WASHINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, JULY 26, 1915.

Colonel Roosevelt says: "Recently in certain circles, some popularity has been achieved by a song, 'I didn't raise my boy to be a soldier,'—a song which ought always to be sung with a companion piece, entitled, 'I didn't raise my girl to be a mother.'"

MANY OPINIONS REGARDING NOTE.

Many views will be taken by the public upon the note that has been sent to Germany. Some will declare it too indefinite, other will give it decided approval and there are some who will insist that the note means nothing—that it is merely a reiteration of the former note sent by this country and that it but opens channels for further debate and discussion.

One of our prominent local men, in discussing the note this morning, said that Mr. Wilson and his cabinet reminded him of a mother who has a rather mischievous boy.

At any rate, the United States has taken several steps further in the demands it makes on Germany. It refuses to consider the suggestions that Germany makes regarding traffic on the seas, it insists that Germany protect the rights of neutrals and it announces that further violations of the international law will be taken as "deliberately unfriendly."

Judging from the fact that the editor of the Greenville Reflecter seems to have been highly offended by one of the sermons recently delivered in New Bern by Rev. J. W. Ham and which appeared in the Journal, he must be paying particular attention to the discourses of the evangelist and we sincerely trust that they will do him good.

THE MEXICAN MUDDLE.

Affairs in Mexico are showing little improvement, in fact they seem to be steadily growing worse. None of the leaders of the various factions appear to have the slightest intention of putting an end to the warfare that is going on.

While the majority of the people in the United States would like to see this country plunged into the European war, there are many who would like to see Uncle Sam take his army across the border and pound some sense into the people down there.

President Wilson has received a report of conditions as the really are in the country across the Rio Grande. He has not yet indicated what action he was contemplating as a result of failure of the rival factions to get together for a peace conference which suggestion was made about two months ago.

Mexico has clearly shown her ability to govern herself. It looks as if the United States would have to do the "Big Brother" act.

With the Washington team scheduled for several games this week war talk will probably be pushed into the background.

So many notes have passed between this country and Germany that the majority of the people have forgotten the issue which caused the sending of the first note.

In spite of her experience on the last voyage, the Orifuna last week left New York for England with 100 automobiles, 60 cases of aeroplanes, 3,800 cases of cartridges, 986 cases of empty shells, 409 cases of infantry ammunition and other war supplies.

Talk about nerve! That is certainly a fine exhibition of it.

Only a little over two weeks in which to sign for the Chautauque tickets. Even if your taste isn't in line with the brand of entertainment that is provided, you should at least give the wife and children some thought and allow them the advantage of seeing a high class and instructive form of amusement.

SH MCKENZIE A SEN?

If not, it's wicked to neglect illness and means of relief. It's wicked to endure Liver Ills, Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, when one dose of Pe-Do-Lax gives relief.

Pass Up 5,000 Pennies. New York.—After five thousand pennies in a canvas bag had been ignored for half an hour by passersby, Joseph Poirles, fifteen, picked it from the sidewalk in the busiest section of Brooklyn.

Taste in Meter. New York.—Seeking a separation and $50 a week alimony from her third husband, Mrs. Philip Davis testified that he rode around in taxicabs and watched the taximeter climb while she had to plead to keep the gas meter running.

THE STIEFF Tone A Quality Tone

From every standpoint of tonal values the Stieff tone is a quality tone. Throughout the entire range of the instrument there is an evenness, a velvety smoothness that speaks the work of a master hand. Stieff tone is a rare combination of unlimited volume and sympathetic singing quality. Stieff is evidenced the imagination to conceive and the skill to produce an instrument of extraordinary quality.
