No. 121

HUNTINGTON TO SPEAK SUNDAY

WILL MAKE ADDRESS AT THE JOINT SERVICES TOMORROW.

DISCUSS Y. M. C. A.

WILL Outline Best Plan to Follow and Discuss Project for Washington. Good Music.

At a union service of the churches of Washington, which are to be held at the Chautauqua tent tomorrow, O. C. Huntington, Interstate Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. executive committee, will be the principal speaker. The following telegram was received yesterday evening: Frank A. Wright, Washington, N. C. Will come for Sunday via Norfolk Southern Saturday night.

G. C. HUNTINGTON. Mr. Huntington's address will have to deal with several important subjects, prominent among them being a discussion of a Y. M. C. A. plan for Washington. He will give his opinion as to the best way to proceed in this direction to obtain the greatest good to the greatest number. He will also outline the best plan of work to follow in order to arouse general interest in Y. M. C. A. work and to assure the institution the support of local residents.

Other features of the services will be music by the Chautauqua entertainers and selections by the several church choirs of the city. The services promise to be of a most interesting nature and the public is cordially invited to be present. The services at the Chautauqua tent will start at six o'clock tomorrow evening. The public is urged to be on time.

Announcement of Marriage. The following announcements have been issued: Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Harrison announce the approaching marriage of their sister Miss Ruth Nimmo Wicks to Mr. Orrin Banks White on Thursday, June the twenty-fourth, at home after July the tenth, 103 South Third Street, Richmond, Va.

Thought Trial Thursday Was A Fair One (Mrs. M. E. Gilles, Pres. W.C.T.U.) I hear there has been unfavorable comment made because the Women's Christian Temperance Union, and others, attended the trial of a liquor case last Thursday. We were especially invited and urged to go by some of the city councilmen to hear a sample of Washington's efforts to rid herself of the stench of blind tismarism. We heard as fair a trial as could be. It showed the city officials were doing their duty notwithstanding some may not.

Every woman, after hearing the evidence, said the defendant was guilty. Every one of them said they were sorry for the defendant. (Therefore would not make good jurors.) We were surprised that sensible jurors would say "not guilty." They were sorry, too. I was taught that man should rule over women by the Bible. I believe it's true, because God knew it would make it easier for her not to have the care of home and state too. It is too much. I believe she should be shielded from the rougher, sterner elements of life. It makes her better and kinder. "Vice is a monster of such awful mien. To be hated is but to be seen; But seen too oft we become familiar with its face. We first pity—then embrace." History teaches that when the men of Greece and Rome became effeminate that was the beginning of their downfall. There is no history of the country where the women became masculine. We have that condition in a measure today here. I am not a suffragist but, if I attend many more liquor trials I shall be tempted to see if we can do any better than the honorable jury of last Thursday.

CHANGE IN SERVICES.

The various churches of the city have agreed not to hold any evening services tomorrow on account of the special union service which is to be held at the Chautauqua tent. The various congregations are urgently requested to be present at the Chautauqua services and a cordial invitation is extended to everyone. The services at the tent will begin promptly at six o'clock.

New Law Stirs Wide Interest

Washington Citizen in Brooklyn Expresses Himself on the New Dog Ordinance.

That the new "dog law" for Washington has not only attracted considerable local interest, but has interested the outside world as well, is proven by a letter which was received this morning from George H. Moore, of Brooklyn, N. Y., a former resident of Washington. Mr. Moore's letter reads as follows: Editor Daily News. Dear sir: After reading several articles in your paper concerning the dog law in Washington, I would say that I am in favor of it and especially during the months of July and August, for the dogs are liable to bite some little child or other persons, causing death from hydrophobia. But it seems to me that the law in Washington should be as it is in Brooklyn; that all dogs must have a muzzle on and a license on his collar from the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. I have a very fine spaniel, but I have to keep him muzzled and provided with a license tag.

I know that there are people in Washington who have valuable dogs and they should have them muzzled if they want them to go on the streets. I was born and raised in Washington, but have been a resident of Brooklyn since 1891. I am a subscriber to your valuable paper. I will be home on July 2nd. Yours very truly, GEORGE H. MOORE. 125 Willoughby St. Brooklyn, N. Y.

