JAMES L. MAYO Proprietor. GARE GOERCH Editor.

WASHINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, SEPT. 2, 1915.

Two years ago tonight—but that's enough. Let's hope it won't happen again.

With "September morn" and "Oysters" yesterday, the paragraphs were well supplied with material for many witty sallies.

"Watches will be worn on the ankles this fall."—Fashion note. We suppose that when a man asks a lady the time of day, the proper answer for the lady to do is to kick him in the face.

When it comes to holding the record for being "the meanest man in the world," no one holds anything on the Arkansas father, who used to give his kids a nickel apiece to go to bed without their supper.

PERSONS-PEOPLE: CONTINUAL-CONTINUOUS.

One of our exchanges—the Charlotte Observer, we believe—carried an editorial a few days ago on the use of "who" and "whom," giving instances in which these pronouns were used incorrectly.

"There were 250 people present." "He was interrupted continuously."

"People," means a class, as "the people of Asia," "the people of this section." "Persons" means a number of individuals.

"Continually" implies a close or unceasing succession or recurrence; "Continuous," an uninterrupted continuity or union of objects or parts.

These may appear to be small things, but they are certainly important. One of the college professors at Columbia University used to say that all he needed, in order to gain a knowledge of a man's bringing up and his character, was to see that man eat and to hear him talk.

ADVERTISE BEAUFORT COUNTY AT THE FAIR.

It is sincerely hoped that Beaufort county will have a county exhibit at the fair this fall. We could find no better way in which to advertise our resources than by displaying them before the eyes of the many thousands who will be in Raleigh during the week of the fair.

In addition to the above, there are hundreds of prizes for the best individual crops—ears of corn, potatoes, tobacco, cotton, etc.

Not only should the county be represented at the fair by one large exhibit, but every farmer in the county should endeavor to have an exhibit at the fair.

WAKING UP THE TOWN.

One reason why Washington is sometimes referred to as being slow is due to the fact that we do not have enough attractions here to arouse community interest.

Almost daily, one reads in other papers published throughout the State of preparations that are being made for a county fair; for a "home-coming week" for a big county picnic; for church revivals and many other attractions.

It is to be regretted that occasions of this nature cannot be held in Washington. The county school commencement, which was held here last year, proved a grand success.

BRICKBATS AND BOUQUETS.

The Tar Project. The Washington News gives the opinion that the reason a greater interest is not taken by the business men and chambers of commerce throughout this section in the Deerpree lock idea for Tar river is because there is a lack of general understanding as to what it will mean for this section.

'Tis True. The Washington News, commenting on our remarks in regard to the Northern editors throwing off on the South when they are living, figuratively speaking, in glass houses, is responsible for the assertion that the reason a crime in the South causes such a sensation is that it is usually an oddity and, naturally, attracts attention.

MANY COMPLAINTS HEARD. This summer seems to have produced an unusual amount of sickness. Many complain of headaches, lame backs, rheumatism, biliousness and being "always tired." Aches, pains and ills caused by the kidneys failing to do their work and throw the poisonous waste from the system yield quickly to Foley Kidney Pills.

FINDS WILL IN HIS SLIPPER

Grandchild Discovers Much-Sough Document of Michigan Man Quite by Accident. Hudsonville, Mich.—When Thomas H. Sestel, pioneer resident of Filmore township, died on May 30 there began a search for a will disposing of his estate, which is valued at upward of $50,000.

E. G. HUDSON'S STATEMENT.

E. G. Hudson, Chamblee, Ga., writes: "Last year I bought and tried Foley Cathartic Tablets. I have tried many cathartics, but for a thorough cleansing movement of the bowels without the slightest inconvenience or sickening, I believe the Foley Cathartic Tablet the best on earth. It's a perfect cathartic, with no bad effects."

Magnetic Mountains.

The mountains of Porto Rico are magnetic; that they attract survivors' plumb lines and it has been found that some old surveys are incorrect at half a mile or more.

You Need a Tonic

There are times in every woman's life when she needs a tonic to help her over the hard places. When that time comes to you, you know what tonic to take—Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is composed of purely vegetable ingredients, which act gently, yet surely, on the weakened womanly organs, and helps build them back to strength and health.

GARDUI The Woman's Tonic. Miss Amelia Wilson, R. F. D. No. 4, Alma, Ark., says: "I think Cardui is the greatest medicine on earth, for women. Before I began to take Cardui, I was so weak and nervous, and had such awful dizzy spells and a poor appetite. Now I feel as well and as strong as I ever did, and can eat most anything."

OUR PUBLIC FORUM

Hon. Elihu Root On Woman's Sphere

The question of Woman Suffrage is an issue before the American people. Twelve states have adopted it, four more states vote upon it this fall and it is strongly urged that it become a national issue at the national political convention. It is the duty of every citizen to study carefully the subject. Every woman in the State should be present at the national convention of New York, recently held in part: "I am opposed to the granting of suffrage to women because I believe that it would be a loss to women, to all women, and to every woman; and because I believe it would be an injury to the State, and to every State, and to every woman in the State."

BERLIN PAPER PRAISES WILSON. Berlin, Sept. 2, via London.—The National Zeitung publishes today a leading article under the heading, "Wilson, Bryan and Roosevelt," which is noteworthy for its friendly tone and for the ungrudging admiration expressed for President Wilson.
