FARMERS ARE ANXIOUS FOR ROAD WORK

WILLING TO PAY THREE SHARE IN IMPROVING ROADS OF COUNTY.

ROADS NEEDED

Letter Received This Morning. Written Proponent That Washington Is Going to Build Roads.

That interest in the road work in Beaufort county continues in all sections is proven by a letter which was received this morning from a farmer in the southern section of the county, who expresses himself as being greatly in favor of the roads and urges that the work be started as soon as possible. His letter reads as follows:

"I am greatly interested in the road work in Beaufort county. I have seen the condition of the roads at the present time, and if they are not fixed soon, I believe Washington is going to lose a good part of the tobacco trade. We are willing to help in any way we can. What we want is for the work to start at once. The people of Aurora have the right idea, and they are also urging that the work be done. I notice in the paper where there are a series of meetings to be held. I hope you will publish the dates of these meetings in advance, for a number of us want to attend them. Let us have the good roads; there is nothing we need worse in the county. Yours very truly, C. B. K.

Negro Girl Is Kept Chained

Securely Bound By Her Step-Father In Order to Keep Her at Home.

"Come here, Bess, I just wants to show ye a sight." This spoke a colored citizen of Belhaven yesterday to Justice of the Peace George V. Latham. The justice went to see the "sight." He found a colored girl, about 14 years of age, standing shackled with heavy chains. She was bound around the waist and from her wrist the chain ran down to her foot; where it was locked securely about her ankle. When asked what she was doing, she replied that her stepfather, one David Lee, took this method of keeping her home while he was away at work. She added that he locked her to a table and had done so for the last week.

Violation Of The "Blue" Law

Editor Visits Washington. C. M. Willis Charged With Selling Coca-Cola on Sunday, Other Cases Before the Recorder.

At the session of the recorder's court yesterday afternoon, C. M. Willis was charged with selling Coca-Cola within the city limits on Sunday, in violation of the city's "blue" law. He was fined ten dollars and costs, but took an appeal from the decision rendered.

John Hardy, colored, was charged with stopping his transfer on the city streets. He was fined costs.

"I wish you'd just say in your paper today that I didn't write that letter about the dog law, which appeared the other day over the initials, 'W. C.'" said W. F. Clarke, local manager of the express company. "A large number of persons have asked me if I had written it, because those initials are the same as mine."

Start On Cruise On 3rd Of July

Interesting Itinerary Has Been Prepared for the Boys of the N. C. Naval Militia.

A most attractive cruise has been planned for the North Carolina naval militia this year. The local company, the 6th division, is eagerly looking forward to the day of embarkment and it is expected that a large number will take the cruise.

The Washington company will leave here on July 2nd, proceeding by train to Norfolk, from where they will embark on the U. S. S. Kearsage on July 3rd, for Newport, R. I. Two days' shore leave will be granted them at that point. They will then sail for Gardners' Bay, where target practice will be held for two days. After the completion of this event, the Kearsage will sail for New York City, where two days' shore leave will be granted. From New York, the vessel will return to Hampton Roads, where the boys will disembark and take the train for Washington, arriving here on the morning of July 17th.

"ZUDORA" CLOSES TOMORROW NIGHT. The New Theatre will present the last episode of that famous serial "Zudora" the $20,000,000 mystery, tomorrow night. On account of the Chautauqua opening tomorrow night this house will keep their place open until after the Chautauqua is over in order to give any one that wishes to attend the Chautauqua a chance to see the last of this serial. So any one can attend the Chautauqua tomorrow night, then come to the New Theatre and see the dash of this great serial.

NEAR STARVATION IN MEXICO

Here is a timely picture showing to what measures the civilian population of Mexico has to resort in order to keep itself from actual starvation. Poor Mexican women with empty market baskets are seen thronging about one of the army food supply depots, where they are given barely enough to keep body and soul together.

Why City Needs Y. M. C. A.