WOULDN'T BID ON CONTRACT FOR CUTTER

LOCAL MERCHANTS OVERLOOK OPPORTUNITY FOR BUSINESS.

INVITED TO BID

No Bids Submitted by Local Business Men on Contract Amounting to Several Thousand Dollars.

Although offered an opportunity which might be termed an urgent invitation—to submit bids for supplying the coast guard cutter "Pamlico," with provisions, coal, water, etc., not one single merchant in Washington availed himself of the opportunity and no bids were submitted by any of the business men of this city.

The government invited proposals once a year for supplying the cutter with supplies necessary for its operation and provisions for its officers and crew. Congressman Small took the matter up with the treasury department through Guy C. Harding, deputy collector of customs, who invited the merchants of Washington to submit their bids on the required articles. The cost of supplying the cutter and her crew for one year amounts to several thousand dollars.

The people of New Bern, where the cutter is stationed, are eager for it to remain there in order that they may have an opportunity to bid on the provisions and fuel. A large number of bids are submitted by the merchants of that city every year.

At the session of the recorder's court yesterday afternoon, a motion was made by H. C. Carter, Jr., representing the State, asking that the case against Wm. The motion was granted and the court stated that if both attorneys came to an agreement, desiring the trial to be held before the date set, it would meet with the approval of the court. The case of State vs. Wm. J. Day, charged with alleged assault, was brought up yesterday. On motion of the State, with the consent of the defendant the case was continued until June 26th.

Given Hearing Before Mr. Russ

Men Accused of Being Interested in Illicit "Still" Are Placed Under Bond.

Robert Jefferson, who was found by U. S. officers yesterday morning in the vicinity of an illicit distillery near Bunyon, was given a preliminary hearing before U. S. Commissioner W. H. Russ yesterday afternoon. Examination was waived and a bond of $200 required. Not being able to raise this amount, Jefferson was put in jail.

A warrant was also issued yesterday for Luther Allgood, who also resides near Bunyon. He was brought before Mr. Russ for a hearing. Examination was waived and Allgood was placed under a bond of $200 to guarantee his appearance at the October term of the Federal court in this city. A bondsman was found and the defendant was released.

Jefferson was present at the hearing of Allgood and testified that he was merely a hired man, working for Allgood. His bond was reduced to $100, which was procured and he was released.

Attorney Harry McMullan represented both Allgood and Jefferson in the case.

MANY ATTEND CHAUTAUQUA YESTERDAY

INTERESTING PERFORMANCES GIVEN ON INITIAL DAY HERE.

GOOD SINGING

Dunbar Solree Singers Make Big Hit. Dr. Hawkins Lecture Feature of Program.

The initial performance of the Chautauqua in this city yesterday was a grand success in every way. A large crowd was present at the performance yesterday afternoon and in the evening every seat was taken and many were forced to stand up in the rear. There is no doubt but that large crowds will attend each performance if all of them are up to the standard of those given yesterday.

One excellent feature of the entertainments is that they start promptly at the appointed times—3 o'clock in the afternoon and 8 o'clock in the evening. A number of the audience last night did not get into the tent until about 8:30 and as a result they missed one of the best parts of the program.

The Dunbar Solree Singers were repeatedly applauded and forced to give many encores. Miss LaViness, who took the part of "The Goose Girl," had a magnificent voice and her singing was one of the most enjoyable features of the entertaining program. Miss Price's impersonation of the Italian woman was also excellent. Longstreet and Thomas did some fine singing and merited the loud applause which was accorded them.

Dr. Chuncey J. Hawkins' lecture on "Bright Eyes and Wild Hearts of our Northern Woods," was one of the most interesting lectures ever heard in Washington. His pictures were excellent and his explanations of them instructive and witty. He was granted the closest of attention from his audience and many expressions of wonder and delight were heard over the truly wonderful pictures which were shown.

T. C. Greer, of New Bern, spent yesterday here on business.

WORK ON WHITE WAY.

