WASHINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, MAY 24, 1915.

About the only effect that the war in Europe has had on most of the people of this country is that it has caused them to become a good deal more familiar with the geography of the countries involved.

Aha! An idea! Let's send Roosevelt over to take Kitchener's place in the English army.

LOCAL BUSINESS PROSPECTS

Few cities are as fortunate as is Washington in the way of location, resources and prospects. Located many miles from the larger cities, the local merchants have very little out of town trade competition.

There is absolutely no reason whatever why Washington merchants shouldn't enjoy a prosperous trade if they carry the goods that their customers demand and sell them at satisfactory prices.

But the customers must KNOW what goods the merchant sells. They are going to buy their merchandise from the merchant whom they know can supply their wants. And the only way the merchant can supply this knowledge to their customers is to ADVERTISE.

Let the people know what you're selling and what you charge—that's the only kind of advertising that really pays. There are several merchants of Washington who have already found this out.

With such men as Congressman Small, Capt. Leach, Mayor Kugler, J. G. Bragaw, Jr., and others giving their hearty endorsement to the Y. M. C. A. movement, we'll expect to see work started on the building in a short while.

Looks as if we were going to have wait a couple of years for the park, though, unless one kind-hearted, public-spirited citizen comes across with the donation of the property.

Beaufort county may well feel proud of its school system. It has made remarkable progress under the able supervision of Superintendent W. G. Privette.

After Washing Oilcloth. After washing oilcloth and linoleum be sure to dry it properly. If left damp it will speedily rot, and finally become totally spoiled.

Ingenuous Youngster. A little boy came near getting a good spanking for answering his father in a pert way, but escaped by saying "When you were a small boy, dad, didn't you ever get excited and say the wrong thing?"

Triumph of Mutes. It was but the other day when the triumph of the deaf and dumb faced me. It was a ship just starting from Southampton to Canada.

Man's Inhumanity. "The men are always prating about man's inhumanity to man," observed Mrs. Gabb. "What have they to complain about?" "Plenty," growled Mr. Gabb. "Slight out of every ten married men go around trying to get single men into trouble by advising them to get married."

One of War's Evils. Edmund Burke said: "War suspends the rules of obligation, and what is long suspended is in danger of being totally abrogated."

Neighbors. "Are your new neighbors, the Wopsetons, interesting people?" "Exceedingly so; he is the kind of man that don't speak to anybody without an introduction, and she is the kind of woman that borrows everything in your house without being introduced at all."

And in a Hurry. A Chicago doctor says it is possible to know when a speaker is talking a lie by feeling the speaker's pulse. Censors, press agents, Schermans and some others should take to wearing stethoscopes.
