HERE IS GOOD NEWS FOR STOMACH VICTIMS

Some very remarkable results are being obtained by treating stomach, liver and intestinal troubles with pure vegetable oils, which exert a cleansing, soothing and purifying action upon the lower bowels, removing the obstructions of poisonous fecal matter and gases and preventing their absorption by the blood. This done, the food is allowed free passage from the stomach, fermentation ceases and stomach troubles quickly disappear.

Geo. H. Mayr for 20 years a leading Chicago druggist, cured himself and many of his friends, of stomach liver and intestinal troubles of years standing by this treatment, and so successful was the remedy he developed that it has since been placed in the hands of druggists all over the country, who have sold thousands of bottles.

Though absolutely harmless, the effect of the medicine is sufficient to convince any one of its remarkable effectiveness, and within 24 hours the sufferer feels like a new person.
Mayr's Wonderful Remedy is sold by druggists everywhere with the

THE COLDS OF MANKIND CURED BY PINES!

Have you ever gone through a typical pine forest when you had a cold? What a vigorous impulse it sent! How you opened wide your lungs to take in those invigorating and mysterious qualities. Yes, Dr.
Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey possesses those stimulating qualities and overcomes hacking coughs. The inner lining of the throat is strengthened in its attack against cold germs.
Every family needs a bottle constantly at hand. 25c.

Every day when the members of the Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus finish breakfast they begin active preparations for the parade. Well-fed horses and ponies in shining harness and waving plumes take their places before glittering parade chariots; the sound of music is heard from bands perched hazardously high; clowns, charloters, jockeys, Roman hippodrome riders, camels from the great desert with native riders and ponderous elephants, some bearing a weight of feminine beauty in Oriental costume, make appearance in a picturesque, kaleidoscopic pageant more than three miles long.

A man on horseback in a deep voice cries the oft-repeated warning:
"Look out for your horses; the elephants are coming." Behind him a bevy of pretty women buglers trumpet their clarion-voiced instruments, and then Jeanne d'Arc, in polished armor with clanking curtains of chain-mail. The flush of tan has tinted her ears and cheeks.
She is a young woman, adopted by a wealthy aunt in New Haven, Conn., who sent her to Europe to keep her from entering circus life. Her sudden return and her romantic marriage with a clown caused daily papers all over the country to devote considerable space to the incident.

Through densely crowded streets the pageant measures its gaudy passage. The husky youth who sits high up on a wagon representing the German empire, and he himself the Kaiser, is in reality only a candy butcher. With his royal helmet of shining brass and his purple and gold jacket he impersonates the mighty man who rules over a great domain. In the afternoon his regal attire will give way to a white jacket, and he will stop being king long enough to peddle lemonade and peanuts. Cage after cage and wagon after wagon filled with rare and costly animals pass in a fantastic
