REV. R. L. GAY DEALS WITH "TIGERS"

TELLS OF HAVOC THESE INSTITUTIONS ARE NOW PLAYING.

A STRONG SERMON

Says That Sentiment Should Be Aroused. Liquor Dealer Is Low Type of Criminal.

The local liquor question, the effects of drink, the changes that have been made in recent years regarding the rum proposition and the methods of operating "blind tigers" were discussed by Rev. R. L. Gay, pastor of the First Baptist church, Sunday night in one of the most interesting sermons ever heard in Washington. Mr. Gay spoke straight from the shoulder. His words in part were as follows:

"A bar keeper is not a good man. He never was a good man. I say that the blind tiger is not a good man. He ought not to be a respectable man; ought not to be respected. The man who engages in the traffic of liquor knows that it is killing men; he knows that it is making widows and orphans—he knows all that. He knows, as one of the greatest men has said, 'It kills more men than war, pestilence and famine combined.' And yet, brethren, we have not got as strong a sentiment against it as we ought to have. He engages in the business to make money. Since we have had prohibition and the law forbids a man to sell it, he is lawless in doing it. He does not care anything for his country. He is not a patriot. His one aim is to make good in gold coin. He does not care for the law, and so he is a criminal, and he knows that he is a criminal. But that is not all of it. The man who engages in that business will defend himself. Any man who runs a blind tiger will lie on the witness stand—you know that. Now a man who is engaged in the meanest business on earth, protecting himself by lies is not a good man, is he? He ought not to be respected. He not only goes into it with the purpose of perjuring himself for his own protection, but with the idea that he is going to make his friends swear to a lie to protect him. The man who is engaged in that business is engaged in the meanest business on earth. He is an all-around villain; he is an all-around criminal. He is the most degraded man in your town, no matter what his name may be. He is not fit to associate with decent people. He demoralizes your town. He is not a good man."

BELIEVE THAT CRAVEN CO. WILL HELP

COMMITTEE FROM AURORA MADE VISIT TO NEW BERN YESTERDAY.

SAW CHAIRMAN

Commissioners Were Not in Session But Chairman Gives Reasonable Assurance of Aid.

A committee from Aurora went to New Bern yesterday to confer with the commissioners of Craven county relative to securing the assistance of that body in the good roads work being contemplated. It is necessary for the people of Aurora to travel for a distance of about seven miles along a road which leads to both Washington and New Bern. As the latter city would derive considerable benefit from the improved road, it was thought probable that the county commissioners would lend their assistance in the matter.

When the Aurora committee, which consisted of W. A. Thompson, W. L. Selby and T. W. Lawrence, appeared at the Craven county court house, they found that the board was not in session and that no definite answer could be given to their proposition. They interviewed the chairman of the board, however, and the latter gave them reasonable assurance that Craven county would contribute two dollars for every dollar raised by the people of Aurora. The matter will be brought up for action at the next meeting of the board of commissioners.

"Good roads" continues to be the principal topic of conversation in all parts of the county and interest, instead of lagging, is growing more intense daily.

Opposed to The Dog Law

Local Resident Gives Opinions on Matter. Tells Why Law Should Be Abolished.

Editor Daily News, Washington, N. C.: Dear sir: I have noticed considerable agitation during the last few days over an ordinance which the board of aldermen intend going into effect on Friday of this week. There appears to be a good deal of opposition to this law from certain channels. The law is dead wrong from start to finish. We don't want anything like it for Washington. Why should the liberty of dogs be infringed upon? It is unreasonable and unjust. Let the animals have the same liberty as they have had heretofore. Let them go sniffing around the vegetables and fruits in the grocery stores. Don't chase the dogs away from around the market. Let them stay there so that they can annoy ladies and children who desire to do their shopping there. And even if a dog should accidentally bite some child on the streets; that is not of so great importance. The children ought to be kept off the streets.

Why should we wake up Washington? Let us go on as we always have, been doing. Even if all the cities in this section are enforcing dog laws, that is no reason why Washington should do it. Let us keep the dogs. We love to see the many presence on the streets, to have them sniffing around everything they can reach. The board of aldermen are unjust in trying to deprive us of all this. Very truly yours, W. C.

MAY HAVE TO CALL EXTRA SESSION

SAID THAT WILSON IS THINKING SERIOUSLY OF CALLING CONGRESS.

FINANCES LOW

No Secret at Washington that Government's Funds Are Running Low at Present Time.

Washington, June 15.—That President Wilson is thinking seriously of calling Congress into extraordinary session to provide money to run the government was the opinion expressed here today by one of the leading members of the house of representatives and a man who has always had the confidence of the President.

Whether Congress will be asked to extend the war tax measure or revise the tariff by taking sugar off the free list is not yet settled. It is known, that either one or the other will have to be done. It is no secret in Washington that the government's funds are running low and that the question of raising sufficient money to run the government has caused administrative leaders considerable anxiety.

To Decorate For Chautauqua

Business Men and Property Owners Urged to Decorate Their Buildings and Homes.

The chairman of the decorating committee for the Chautauqua, which begins in the city on Friday, issues an urgent request that all of the business men of the city start work at once in decorating their places of business along the principal streets of the city. It is aimed to make a grand display of banners and flags to inaugurate the Chautauqua week, and in order to do this, each merchant is expected to take some steps in decorating his building. The property owners are also requested to decorate their homes and residences with flags and bunting for the occasion.

Many Tickets Still on Hand

Guarantors Must Dispose of $900 Worth Before Chautauqua Opens.

With the Chautauqua but a few days off, the ticket selling committee are finishing their campaign with a whirlwind finish. So far the sales have been fairly good, but there still remains $900 worth of tickets to dispose of. If tickets to this amount are not sold before the opening of the Chautauqua, guarantors will have to make good the deficit.