Local Forces Are Urged to Join in securing Association For Washington.

(Contributed) Are we doing the right thing by our boys. We mean to do the right, of course. Our life is wrapped up in them. But are we surrounding them with such influences as make for the best physical, mental and moral conditions in the future? Is it not time that an urgent plea is made for some sort of community consciousness which will awaken the satisfied residents of the community to the proper sense of their civic responsibility? What local forces are at work for the moral regeneration of the community? Perhaps the young men are not entirely blame-worthy for falling into evil ways, are lurking in every town. There are no Christian Associations for either boy or girl. There are at least a score of men who might easily build and equip a Y. M. C. A. or some institution equally profitable from a social standpoint. Yet nothing of the kind has been done. Do we realize the importance of conserving our young manhood? He who grasps the youth grasps the future. If you want to do something for the world, do it for the youth. We want to occupy people's minds and lives, especially the young people with thoughts and activities along the line of good to such an extent that the preponderance will more than offset what is sometimes a stronger attraction along the lines of evil. The essential thing for a strong nation is to have a generation of men with clean bodies. There is no hope for the future prosperity of a community in the judgment and discretion of the profligate. We want to keep the youth from temptation. "Reckless beginnings; it is too late to employ medicine when the evil has become strong by habit."—Ovid.

There is a tremendous awakening throughout the world as to the nature and needs of the young man and our duty towards the youth. Training them to be ever for better things, for progress, for a high standard of living, for simplicity and gentleness, honor and clean mirth. Who shall say how great is the significance of this movement?

In the Y. M. C. A. schools of America 70,000 boys and men are fitting themselves to step up a little higher and most are following Longfellow's rule for greatness: toiling upward to the stars. The Y. M. C. A. furnishing the ladder for their advancement. This association has chosen for its own motto, "Terence." "Anything that concerns a man do I deem of indifference to me." That is why the Y. M. C. A. is gaining such a tremendous hold on the men of America, and the cry which John J. Holland once voiced still ascends:

"God give us men, a time like this demands: Strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands; Men whom the lust of office does not kill; Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy; Men who possess opinion and a will; Men who have honor, men who will not lie; Men who can stand before a demagogue without winking! Tall men, sun-crowded, who live above the fog, In public duty and private thinking.

ZEPPELINS MAKE RAID ON COAST

FIFTEEN PERSONS IN ENGLISH TOWNS ARE REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN KILLED. FIRMS STARTED BY BOMBS.

ITALIANS ARE PROGRESSING

Austrians Unable to Check Invaders. Germans Claim Successes. British Army Resumes Offensive.

London, June 17.—A Zeppelin raid over the northeast coast of England last night caused the heaviest loss of life among non-combatants from such attacks during the war, with the exception of yesterday's raid by French aeroplanes over Karlsruhe, Germany. Details of the attack on the English coast are held back by the British censor, but it is announced officially that fifteen persons were killed and as many more wounded, and that several fires were started by the bombs. The attack on Karlsruhe caused the death of nineteen persons and fourteen were wounded seriously.

Italian Invasion Progresses. The invasion of the province of Trent by the Italians is proceeding steadily, and according to the Italian general staff, the dominating positions gradually are being occupied. The Austrians, who have despatched 25,000 men from Trent to resist the invaders, have not yet accepted battle. On the Isonzo front the Austrians have prepared elaborate defenses, including in some locations several lines of trenches of masonry or concrete.

German Claims Successes. German claims of new successes in Galicia are confirmed in part by an official statement from Petrograd. It is said the Germans brought up fresh troops, and the Russians were compelled to fall back. No mention is made of Modziska, the capture of which was announced yesterday at Berlin.

British Take Offensive. The British army on the western front has resumed the offensive. Paris announces that the British have carried another line of German trenches west of La Bassée.

Torpedo Boat Sunk. A French torpedo boat has been sunk in collision with a British steamer. Six members of the crew were drowned.
