(By Eastern Prass)

Kinston, Sept. 11.—Aretus Worley, a prominent resident of Pink
Hill, has had a peace warrant served upon him on the complaint of one Anthony Davis, who also resides in that section. The reason for serving the warrant is an exceedingly musual one and has caused much amusement to the local officials.

Davis claims that Worley "congured" him. According to his accounts Worley met him near Pink Hill several days ago and they stopped and talked together Worley would secrete themselves in some tends of the secretary of the practice of the second of the secretary of the practice of the second of the
