HOLD SPECIAL MEETING OF THE C. OF COMMERCE

WILL MAKE FINAL ARRANGEMENTS FOR WEDNESDAY NIGHT'S "SMOKER."

DISCUSS PLANS

Attendance of Every Member of the Chamber is Earnestly Requested Meeting Will Start Promptly at Eight O'Clock.

Every member of the Chamber of Commerce is earnestly requested to be present at a special meeting that is to be held in the rooms of the Chamber tonight, beginning at eight o'clock.

The principal object for calling the meeting is to make final arrangements for the "smoker" that is to be held Wednesday night. There are a number of things still to be attended to in connection with this meeting, and for this reason, the attendance of every member is desired.

It is believed that Wednesday night's meeting will result in the most important work that the Chamber of Commerce has ever taken up. It will, however, take the cooperation and earnest work of every member to make it a success.

58 PRESENT AT BARACA CLASS

Yesterday's Meeting Was One of the Most Successful That the Class Has Ever Held.

Fifty-eight members of the Baraca class at the Methodist church were present at the meeting of the class yesterday morning. Eight new members were added to the roll. Great interest was displayed in the lesson, which was conducted by the class teacher, W. M. Kear. The meeting was one of the most successful and best attended that has ever been held.

A business meeting of the class will be held in the Baraca rooms on Friday night. It is hoped that as many members as can possibly do so will be present. There are several important matters to be brought up.

HAVE BOOKED ATTRACTIONS FOR BIG FAIR

MANY FEATURES OF AMUSEMENT AT AURORA FAIR, NOV. 9, 10 AND 11.

A BIG EVENT

Fair Association Announces Some of the Attractions Which They Have Secured. Will Book Many Other Amusement Features.

For those who desire pleasure and amusement at a fair, the Aurora Fair Association announces that they have made provisions for a number of attractions that will please all those who attend the big fair in that city next month. J. W. Chapin, secretary-treasurer of the association, describes some of these attractions in the following letter. Others are being booked.

Aurora, N. C., Oct. 25, 1915.

I wish you to say to your many readers that the Aurora Fair Association has succeeded in booking some strong attractions for our coming fair, two of which deserve special mention, to-wit: First, Prof. Crew, the most daring balloonist on earth, who goes to dizzy heights, courting death in the clouds. On Wednesday of the fair he proposes to make two parachute drops and on Thursday he will make three drops from the same balloon. This is the first time this act has ever been done in this county, and perhaps it will be many years before our good people will ever have the opportunity of witnessing such a free attraction again, and this feature of the fair alone is worth going miles to see.

Our second great attraction consists of an aggregation of dark-faced comedians who come to us strongly recommended. Their juggling, sleight of hand tricks, coupled with their songs and jokes will please all who may be so fortunate as to see and hear them.

I only mention these two but there will be others and we propose to have only the best, and we assure all that there will be nothing on the grounds but what will be clean and first class.

Very truly yours,
J. W. CHAPIN,
Secretary-Treasurer.

COMING ELECTIONS TO INDICATE SENTIMENT

Politicians Eagerly Watching Developments in Various Campaigns. Suffrage Issue to Come up in Four States.

(United Press Staff Correspondence) Washington, Oct. 25.—Three State and five Congressional elections to be held November 2 are looked to by national committee men here to furnish an indication of the present political sentiment of the country.

Perhaps the most closely watched contest is that for the governorship of Massachusetts. The present Governor, David L. Walsh, Democrat, is a candidate for re-election, and opposing him is former Congressman Samuel W. McCall.

Both parties have been using national issues to a large extent in their campaigns, and the result is expected to be an intimation of the disposition of New England toward the two national parties.

O. W. Weller, Republican, is running against E. C. Harrington, Democrat, for the governorship of Maryland. Internal political strife has put this state in the Republican rank. The Republicans say they will hold it this year.

In Kentucky, normally a Democratic state, Gov. A. O. Stanley is running for re-election against E. P. Morrow, Democrat.

In the Thirty-sixth New York congressional district, left vacant by the death of Seneca Payne, Norman J. Gould, Seneca Falls, Republican, is running against G. L. Licht, Geneva, Democrat, Congressman Payne carried the district by 11,553 in 1914.

In the Twenty-third district, New York City, W. S. Bennett, Republican, is opposing W. L. Allen, Malone, Democrat. In 1914, the Republicans carried this district by 9,870.

There will be elections to fill vacancies in the Twenty-fourth Pennsylvania and Fourth South Carolina districts.

The suffrage issue will come before the electors of four States—New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania. Recent statements by President Wilson and members of his cabinet have given the suffragists strong hope for victory.

