MACHINERY IS ASSEMBLED FOR MATTAMUSKEET

Cost Over $100,000 and is Now in Norfolk. Will Be Taken to the Lake Through Inland Waterway.

Machinery is now being assembled at Norfolk preparatory to taking it to Lake Mattamuskeet, where it will be used in connection with the big reclamation project. Hastings Bros. will take this machinery amounting to about $100,000 worth down through the inland waterway.

A peculiar feature about this land development scheme is that a tremendous amount of water will have to be pumped and kept out, as the lake is below sea level. There will be eight pumps, each six feet in diameter, used in the work, and they will be kept in readiness for use at any time after the water has once been removed. It is claimed that not only a large amount of the lake bottom will be made available for cultivation, but also a great deal of the surrounding land which is now unfit for use.

NERVY BURGLARS HAVE PARTY

Entered Home, Stole a Pistol, and After Occupants Had Gone to Bed, Came Back and Drank Wine.

Talk about nerve! No one ever had anything on the robber or robbers who entered the home of Mrs. H. R. Bright on East Main street Saturday night.

Between six and eight o'clock that evening some one entered the Bright home while the residents were away and stole a pearl-handled revolver out of one of the rooms. Upon returning home, Mrs. Bright searched through the house, but was unable to locate it. She retired for the night and Sunday morning she saw further evidence of burglars having been in her home the night before. A couple of wine glasses were found on a table and the strong aroma indicated that some of the beverage had been spilled on the table or floor. Mrs. Bright is positive that the glasses were not on the table when she made her search after missing the revolver.

It is believed that the burglar or burglars returned to the house after Mrs. Bright had retired, opened the bottle of wine and had a nice sociable little party all by themselves.

EDISON HEARS BY "WIRELESS." GET READY FOR WEDDING.

Telegraphic Taps on Knee and Wrist Enabled Him to "Hear" at Meeting.

West Orange, N. J., Oct. 12.—Thos. A. Edison, chairman of the new naval advisory board told friends today how, despite his deafness he was able to preside over the board's meetings in Washington last week, without embarrassment.

Mr. Edison explained that it was due to a little wireless telegraph system in which Dr. Miller Rezac Hutchison, chief engineer of the Edison laboratories, was the operator. Dr. Hutchison and Mr. Edison are both experienced in the use of the Morse code and during the sessions of the board, Dr. Hutchison sat beside Mr. Edison and with his fingers flicked off the substance of the discussions, sometimes upon Mr. Edison's knee and at other times on his wrist, at the rate of thirty words a minute.

LOCAL STORES ARE ALL DOING A BIG BUSINESS

"DRESS UP WEEK" CAUSES INCREASE IN TRADE IN VARIOUS STORES OF CITY.

ARE ADVERTISING

Progressive Merchants of the City Are Displaying Many Exceptional Bargains During the "Dress-Better" Campaign This Week.

Do you know of anybody so lacking in even a faint suspicion of taste and a love for the beautiful that he or she has never given a slight twist of the neck to cast a fleeting glance after a well and daintily dressed woman? Isn't it difficult to utilize all the fingers on a single hand in keeping tally upon those you have known to be so utterly void of the beauties of life? Have you ever failed yourself to note with pleasure and admiration, passing along the streets of Washington, or any other city, a woman whose garments, whose shoes, hat, gloves, and everything about her appearance give evidence of discerning taste and careful selection in the choice of her apparel?

Well, perhaps you may have been so thoughtless and unobserving, on occasions but it's a safe bet that your mind and thoughts were far away from that vicinity when the dainty person passed you by, and you were sorry you missed when your attention was called to the fact. And we, the contrary, but we surely noticed the countless heads that turn successfully, as the young lady makes her triumphant way up the street. Why is it? She doesn't have to be pretty. It's the general effect of the clothes she has upon her back and the manner in which she wears them, that compels a second glance from the eyes of observing men and women. Nothing is so beautiful, so attractive, so pleasing to the eye as a well dressed woman. And the next thing to it is a well groomed man.

DRESS UP WEEK started yesterday and will continue all through the week. The DRESS UP crusade was started in Washington with the lowly males as prospective converts to the cause of cleanliness, neatness, tidiness, and fashion. But the idea was such good one, the object so worthy, and the results so beneficial, that the spirit has spread among all the merchants of Washington and has found strong support in the ranks of both sexes.

It is just as necessary, just as essential to the woman as to the man that she should put up her best appearance at all times. There is just one difference. Most women know this, realize it. It is in their make up while man, though he does know it to be true, is often careless and neglectful. But the merchants of Washington have left nothing undone to carry the campaign for better dress into every nook and corner of the town and to every citizen, male and female.

The milliners, the dealers in feminine apparel, as well as male clothiers and furnishers have united to get the people of Washington into the spirit of looking their best at all times. If you wish to succeed, if you wish to please your friends, if you wish to please yourself, see the merchants of Washington, get into their way of thinking, get the habit, and begin, this week, to DRESS UP.