One of the committees, which has in charge the soliciting of subscriptions for Washington's white way, started work Thursday afternoon. Several merchants were seen. The other committee expects to start Monday. The soliciting so far has met with good success and the committee which has already made a start is fairly well satisfied with its work.

Trunk Mystery Solved At Last

Was Not Taken from N. S. Station by Original Owners, But by Other Interested Parties.

The "trunk mystery," which has been the subject for considerable discussion on the part of a number of residents of the city during the last two weeks, appears to be solved at last, although it is not believed that anything will result from the solution of the "mystery."

It will be remembered that two trunks, suspected of containing liquor, were recently found at the Norfolk Southern by the police of the city. One of the trunks was spirited away while the officers were on watch. The names of the "spirited" are now claimed to be known, but as no one has been named as the owner of the real names of those who were interested in the case.

Smith and Jones went to Norfolk and ordered the liquor there. They packed it in two trunks and shipped it to Washington. The news of the shipment reached the ears of Brown and Black, two young men of this city, and they determined to secure the liquor for their own use, knowing that Smith and Jones could take no action, because of the contents of the trunk. When Smith and Jones returned from Norfolk and found that the trunk had been stolen, they were somewhat vexed. In fact, it may be said that they were exceedingly vexed. They scoured the country and found the trunk about nine miles from town. Loading it into a wagon, they proceeded to find a hiding place of their own for it. Brown and Black, however, got wise to what was going on and they swiped the trunk again. Then they took the liquor to town in small quantities and offered it for sale here, according to information given out. And all Smith and Jones can do is to keep quiet.

GERMANS ARE NOW NEAR LEMBERG

ARE DRIVING THE RUSSIAN FORCES IN FRONT OF THEM.

BATTLE IN WEST

Terrific Fighting Going on in France. Note is Received from Mexican Officials.

Berlin, June 19.—Dispatches from the eastern frontier indicate that the Austro-German forces are retreating in disorder. The invaders are but ten miles from Lemberg. The dispatches also state that the Russians are fighting desperately and burning the villages behind them to prevent the Germans from securing any assistance in the way of provisions.

Fighting in the West. London, June 19.—The fighting in the Arras section and at the northern and southern parts of the short British front, is as desperate as any the western theater of war has developed. It is too early to say which side has the advantage, although both claim gains.

Mexico Sends Word.

Washington, D. C., June 19.—The United States government was notified today by Chazaro, president of the Villa-Zapata convention government in Mexico City, that if President Wilson's warning to Mexico factions should signify a threat, the convention government will maintain the dignity of the Mexican people. The communication states, however, that the convention continues to believe that the general aims of the United States is to help Mexico in a friendly manner. It is intimated that anything in the nature of a "threat" will be resented by the people of Mexico.

Murder Case Is Decided

Luther Walters is Given Trial at Williamston for Alleged Killing of Colored Man.

The trial of Luther Walters, of Williamston, for manslaughter excited much interest in that city this week. The case was called Wednesday, a jury being selected from a special venire. Martin and Martin and H. W. Stubbs appeared for the defendant and A. R. Dunning and Judge F. D. Winston assisted Solicitor Allsbrook in the prosecution. Walters some time last year had some difficulty with a colored man named Brown over work done by Brown's boy for Walters. Walters armed himself with a pistol and went to Brown's house to thresh the matter out. The argument becoming heated, Brown is said to have picked up a hinge, whereupon Walters shot him, the wound proving fatal months after.

The jury was out all night Wednesday and stood at the settlement 11 against and 1 for the defendant. It was decided between the counsel and the Solicitor to compromise by Walters paying all cost, $100 down and $100 each year for five years to the family of the dead man, and the jury was discharged in the case. Walters has always been known as a good, quiet man and there was much sympathy for him and his family.

Avoid Worry. To live above worry is no little task, especially for persons of a nervous temperament. Nevertheless, it is possible and can be attained through the ever conquering power of the will. Then, too, worry is one of beauty's greatest destroyers; it lines the face with furrows that are difficult to remove and far from pleasing to look upon.
