Baptist church of this city, brought out several excellent thoughts. In his remarks, Mr. Gay spoke of some of the peculiar disadvantages under which the negro race in this country is laboring today. He asserted that the progress of the negro was largely due to his religious zeal and his simple faith in the Almighty God. He counseled patience on the part of both negroes and whites; each lending to the other every possimple faith in the Almighty sible aid and stated that whatever hindered the progress of one race, did the same for the other. Many other interesting ideas were brought out to the course of his remarks, among them being a prayer of thanks that the South of this country afforded a house to the negro instead of to the Dr. Osken also pointed out how anarchistic races of certain parts of the parents have the first opportun-

Bridgeton Man Meets Many Misfortunes

Two Children Die; Wife Passe Away and Store and Goods Are Destroyed in a Week's Time.

New Bern, N. C., Aug. 5 .- S. D. Perker, a well known citizen of A. C. L. Train Crashes Into Automo-Bridgeton, can vouch for the assertion that misfortunes never comsingly and in Mr. Parker's case they came in a regular calvacade. Las Friday his wife presented him with twins. On Monday afternoon one of the little ones breathed its last and was buried. On Tuesday afternoon the second child died. On Tuesday night Mr. Parker's millinery and dry store store at Bridgeton was totally destroyed by fire and the owner carried not a penny of insurance on it. Yesterday after noon his wife, who had never recov-ered from the ordeal of giving birth to the two children passed away. The funeral service over the fe-mains of Mrs. Parker will be con ducted from the Methadist church at Bridgeton this morning at 10 o'-clock by Rev. W. A. Cade and the interment will be made in Cedar Grove cometery, this city.
