JAMES L. MAYO Proprietor.
CARL GOERCH Editor.

WASHINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, JUNE 11, 1915.

At any rate, those people who claimed that President Wilson worked under Mr. Bryan's thumb, have got to revise their views considerably.

There has been considerable comment over the new city dog ordinance. One of our readers called up on the phone yesterday and stated that the law was the most insane proposition she had ever heard of. She added that she owned a dog and that the latter was never allowed on the streets, but that she didn't intend to make herself ridiculous by leading the animal along by a chain as the new law will require her to do. Others have expressed themselves as heartily in favor of the law. We would like to hear the views of some of our readers on this new ordinance and will be glad to grant them a limited amount of space in which to set forth their views.

New Bern probably has more "war experts" within its border than any other city in the State and countless battles have been planned and fought during the past few weeks in local public places. If any of the warring countries get in sore need of information as to how to plan their battles and to fight them, they should by all means send a representative here for advice.—New Bern Journal.

We might say the same of Washington, without getting too far away from the truth.

Don't talk war; business depression, or criticize the way the country's being run. Talk good roads for Beaufort county and do your share in obtaining them.

There's a "man of many burdens" in Washington (D. C.) and the burdens are exceedingly heavy to bear.

How many brides does that make, who have wended their way to the altar in Beaufort county? We've lost track of the number, but it appears to us that there are almost a dozen.

Chicago is demanding that milkmen wear rubber shoes during the early morning, but Maxim silencers would be better in Norfolk.—Ledger Dispatch.

Which reminds us of the fact that there is considerable unnecessary noise in Washington, such as singing and shouting late at night, automobile cut-outs, rattletrap wagons, and so on.

HELPING ONE ANOTHER.

In a number of instances recently, the Daily News has received important news items over telephone from Belhaven, New Bern, Kinston, Greenville and other cities in this section. It is true, has seen to it that whatever items of importance occur in Washington are also telephoned to these other cities. The results have been a mutual benefit and we are sure that the respective papers in this part of the State appreciated the messages they received from each other and realized their value. We know that we did.

There are several items a week that occur in each of the above cities that would be of interest to each of the other cities. We believe that it would be an excellent idea to cooperate in some manner, secure this news as soon as possible and thus be able to make the papers of greater interest and give all the news of this section while it is still fresh.

We couldn't help but admire the excellent appearance of Wednesday's issue of the New Bern Sun. The first page was especially good. Better give the makeup man a raise, Brother Dunn.

In connection with the present discussion on good roads for the county, it might be a good idea for those of our readers who have anything of value to suggest regarding the work, to send their opinions in to this paper, in order that we may publish them and thus gain the general attitude of the residents of the county on the proposed improvements.

We desire to state right here that we absolutely refuse to accept the position in President Wilson's cabinet, which has been vacated by Secretary Bryan. It's no use urging—we decline.

State of North Carolina, Beaufort County—In the Superior Court.
J. H. Bonner and H. C. Bonner, Against
John B. Respass and Frank H. Harvey.

To Whom it May Concern:

The parties above named and all other persons interested will take notice that on the 10th day of April, 1915, the above named petitioners filed a petition in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Beaufort county to have the title of certain lands therein described registered and confirmed pursuant to Chapter 90 of the Public Laws of 1913, and that summons has been issued, returnable at the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Beaufort county on the 15th day of June, 1915.

Said land is situate in the county of Beaufort, and said State, containing the land of John B. Respass and Frank H. Harvey and bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at the mouth of Deep Run; running with said Run to the Mill Pond; thence with the Mill Pond to the Canal; thence with the Canal to Broad Creek; and with Broad Creek to the beginning; containing fifty acres, more or less.

GEO. A. PAUL,
Clerk Superior Court Beaufort County.

Lake in Hawaiian Crater.
Waialeale, or Green lake, on the island of Hawaii, is a body of fresh water in the pit of an old crater near Kapehu. This lake covers an area of about five acres and is fed by springs below the surface. A pump has been taken away from this lake for domestic use and for irrigation purposes.

LITTLE TIPS ABOUT People You Know.

That's the third night running that he's taken her to the show. Perhaps we may hear a noise like a couple galloping up to the altar before the month's out.

In a dry goods store this morning:

"How much is this hosiery?"
"Twenty-five cents."
"Will they stand washing?"
"Oh yes, certainly."
"Well, I'll take them. The last pair I bought here though didn't keep their color a bit. I got caught in a rainstorm and when I took them off my legs were a sight."

