stating that he would do on a cartain date. Unlike Laugley, however, white kept his wors.

It is stated that he dret hinted at his death in April, when he claimed to have seen a vision in which he saw hinself being drawa aloft in a golden chairlot. A week or two atterwards, he announced that he dould die in July. Since then he has had a number of visions and about a month ago he notified his friends that he would pass away during the middle of this month, or thereshoults. About a week ago he named the grass beyond at soos.

White, as did Langley, did considerable preaching between the time of his feath. Gefte a number of his colored brethren were on hand yesterday to see him dapart from that a colden the seam has caused a deep impression upon their minds and there is considerable hervottness in that a scilin til present.

White was close to seventy years of age and in rather feeble condition. Old myo is what was probably the natural cause of his death.
