertion that another great battle is in progress in Poland, west of the Russian war office says, and the further progress about Brest-Litovsk, the section of the front closest to Warsaw.

Germany today notified the United States American vessels should avoid the north and west coast of France. The State Department believes that is intended as a warning against mines, rather than as equivalent to the declaration of a blockade.

Remnants of the Belgian troops, still defending the little strip of their country not in possession of the Germans once are bearing the brunt of fighting in the west. Unofficial Amsterdam reports state the Germans are again attacking along the Yser. For the last two days Belgians and Germans have been fighting, the possession of trenches having been decided with the bayonet.

The struggle in the east is increasing in severity as the Austro-German attack develops. Heavy fighting is now in progress along practically the whole front, except in Bukovina. An official statement from Petrograd today reports a number of important victories for the Russians. In northern Poland, near the west Prussian border, the village of Skempe, for some time the scene of hard struggle, has been captured by the Russians, the report says. Further south, to the west of Warsaw, the Germans brought up large masses of their first line troops and repeated their tactics of hurling one regiment after another at selected positions. The Russian report describes the attacks as furious and adds that the Germans suffered immense losses, but were driven back. So far as the report shows, there has been no change in the Carpathians.

Russian aviators bombarded three German mobilization centers, another official report says. The raid is described as successful, although no details are given.

The surrender of Lieutenant Colonel Kemp, the South African rebel leader, is expected at Pretoria to bring to an end the uprising. Five hundred burghers and their officers laid down their arms, and the surrender of Colonel Kemp, the only one of the four original leaders who is still at large, is predicted.

A TREAT IN STORE FOR THEATRE-GOERS

(By the Press Agent.)
Something novel is in store for the theatergoer with the Adams, Nough and Howard musical fantasy "The Prince of Tonight," with Tom Arnold in the title role will be presented here at the New Theater February 6th.

Mr. Arnold's role is that of a college youth, poor but resourceful, who is spurned by a beautiful heiress whom he dares love, and who eventually wins her after being transformed by the mystic influence of a blooming century plant into a prince of the mythical land of Luntania. It is a pretty story, well told and gives the authors an opportunity, to introduce a number of pretty songs, snappy and witty lines, a wealth of beautiful scenery, electrical effects, attractive costumes and everything that goes to make up the best of musical extravaganzas.
