ORANGE ANGRERS BIG AN.

It was sour and the elephant hurled the orange into the pile of boxes. Porterville, Cal.—A trick elephant was standing in an alley in the rear of a theater here when John Wallace, a boxmaker, came along peeling an orange.

GIRL, 17, WEDS MAN IN JAIL

Bridegroom is serving sentence for violation of the local option law. Springfield, Mo.—Rather than wait till her sweetheart's term in the city jail had expired, Miss Sarah Harris, seventeen, was married in the recorder's office at the court house to Harrison Gregory.

KEEP IDLE HORSES HEALTHY

Best thing for Azoturia is Prevention, Says Doctor Reynolds—Water and Exercise Essential. The symptoms of azoturia are easily recognizable. A horse comes out of the stable apparently in the best of condition. He is driven but a short distance before he shows signs of lameness or stiffness in his hind legs.

Gender Grows a Horn.

Pittsburgh.—A gander on the farm of Ollie McKinney, in Saw Mill valley, Patton township, is attracting much interest because of a peculiar growth, resembling a horn, on its head, about an inch above its eyes.

J. T. Chambers, merchant, Jonesboro, Ark., writes: "Foley Kidney Pills cured me of a ten-year standing case of rheumatism. I suffered miserably. A friend told me of being cured; so I used them, and they cured me, too."

The True Bravery. There is as much true courage in enduring with constancy the sorrows of the will as in remaining steadily on the wall of a battery.

Two Things Went Together. An eccentric clergyman was once told by a parishioner that he was a very odd man. "Yes," the clergyman replied, "I set out to be a very good man, and soon found that I could not be very good without being very odd!"

Trust in Providence. When we meet one of those big, strutting water headlights while riding in the most electric belting to our little paradise, we just be ahead, trusting Providence that watches over us, and drunkards will take care of us, too.

Without Personality. The man who has no refuge in himself, who has no voice in his own mind, who has no opinion, is not properly a personality at all.

Washing China. When washing ornaments of glass and china, if a Turkish towel is used at the bottom of the bowl, it will keep the article from getting chipped.
