NEGROES ARE BROUGHT TO COURT

SPENCE REDDICK AND OTHERS WERE FINED YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

SHOOTING IN CITY

Two Wounded by Pistol Shots. Dave Dixon to be Brought to Trial Saturday Afternoon.

Considerable excitement was caused in the colored section of the city yesterday when Will Moore, a negro, broke loose with a revolver, shot another negro three times in the shoulder and wounded him seriously. One of the balls passed through the man's shoulder and struck his wife, who was standing behind him. She was wounded in the leg. The cause of the shooting is not known as yet, all parties refusing to talk. It is expected that full details will be made public at the trial which will be held this week.

Violated Liquor Law.
At the session of the recorder's court this morning, two negroes, Sam Robertson, of Pinetown, and Charles Jones, of Belhaven, were charged with alleged violation of the State Liquor law. It is stated that 48 pints of liquor were found in their possession. Robertson was released, as he showed that he was not guilty of the offense. Jones was fined $25 and costs; the recorder being lenient with him on account of the good reputation which he bore up to the present time and to which a number of white persons testified.

Reddick is Tried.
Spence Reddick, Julia Reddick and Lena Reddick, all colored, were brought up in the recorder's court yesterday afternoon, charged with setting an affray. The first two were fined $10 and costs and the last named was fined $5 and costs.

Dixon Trial Saturday.
Dave Dixon, who stabbed Will Cox at Hill's stable Saturday, will be brought up for trial Saturday afternoon in the recorder's court.

Bears Kill Hogs Near Pineville

(Special Correspondent)
Ten large bears wandered over to C. M. Jackson's place near Pineville last week and played havoc with a number of hogs belonging to Mr. Jackson, of that village. They chewed, clawed and scratched the animals to such an extent that they inflicted permanent injuries upon them. They would probably have killed all of them if Albert Woolard, C. M. Jackson and others had not appeared on the scene and frightened away the disturbers with several rounds of No. 4 shot. Before running away, however, the bears made a charge on the men and for a moment there was considerable scuffling and climbing of trees. Finally the bears disappeared in the woods. One of the hogs has died and it is feared that some of the others may also keel over.

If the stock law would only fence the bears out, we wonder if it would be appreciated or not. Which is the worst, ticks, bears or politics?

A. E.
P. S.—We are informed that Constable B. T. Chauncey is on the trail of the fugitives.

ADVENTURES OF LOCAL TOURISTS

INTERESTING LETTERS RECEIVED FROM J. G. BRAGAW IN PRISCO.

SOLVES "MYSTERY"

Finds Package on Train, Over a Thousand Miles From Here, Bearing Label of Local Merchant.

"The adventures of Washington tourists to the Panama exposition should make interesting reading—if letters received from J. G. Bragaw Jr., are a fair example of the many interesting incidents that local residents are meeting with on their long trip.

Mr. Bragaw left here several weeks ago and his letters to relatives and friends here are replete with diverting and amusing accounts of his "adventures."
Somewhere west of Chicago, Mr. Bragaw happened to be walking through the cars of the train on which he was on, when he suddenly came across an empty seat, on which reposed a good-sized package. His eyes happened to catch the printing on the package. It read "Try J. K. Hoyt first: Washington's Greatest Store." For a minute or two Mr. Bragaw imagined that he had gotten on the wrong train and was bound for home again. He naturally was desirous of knowing how this package, evidently coming from a Washington merchant, had found its way on a train many hundreds of miles from home. He waited for a moment or two and then a lady came through the car and took the seat on which the package lay. Mr. Bragaw thought she looked rather familiar, but was unable to place her name in his mind. Finally he introduced himself to her in the hopes of explaining the mystery of the package. The lady was Mrs. C. N. Sheep, of this city, who was on her way to North Dakota to visit relatives.

Another letter, received by William Bragaw recently, stated that Mr. Bragaw had arrived safely in San Francisco. In describing the hotel in which he was staying, Mr. Bragaw went into minute details as to the splendor of the building. A part of his letter read as follows: "Everybody dresses for the dinner. The men all wear dress suits and the ladies, well, the ladies don't wear much of anything."

