JAMES L. MAYO Proprietor.
CARL GOERCH Editor.

WASHINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, OCT. 15, 1915.

Tonight's the night when all Washington will turn into kids. The big circus is here and,—well, "it looks to us like a big night tonight."

Watch for the paragraph who will connect the coming marriage of President Wilson with the announcement of the position in reference to woman suffrage.—Wilson Times. Watch for him? Why, man, he's passed that subject long ago. Wake up!

To the paragraphs: Trout out the names of flowers you would see adopted as the State flower of North Carolina. We may change our mind, but right now we would cast our ballot for the peach blossoms.—News and Observer. Peach blossoms are good enough, but judging from recent events and events to come in the near future, all we can see at the present time is Orange Blossoms.

SOME FREE "BOOSTING."

One of the prominent business men of the city yesterday afternoon gently chided us for the amount of space we were giving to notices of civic improvements in the other towns in this section of the State. He remarked that he had noticed numerous articles recently, coming from Kinston, Greenville, New Bern and other cities, which were a decided "boost" for those municipalities. He inquired our reason for publishing these articles and we told him.

Every item of the nature referred to above, should be an incentive for greater improvement in Washington. When we read of Kinston's paving project, Craven county's good road work and similar activities in Pitt county, we should compare the work that these cities and counties are doing with what we are accomplishing here. There is no use in building a wall around Washington and shutting out the outside world. We must keep in touch with the progress of these other cities. We must do our share in development and progressiveness. We cannot rest satisfied on our past accomplishments. A city must either go backwards or forwards—it cannot stand still.

The articles mentioned evidently caused dissatisfaction on the part of the merchant who mentioned them to us. That was our intention in publishing them, and if we have caused dissatisfaction, we are repaid for our work. We want the people of Washington to be dissatisfied with our present conditions. We ought never to be content with what we have done, but should continue to strive still further onward. We have achieved great things;— we have the best electric light and water plant in the State; we are installing a new sewer system and we have done a number of other things; but there is still much to be done, and if we want to keep up with the pace set by the other cities, we must be dissatisfied and work hard in making Washington the big city that it is going to become, if everyone does his share.

Incidentally, we might remark that we receive value for value in all the news items that we publish concerning the cities the merchant mentioned. Probably not many of our residents read the New Bern, Kinston and Greenville papers, but if they did, they would see just as many items about Washington in those papers as they read in the Daily News about the others.

PEACE IN MEXICO.

The announcement of this country's recognition of Carranza is playing an important part in bringing about peace in Mexico. Latest reports from across the Rio Grande are to the effect that Villa is making a last desperate stand and that he cannot hold out long against the larger armies of Carranza.

When it became known in Mexico that the United States had recognized Carranza, a change of sentiment at once became evident. Many of Villa's most ardent supporters immediately turned their allegiance over to Carranza and are now assisting him in bringing about their former chieftain's downfall. Several of Villa's armies have deserted his cause and have joined the forces of Carranza. It seems only a matter of a short period of time before Villa will be forced to surrender.

On the whole, the outlook for peace is brighter in Mexico at present than at any time during the last two years. The country is heartily sick of the ruinous war and the people are anxious to see it over with.

The Raleigh Times appears to be of the impression that the only persons who are entitled to get into the "Hall of Fame" at the New York University are the ones whose names are known to everyone and who are prominent in the lines of work they have taken up. There are more persons, however, not known outside of their own communities, who are entitled to a niche in the Hall of Fame, than there are men and women whose names are as household words in every home.

ADVERTISEMENTS IN THE DAILY NEWS GIVE RESULTS

News editorial column. 'S 'Nuff! We refuse to read any further. We agree with everything you say.

KEEN BUSINESS COMPETITION.

During the last week or so, we have been literally crowded with advertising. Many business men, who advertise rarely, if ever, have inserted their advertisements in the Daily News and all of them are more than pleased with results.

Business in Washington at the present time is keener than it ever has been in the past. Every merchant is doing all he can to out-distance his competitor in the amount of his sales. Advertising is an important factor and the progressive merchants of Washington are realizing this. The advertisements you see in the Daily News are those of men who use good business judgment, who make a bid for your trade, who are progressive and wide-awake.

To Those Whom It May Concern:

We wish to state that our sales for the past week have exceeded those of any previous one in price. Good quality tobaccos are selling extremely high, and we can promise you market value if you will bring us in a load of your good tobacco, no matter how large or how small, sometime during the coming week. We beg you not to listen to mere hearsay which drift about through the country like so many particles of dust, and which is absolutely untrue; on the contrary, our efforts are bent in the direction of having you come and see and become convinced for yourself. Everyone who visits us, speaks highly of our house, and of the hard and diligent teamwork displayed by Messrs. SHELburne AND BAUGHAM, the one digging and the other pulling.

Next week we expect an advance in prices over this week. We have had no kicks, and with tobacco selling higher next week, we know we can please you. Below we give from our books some of the prices made on fair grades of tobacco during the past two days:

W. T. Bennett—$13.75, $16.50, $20.00 and $22.50.
J. H. Woodard—$13.75, $17.00, $19.50, $20.00 and $25.00.
C. T. Allgood—$14.25, $15.00, $18.50, $19.50, $20 and $21.
E. V. Green—$9.00, $15.00, $17.00, $30.00, $32.50, $45.00.
T. C. Davenport—$12.75, $14.25, $18.00, $22.00 and $27.00.
W. H. Whitley—$14.00, $18.00 and $26.00.
Scott Leggett—$9.75, $10, $14, $14.25, $17, $18, $21.50.
H. P. Cox—$13.00, $14.00, $16.00, $18.50, $30.00 and $33.00.
J. C. Bayner—$12.50, $15.00, $21.50 and $26.00.
Harmon Roberson—$15.50, $18.00, $19.00, $21.00 and $25.00.
J. E. Mizell—$11.25, $14.50, $19.50 and $25.00.

Don't bring in a load of poor tobacco expecting high prices for it. Deal us as good a hand as you deal the other fellow, and let us show you that we can equal him, and in most cases beat him.

We are two blocks away from the A. C. L. depot, in the heart of town. Our accommodations are the best, and you are always welcome to our house. When you come to town, leave your team in our box stall stables. It will not cost you a cent.

Yours in high prices,