In several states there will be elections to county and other minor offices.

RESIDENTS OF WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP INVITED TO BE PRESENT AT MEETING

On Wednesday night of this week there will be an important meeting at the Elks' home. It will be given under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce. A supper will be served, and this will be followed by addresses by prominent local and out of town men.

The principal topic to be discussed will be GOOD ROADS FOR WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP.

A committee, appointed by the Chamber of Commerce, has been preparing for this meeting for the last week and a large number of invitations have been sent out to both the residents of the city of Washington and those residing in the country districts of the township. Owing to the lack of time in which to secure a complete list of the residents of city and country, the committee wish to state that it is not their intention to overlook a single person in the township, who is interested in the good roads movement. For fear that some names might have been omitted from the list of those to whom invitations were sent, the committee, through the columns of the Daily News, cordially invite every resident of Washington township to be present at Wednesday night's meeting.

This meeting will be an important one and it will affect every resident of the township. For this reason, the committee urgently requests all those who are interested to attend, and to consider this a personal invitation to them.

BRYAN TO HELP PROHIBITION

Will Be Principal Speaker in Campaign in Ohio This Week. People to Vote on Nov. 2nd.

Columbus, O., Oct. 25.—With William J. Bryan as the principal speaker, leaders in the fight for state-wide prohibition in Ohio have prepared for a whirlwind campaign to be led by Mr. Bryan during the next four days and to be kept up by others until the close of the campaign on the night before the election of November 2.

Mr. Bryan will tour the state in a special train, the opening speech being set for tomorrow at Steubenville. A large number of men, prominent in the fight to oust saloons from the state will accompany the former secretary of state on his speaking trip.

RECEIVES SCHEDULE OF SPECIAL TRAIN

Local Delegates to Attend Waterway Convention at Savannah Next Month.

A number of local residents are planning to attend the Atlantic Deepwater Waterways Association convention, which meets in Savannah next month. A special train will carry the delegates to that city. C. H. Sterling today received the following letter, notifying the Washington delegates of the schedule of the train:

Philadelphia, Oct. 23, 1915.
Mr. C. H. Sterling,
Washington, N. C.

Dear Sir:
Answering your inquiry of October 21st, I advise you that our Savannah Special is scheduled to arrive at Raleigh 5:15 a. m. on Monday, November 8th, and to leave that city at 10:45 a. m.

We will be glad to have our Washington friends join us at that point and suggest that you let us know a little in advance as we will have some entertainment at Columbia, S. C., and want to notify our friends there just how many will be in the party.

Yours very truly,
DURELL SHUSTER,
Assistant Secretary.

"BRINGING UP FATHER."

At New Theatre, Tuesday Evening, October 26.

Not even excepting the famous Floradora Sextette, has there ever been gathered together in one musical comedy company, such a galaxy of beautiful women, as is to be seen in Gus Hill's stage presentation of George McManus's newspaper cartoon piece, "Bringing Up Father," which is scheduled for appearance at the New Theatre next Tuesday night. Their matchless beauty is augmented by costumes from the emporiums of Worth, of Paris, Hayden and Mme. Rhue, of New York, who were given carte blanche to dress these women in the latest costume creations. This special feature of the production is calculated to attract the women, and place before their eyes the very latest sartorial wrinkles.

WASHINGTON BABIES ON HONOR ROLL

Local Youngsters Made High Average in "Better Babies" Contest at the State Fair.

Not only are the men and women of Washington endeavoring to put this city on the map, but even the babies—less than a year old—are contributing their share and are giving this community some excellent advertising.

At the State fair last week, two of the Washington youngsters were placed on the honor roll in the "Better Babies" contest. The babies made an unusually high showing.

Owen DuIon Rodman, age 9 months, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Rodman, scored 98 points.
Lee Fleming Davenport, age 13 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Davenport, scored 97 points.

FRIDAY, NOV. 5 ARBOR DAY

Governor Has Issued Proclamation for Day Which Will Be Observed Throughout the State.

Raleigh, Oct. 25.—By official proclamation of Governor Locke Craig Friday, November 5, is to be observed this year throughout the state as Arbor day. The school children of North Carolina are asked to observe the day in an appropriate manner, and with this in view Superintendent of Public Instruction J. Y. Joyner has had prepared leaflets which contain a tentative program of exercises. These have been distributed to county superintendents, and Thomas R. Fount, superintendent of Guilford schools, is distributing them to the various teachers of the county so that they may prepare for the celebration of the day.

VERSATILE EDITOR VISITS WASHINGTON

Charles McDevett, city editor of the Free Press at Kinston, spent Sunday with relatives in the city. Mr. McDevett was a former resident of Washington and is well known in the city.