Mr. Bragaw states that he is enjoying the trip immensely and that the wonders of the exposition be little any description he might make of them.

TAKEN TO FARM

Prisoner Has Left for State Farm. Was Taken There Under Cover of Darkness.

Atlanta, June 22.—The sentence of Leo Frank was last night commuted to life imprisonment. Frank left for the State prison farm at Milledgeville at midnight.

He was accompanied on the train by the Sheriff and a strong posse of deputies. The departure from jail was kept secret in fear of rioting.

TRIBUTE TO MR. HAMBLIN.

(By a Friend)

On Wednesday, June 9th, at his home in Norfolk, the spirit of our friend, Abraham H. Hamblin, passed into the great beyond. He was aged 77 years.

He was well remembered here, as he taught in the Washington high school many years ago, and was a zealous worker in the church and the temperance cause. He married Miss Ruth Redding of our city. He was a faithful and useful member of the Park Avenue Presbyterian church in Norfolk and was strict and prayerful in all his religious duties.

The universal regard in which he was held was attested to by the concourse of friends who attended his funeral and the number of exquisite floral tributes. May the blessings of Him who doeth all things well rest upon the bereaved family.

Change Made In Elk Schedule

Train Will Leave Here at 4:25 Tomorrow Afternoon. Large Number Expected to Take Trip.

Members of the local B. P. O. E. lodge will leave here tomorrow for Charlotte and, judging from present indications, a good delegation will make the trip to the convention in order to lend force to their request that the next Elk convention be held in Washington.

The Washington lodge will leave here on a special pullman at 4:25 tomorrow afternoon, arriving at Charlotte early Thursday morning. This change in time is made in order that no part of the State meeting will be missed.

"It is the duty of every local Elk, who is possibly so, to attend the convention," said B. W. Taylor this morning. "It will prove a most enjoyable outing and in addition, Washington is going to make a strong fight for next year's convention. We want to show the Elks of the State that we mean business and WANT that convention. Whoop'er up boys and get the crowd together. Cooperation means success."

Since printing the above, we received the notice of the following change in schedule, which will be carried out instead of the one just mentioned.

Arrive Charlotte, 1:55 p. m. same day.

A meeting of the executive committee of the "Community Y. M. C. A." project was held yesterday afternoon at the court house. The proposition was again thoroughly discussed and with each discussion additional plans and methods of procedure are outlined. There appears to be no question now but that the matter will be carried through in Washington.

No definite action was taken at the meeting, it being deemed advisable to await the return of J. G. Bragaw to the city. Mr. Bragaw is at present in San Francisco. He has been appointed a member of the executive committee. In the meantime, it was decided to talk over the matter with all of the leading residents of the city in order to keep up interest in the proposition and obtain suggestions regarding the work.

Mr. Huntington met with the committee yesterday. He has returned to Charlotte.

Dr. Cadman Stirs Audience

Eloquent Lecture Given Last Night at the Local Chautauqu Entertainment.

Reverberant with galkambic eloquence and a hypophyllary omniscorporal depth of feeling, the microcosmical and percutaneous address, delivered at the Chautauqu last night by Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, proved a veritable petrography of lachrymoscopic technique.

All of which means that Dr. Cadman made a big hit with the audience last night in his lecture on "Modern Babylon." Take Henry Ward Beecher's practical knowledge of human nature, the eloquence of William Jennings Bryan and the force and wit of Billy Sunday, mix them all together, and you have Dr. Cadman. Although his lecture was an hour and a half in length, his audience never lost interest for a second. He has proven one of the best attractions of the Chautauqu so far.

Elmer Crawford Adams' performance on the violin was another feature of last night's program and for a time it looked as if Mr. Adams would have to remain on the platform for the rest of the evening, so vociferous was the applause which rewarded his every selection. Miss Maguire's singing was also well received. The evening's program was an exceptionally good one.