The guarantors have announced that parties subscribing for tickets will please pay the committee when called upon, as the Chautauqua Association is calling for a settlement and immediate funds are necessary. No season tickets will be sold after the opening of the Chautauqua.

Value of Home Economics Big Parade

Interesting Report Made by Mrs. H. W. Carter, Chairman of the State Board.

(By Mrs. H. W. Carter) The aim of Home Economics is to enlarge the sum total of human happiness by improving the average of human health and increasing the purchasing power of the small purse. It seeks to teach the purchasing power of the individual purse, not so much in the manner of pounds of flour or beef that the contents of the purse will buy, but what in terms of food value the purse holds. It includes the study of the consumption of time and energy, since efficiency is as necessary to the proper management of the home as to that of the office or factory.

Housekeeping is a profession and though the statement has become trite, the professional attitude toward this business is far from being reached.

From a selfish standpoint, I regret to say my time as Chairman of Home Economics expires during this meeting. The office has been the source of a great opportunity for education along the line of the most important work this Federation has undertaken. I have tried to do some good to repay the Federated clubs for having given me such a wonderful opportunity to learn lessons by actual experience.

I have demonstrated to my own satisfaction that a woman can cultivate her own garden to the benefit of family and friends and improve her own and the health of her family and increase the size of her pocket book, and, at the same time, illustrate to every one that it is cheaper to raise vegetables than to buy them, and to grow a great number of different vegetables in the open garden during the winter months. I have learned that I could serve a four course luncheon to 140 county teachers for $12.29.

I have told you how I have learned to serve a cheap but nice luncheon, and now I will say I have learned a system in labor also, as very recently I had promised to serve a luncheon for an organization of which I am a member and Thursday my cook went home sick. I went riding and to a book club meeting did all my own homework, had a number of callers, and served a well prepared luncheon on Saturday; even better than if I had had plenty of servants in the house. We served 75 plates for $12.10, chicken jelly bouillon with mayonnaise, and parsley and crackers; chicken salad on lettuce leaves, cranberry jelly, pickles, celery, bread, crackers, and tea with lemon, and pineapple sherbet and cake.

If by my feeble efforts I have induced twenty people to start gardens and ten to say that through me they have given luncheons for their clubs for one-half the old price, do you blame me, dear club women, for giving up my work with deep regret? I have served my two years as Chairman of Home Economics and have learned all these things and many more because I was Chairman. The government has kept me supplied with literature which I have sent out, and daily and weekly letters which I have turned over to the various papers for publication.

BIG TEUTONIC VICTORY IS CLAIMED

ANNOUNCEMENT SAYS THAT 16,000 RUSSIAN PRISONERS WERE CAPTURED BY THE GERMAN FORCES.

RUSSIANS CONTRADICT

Say That 20,000 Austrians and Germans Were Killed. Heavy Fighting in France. Turks Repulse Allies. British Steamer Sunk.

London, June 18.—In northern Galicia, between Przemysl and Lemberg, there has been a renewal of furious fighting, and Berlin claims the Teutonic allies have gained an important victory. An attack along a forty-five mile front is said to have resulted in capture of the Russian positions between Cygniawa, northwest of Mocsiska, and Sienlawa northward of the San. The announcement says 16,000 prisoners were taken yesterday.

20,000 Austrians Killed. A press despatch from Petrograd gives another version, saying 20,000 men of the Austro-German attacking forces were killed, the remainder being routed.

Heavy Fighting in France. In Northern France heavy fighting continues. The German war office today announced that the French had sustained a severe defeat near Arras. The French military authorities asserted a German work had been captured near Lorette, but admitted the Germans had recaptured part of the entrenchments at Souchez won the previous day.

British Steamer Sunk. The British steamer Hopemount, of 3,300 tons was sunk on Lands End by a German submarine. The crew was rescued.

Turks Repulse Allies. Heavy fighting has been resumed on the Gallipoli peninsula. The Turkish war office announces that attacks of the French and British forces against the Turkish right wing were repulsed, and that the allies were thrown back to their original positions with heavy losses.

Austro-Italian Battle. Occupation of the Carinthian town of Valentinia by the Italians is announced officially at Rome. Along the Isonzo river a battle of large proportions has been in progress several days. Although the Austrians apparently have won some successes, the Italians have brought up reinforcements and are offering determined resistance.

Sink Another Ship. The 3,500 ton British steamer Arndale has been sunk in the White Sea by a mine.

SAYS BAKER. Taking pictures with a Kodak is a bully good sport that lasts all the year round. You simply can't beat it for real fun, as those who've tried it can tell you. Let us be the one to sell you a kodak; for that is our business purely and simply. We know your wants and can help you. BAKER'S STUDIO.

Small Facts About Horses. Gray horses are the longest lived and cream colored ones the most affected by temperature changes.

Is Advocate Of New Law. J. H. Ecklin Gives His Reasons for Favoring the Proposed Dog Law.

Mr. Editor: I have read several articles in your paper concerning the dog law. I happened to be at the meeting of the board of aldermen at the time the law was passed and there seemed to be very little opposition to it. As for myself, I was heartily in favor of it and I do not see any reason why the dog should have any more liberty than the horse, hog or cow. For we already have a law preventing these animals from running at large. It seems to me that the horse, hog and cow are of a great deal more benefit to humanity than the dog, and I believe that the sight of all kinds of dogs in all kinds of shapes on the streets, is a public nuisance and should be dealt with as such.

As to modifying the law, I believe in equal rights to all and special privileges to none. Respectfully, J. H. ECKLIN.