We rather admired the sight of the young lady powdering her nose in front of the Savings and Trust Company this morning, but we didn't admire the word she let slip out when her powder box fell out of her hand and dropped on the sidewalk.

Dear Editor:

I am an Elk and I was interested in the letter you recently published as coming from one of your lady readers and inquiring regarding the number of degrees there are in the order. She only named a few of the degrees. I urge her by all means to let her husband go to the lodge whenever he says his presence is required there. For the benefit of the poor orphans in Belgium, for the crippled aborigines in southern Africa and for the destitute millions of Japan, it is necessary that he attend the lodge as often as possible.

Yours very truly,
T. C. W.

8,000 CANCER VICTIMS IN NEW YORK

Albany, June 11.—Cancer is claiming 400 victims annually in New York City alone, according to statistics compiled by the State health department. The total in the State is 8,000 annually.

To check the spread of the disease which has continued to increase without interruption for the last fifteen years, Dr. Herman M. Biggs, State-commissioner of health, has instituted a State-wide campaign against it.

CALOMEL MAY HURT YOUR LIVER

Every time you take this powerful drug you are in danger. Take Dodson's Liver Tonic instead. Calomel is made from mercury, and while mercury has many valuable uses, it is a dangerous thing to swallow. If calomel stays in the system very long it salivates. Even when it works naturally, its after-effects are often bad.

Lee Davenport will sell you Dodson's Liver Tonic, which is positively guaranteed to take the place of calomel. Liver Tonic stimulates the liver just enough to start it working, and does not make you sicker than ever—as calomel often does. You feel good after taking Dodson's and it won't force you to stop eating or working after taking it. It is as beneficial for children as for adults.

Try a large bottle for fifty cents under the guarantee that your money will be given back cheerfully if you're not satisfied.

SERMONS BY LOCAL PASTORS

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

(By Rev. E. V. Hopel)

There is no more beautiful grace than gratitude. The reason for gratitude to God are as numerous as our blessings, because "every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom can be no variation, neither shadow that is cast by turning." He is constant in his beneficence even though men are indifferent to his kindness and opposed to his will. "He maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and the unjust." Matt. 5:45, and Paul wrote the object of God's goodness is to lead men to repentance, Rom. 1:4. How can we sin against Him in the midst of his great gifts? How can we withhold our hearts from him in gratitude and praise and worship? It is good to live on his earth, to live on his bounty, and to live in the light of his sun and to be reconciled with our loved ones, but there are greater blessings than these, and a correspondingly greater reason for thanksgiving. James declares again, "of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures." But while God reaches all men through the material world, he can bless spiritually only those who are grateful to him for physical good. Gratitude opens the heart of man and he enters in. Jesus healed the leper and only one had grace enough to return to his benefactor and say, "I thank you," and because he did this came to him the greater blessing, for to him the Lord said "Thy faith hath made thee whole."

This leads us to our theme, "The thief cometh not, but that he may steal, and kill, and destroy, but I come that they may have life, and may have it more abundantly."

Jesus has brought abundant life to all men, but it is possible only to those who respond to his munificence in praise and worship and service. God gives the world to all men, but he gives himself only to those who can see him beneath it and above it and back of it and beyond it. All others are doomed to a narrow life.

Jesus gives abundant life. He gave abundant physical life when he was among men as a man. The great number that were brought into his presence, had life but not abundant, because they were deaf and blind or smitten with disease. Opening their eyes, unstopping their ears and healing disease he gave abundant physical life.

Jesus is the creator of life. He gives life, because He has it. In him was life and the life was the light of men. "No man could give that which he does not possess—Jesus had abundant life of the body. There is no indication that he was ever sick; he possessed energy and strength and he fulfilled not only the law of Moses but the law of health.

But Jesus had, and has, spiritual life also and he is able to give it in necessary abundance to all who accept him. He had spiritual life because he lived in harmony with the law of his father. "That sent me is with me; the Father hath not sent me alone, because I do always those things that please him." Sin never touched him and that is the great miracle of his life. From the manger to the cross he is absolutely perfect in the sight of God—the only one of time of whom this is true.

THE STIEFF

Tone A Quality Tone

From every standpoint of tonal values the Stieff tone is a quality tone. Throughout the entire range of the instrument there is an evenness, a velvety smoothness that speaks the work of a master hand.

Stieff tone is a rare combination of unlimited volume and sympathetic singing quality.

Stieff is evidenced the imagination to conceive and the skill to produce an instrument of extraordinary quality.