WORK HARD FOR A LOCAL BALL CLUB

FLEMING PARK HAS BEEN PLOUGHED UP AND PUT IN SHAPE. TO RAISE FUNDS

Lumber is Promised for Grandstand. Baseball Equipment Has Already Been Ordered.

From present indications it appears that Washington is going to have a baseball team after all. The diamond at Fleming Park has been ploughed up and a number of loads of clay have been unloaded on the field and will be rolled down, putting the field in better condition than it has ever been in. Cheat protector, gloves, bats and balls and other paraphernalia have been ordered and are expected to arrive in a short time. The Eureka, Moss and Kugler mills are reported as having expressed their willingness to contribute lumber for the construction of the grandstand. It is also believed that the Beaufort County Storage and Warehouse Co. will allow the use of some of the clay on their property for additional improvement on the field.

A petition will be circulated among the merchants of the city within the next few days in order that funds may be raised for the building of the grandstand. It is expected that the contributions will be liberal, as most of the merchants have expressed themselves as being heartily in favor of local baseball. Challenges have been received from Ayden, Plymouth and other cities. Games will be scheduled just as soon as the field is in playing condition.

Oscar Brothers and John Hamilton left this morning on a visit to Norfolk.

Establish Home For Friendless

Local American Rescue Workers to Assist Strangers and Others in Need of Help.

The local representatives of the American Rescue Workers are endeavoring to establish a home in Washington for strangers and persons who are financially unable to secure lodging. They have issued urgent requests that the citizens of Washington cooperate with them and lend their assistance by donating clothing, old furniture and whatever contributions they are able to make.

"It will aid us in sheltering some homeless boy or girl," said Captain J. B. Gossett this morning, "and it is our aim to care for the friendless. No one knows when some of their boys and girls may need assistance and we hope that the residents of Washington will be generous with their aid."

A postal card, addressed to Captain Gossett in this city, will be appreciated. Any articles that the citizens of Washington may care to give, will be called for.

New Facts About Cancer.
A study of 1,000 cases of cancer of the stomach reveals the fact that this disease claims more men than women as its victims and that it occurs most frequently between the ages of forty and sixty years. Ulcer of the stomach, on the other hand, appears most frequently between the ages of twenty and forty years. In over 90 per cent of the cases of cancer heredity seemed to play no part whatever.

ADVANCE OF TEUTONS GOES ON

AUSTRO-GERMAN FORCES ARE CLOSING IN ON LEMBERG. EMPEROR WILLIAM IS CONDUCTING THE CAMPAIGN.

THE FRENCH GAIN

Unusual Violence Going On. Turkish Forces Have Taken Offensive. Petrograd Admits Losses.

London, June 22.—Austro-German forces are closing in on Lemberg, capital of Galicia. The German war office today announced the capture of Rawa Ruska, thirty-two miles northwest of the city. Emperor William is at the eastern front directing the campaign, which his generals believe is near a successful conclusion.

French Are Successful.
Further French successes in Northwestern France north of Arras, as well as in Lorraine and in the Vosges were reported today by the Paris war office. In Lorraine the capture of the German first line positions for a distance of nearly a mile is claimed. The fighting was of unusual violence.

Turks Take Offensive.
The Turkish force on Gallipoli peninsula took the offensive yesterday and an official announcement from Constantinople says heavy losses were inflicted on the Franco-British left wing. The allies were compelled to change their position and later a bombardment against the new lines silenced the allied artillery.

Victory is Reported.
Berlin and Vienna record a series of successes still unbroken in the Galician campaign. The latest report from Austrian headquarters announces a "new and complete victory." The Russians, however, still are fighting obstinately on the line of the Weresgra river in the region of Grodek, a short distance west of Lemberg.

Petrograd Admits Losses.
Petrograd admits the Austro-German forces have made a further advance in the Dnieper district, and north of Lemberg. The Teutonic allies are closing in and seriously threatening Russian possession of the city.

The French and British are endeavoring on a continuous offensive in the Flanders and Arras districts of Northern France, in Lorraine and in the Vosges, with varying fortunes. On the Italian front bad weather is interfering with operations.
