Becomes Lawyer at Sixty-Six. Jefferson City, Mo.—Among the 99 St. Louisans who successfully passed the law examinations was Charles Augustus Vallette, who began the study of law when about thirty years old. Vallette said he took up law as a profession after losing nearly $50,000 in business in a few years. He was graduated from a St. Louis law school. He said he would actively enter the practice.

THOUSANDS VACCINATED

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 1.—The fourth week of the second anti-typhoid State and county campaign reports 22,284 as the total number of persons in the five counties taking the vaccine treatment. Halifax is still leading with a number of 7,738 with Iredell following with 6,834. Next in line is Wilson with 5,601 followed by Edgecombe, 2,118 and Wayne 2,095.

It is gratifying that the interest in this line of public health work is not waning though summer with its hot weather and flies, the season when infection is considered greatest, has almost counted the sands.

What may be termed the third State and county anti-typhoid campaign is ready to start in Warren and Craven counties. September 13 will launch the movement in these counties in full force and order.

It is expected that the end of next week will show a total number of complete immunizations or three treatments for the second campaign amounting to near 25,000. Lee county's total of three complete treatments will be included in this number.

ENGLAND WON'T ACCEPT PEACE

London, Sept. 1.—Despite the alleged German "peace feelers," the United Press is able to state on the highest authority that the peace situation, so far as England is concerned, is unchanged. Some Socialists favor ending the war.

Neither official circles nor the general public are inclined to accept peace at this time, honorable or otherwise. England is determined to drive the Germans out of France and Belgium.

GERMANS NEAR ANOTHER FORT

Haveln, Sept. 1.—Military supplies are being withdrawn from the Fort of Grodno, German aviators have reported. Actual occupation by the Russians is expected soon. The Russians are preparing to retreat to the Lida Highway. The Germans are on the southwest of the fortress and within a few miles of the adarowka. On the north the Germans are within striking distance of the railway from Grodno north to Vilna.

Vilna is less than a day's march from the German lines.

Magnetic Mountains. The mountains of Porto Rico are magnetic, that they attract survivors. A bomb threw and it has been found the same old survivors and innocent.

HAD MUCH LOVE BUT NO MONEY

Shelby, Sept. 1.—A loving couple walked into Shelby Sunday afternoon on matrimony intent. They, burdened with a load of love, wished to walk together in double harness, but the groom-to-be had only $1.18 cash. Much love and a little money were not sufficient for a $3 marriage fee and 10-cent revenue stamp, so George Moore and J. M. Elliott took up a collection to help the good cause along. They secured the amount for the license leaving the groom to pay his all to the squire Mr. T. K. Barnett. So, W. M. Harrier, aged 28, and Mrs. Sarah Doole Miller with four children, were united on the court house portico in the presence of 75 spectators. After the ceremony the couple departed for Beam's Mill.

MERRY DOGS OF WAR

Tale of "Ugly," Scarred Hero of a Hundred Battles.

Wine Fame and Corporal's Stripes With the British Troops in North-France—A Challenge and What Came of It. By GEORGE MUFRESNE.

International News Service Correspondent Paris.—In the early days of this war, Ugly scrambled ashore in northern France a stowaway on one of the channel packets. He was a khaki-tinted cur of the most disreputable appearance. Nobody's dog; but with a soul so tuned to the doings of soldiers that as soon as he discovered that the great game was going on, he swore to be in it and of it. He was a natural fighter, scared and scarred with a hundred battles.

So they attached him here to B. X., which means any sort of job that's going at the base—"B"—standing for base, and "X" being the recognized algebraic symbol signifying an unknown quantity. He was signed on the A. S. C. (Pickford's Light Horse) to deal with the rats which ravage the bales down by the docks. Like the minister of munitions he was given a free hand with his subject, and so successful was he with these gray-jacketed rascals that he soon received a corporal's stripes, double rations (he dearly loves jam), and the offer, after another singularly successful raid among the rodents, of a commission. This last he refused declaring that he would never leave the ranks.

Ugly's prowess was noted abroad. It reached the fighting line. G. H. Q. heard of it, so that presently a dusty M. T. driver, pulling up his car amid the shell-strewn debris of the dock, handed a packet to the young officer in charge, demanding a speedy answer. The communication read as follows:

One-out 5th, Battersea Rise, Tuesday. We always congratulated ourselves here in having the ugliest dog and the fiercest fighter in Flanders. We hereby challenge Corporal Ugly, A. S. C., to meet Sergeant Smiler, G. H. Q., to fight at 25 rounds, catch-as-catch-can, at any handy spot within or without the meaning of the act. Stakes—five pounds a side, money down.

Inquiries were immediately made as to the standing, skill and fighting weight of Sergeant Smiler, and those being considered satisfactory, the challenge was accepted, and Ugly was put into strict training, much to his disgust.

A heavy book was made on the forthcoming combat, and when the tense evening of the meeting of these growing Greeks arrived, the arena was packed with an eager, brown-faced crowd, all a-troth with the sweet pleasures of anticipation. Sergeant Smiler arrived, due to time, in a carefully corded biscuit box.

Ugly was already in possession of the floor, striding up and down in the fierce pride of ownership, and snarling a challenge to the whole category of Crofts.

The box was dragged into the ring, the cords unloosed, the lid raised, the cage tipped at the necessary angle by a brave Tommy, who leaped back over the parapet as with a roar the incarcerated thunderstorm buried himself into the lists.

Alert, savage and with his back hair bristling, Ugly crouched for the spring—crouched, and then sat down hard in absolute amazement; for there in front of him was his exact, his complete double in size and shape and color. Sergeant Smiler also crouched and sat down suddenly, as if frozen to the floor. In the silence which follows, the breathing of the two dogs could be heard—jerky, like the spurts of a southwest squall at sea.

Then, with a glad gurgle of canine melody, the two animals flung themselves into one another's arms in a brotherly caress, in which yaps of joy were mingled with yelps of reminiscence, almost tear compelling to the sentimental soldiers gathered around. For none could fail to read the riddle.

Corporal Ugly and Sergeant Smiler were twins, and this was their first meeting since puppyhood. Truth is sometimes stranger than fiction. This is a true tale, and the British army is still laughing over it. A good chuckle now and again is a tonic.

LIGHTNING SETS FIRE TO HOUSES

(By Eastern Press) Kinston, Sept. 1.—A packhouse, barn and stables, two mules and a horse and large quantities of corn, tobacco and hay were burned on the farm of W. C. Dupree, a short distance west of the city Monday night during a hard electrical storm. Lightning started the blaze. The fire had gained considerable headway before Mr. Dupree and his family, who were in their home, discovered it. Neighbors and people from the city assisted in efforts to extinguish it, without avail.

The damage, including animals, buildings and produce, was fully $4,000, with $800 insurance. The fire burned out shortly after 11 o'clock. The mules and horse cremated were of considerable value.

EGYPT HAS A 10 P. M. "LID"

Drink Dispensaries, Theaters and Cafes Forced to Close Early by New Rule.

Cairo.—Early closing is the rule in Egypt, and follows the prohibition of the sale of alcohol. In Cairo, Alexandria, the canal, Suez and elsewhere within a radius of five miles of any military camp the sale of alcoholic liquors of any sort is stopped at ten o'clock at night and is not allowed to begin until the following morning. Ten o'clock closing is also compulsory in these districts for all cafes, restaurants and theaters. The early closing, combined with the half lighting of the streets, which is purely a measure of economy, has given rise to the belief among the natives that Zeppelins are stationed in Syria and intend to raid Egypt.