Since becoming connected with the Free Press, Mr. McDevett has established a reputation that is almost national in its scope, as an extremely skilled and versatile newspaper man. He contributes to all the large dailies from the Atlantic to the Pacific, has also had articles in the leading magazines of the country, and is the author of one or two books that are well known. His work on the Free Press has given that paper a high standing among the newspapers of the land.

GOVERNOR CRAIG ENDORSES THE GOOD ROADS MOVEMENT IN LETTER TO DAILY NEWS

Urges Residents of Beaufort County to Build More Improved Highways

CANNOT PROGRESS WITHOUT THEM

Establish Better Cause Better Churches to be Built and Create a Community Life. Moral and Educational Advantages Inestimable

A hearty endorsement of the good roads movement in Beaufort county was this morning received from Governor Locke Craig. It was written in reply to a recent letter from the Daily News and reads as follows: Editor Daily News, Dear sir:

Answering your communication of recent date, I desire to say that I sincerely trust the good roads movement in Beaufort county will meet with success and that many miles of improved highways will be built. This matter is one of great importance to every community and no better investment could be made that would produce greater or more beneficial results.

Nothing is contributing more toward the prosperity and the happiness and the social advancement of our country than improved roads. If we would utilize the instrumentalities of modern civilization we must have good roads. No community can afford to be without them. If any county or any community by a short-sighted parsimonious policy fail to improve its roads, that community denies to itself the opportunities of modern life. When the good road comes to a community, better schools are established, better churches built. A community life is created. The land becomes more fertile; homes are improved and beautified. They are not only worth many times their cost in money, but their moral and educational advantages are inestimable. Within a few years every road in North Carolina will be a good road. The old country road of rocks and mud and steep hills is a thing of the past. They have taxed and impoverished our people too long already.

During the past three years North Carolina has spent in road development in the neighborhood of fifteen million dollars. This is not an expense. It is an investment that pays a dividend of one hundred per cent every year. It was unavoidable that all of this money was not spent to the best advantage. We did the best that we could. The legislature of 1915 created a Highway Commission, and this will insure hereafter a more intelligent and a more efficient expenditure of the people's money in road survey and construction.

Again wishing you all success in your most progressive movement, I beg to remain,

Yours truly,
(Signed) LOCKE CRAIG.

SOLD SIX PAIGES AT THE STATE FAIR

J. W. Dailey, local agent for Paige automobiles, took three of the cars to Raleigh with him this week, and had them on exhibition on the fair grounds. During his first day there, he not only sold the cars he had with him, but took orders for three more. In order to avoid long waits for shipments, he decided not to take any further orders, and suspended business at the fair after his first day's sales.

FORBIDS HUNTING ON HIS FARMS

Past Experiences Forces Dr. Dave Taylor to Issue Permission to Those Desiring to Hunt on His Land.

Some of the hunters in Washington probably know the difference between a cow and a deer, or a dog and a rabbit, or a turkey and a partridge, but Dr. Dave Taylor, judging from past experience, is somewhat doubtful of the fact. In past seasons, he has lost a number of his stock, due to the bullets of amateur hunters. In order to avoid this in the future, Dr. Taylor has been compelled to forbid all hunting on his land, and has issued the following notice:

"I take this method of notifying the public that my land, including the Grist and Grim's farms, has been duly posted according to law, and I do positively forbid anyone hunting thereon with gun or dog."

"I am compelled to do this on account of damage done my stock in the fields. Hence, anyone hunting on these premises will positively be prosecuted."

"D. T. TAYLOR."

Will make plans tonight for Wednesday's big smoker. Attend the special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce tonight.

Appointments Made.

Rocky Mount—Mr. J. B. Ramsey, chairman of the highway committee of the chamber of commerce has made appointments in connection with Atlantic Coast Line highway, which is to be held in this city on Wednesday next.

PLUMBER HAD NARROW ESCAPE

Greenville Man at Work in Ditch When It Caved in. Companion Rescued Him.

(By Eastern Press) Greenville, S. C., Oct. 25.—When a 12-foot ditch caved in Saturday afternoon, it was he was working at the bottom. B. Brewer, a plumber of this city, had a narrow escape from suffocation and death. He was rescued by the quick work of his fellow workers.

Brewer was hard at work in the ditch, when the sides gave way and the dirt and rocks piled in on him. The ditch was almost entirely filled by the cave-in and the man's plight was desperate. His companions witnessed the accident and they at once rushed to his assistance with spades and shovels. A few minutes hard work, and he was brought to the surface. He sustained several minor injuries.
