

"ADVENTURES" OF DETECTIVE AT AN END

LATEST WORK OF E. L. DUKE HAS LANDED HIM ON THE ROADS.

IS KNOWN HERE

Tried to Arrest Two Local Young Men in Kinston Some Time Ago. Is Charged With Having Received Stolen Goods.

(By Eastern Press) Kinston, Nov. 3.—E. L. Duke, the Henderson, N. C., man who was in trouble twice during the last few weeks, has been sentenced to 12 months on the roads at Henderson. Duke is alleged to have employed four boys to steal goods to sell to him. Confession by one or more of the boys secured his conviction.

Duke is known to a number of residents in this section of the State, who have followed his "adventures" with interest. He first broke into the limelight when he posed here as a detective and attempted to arrest two young men of Washington, N. C.—Eugene Harris and Oscar Abbe, against whom it is said he had a personal grudge. Foiled in this attempt, he was charged with carrying a concealed weapon and impersonating an officer and was ordered to leave Kinston.

About a week or so ago, it is alleged that he attempted to induce a local young lady to Raleigh, where it is reported he intended marrying her. Duke already has a wife and children at Henderson. His latest adventure will probably keep him busy for the next year.

T. E. WARREN PASSED AWAY

Died in Sladesville. Was a Former Resident of Washington and Well Known Here.

(Special to the Daily News) Belhaven, Nov. 4.—News was received here yesterday afternoon announcing the death of T. E. Warren, a highly respected citizen of Sladesville, Hyde county, N. C. The deceased was between 55 and 60 years of age. The end came after an illness of some months.

Mr. Warren was a native of Washington, N. C., but for the last eight or ten years has been residing in Hyde county, where he engaged in farming. He leaves one son to mourn his loss.

OFFICER NYE TRIED TODAY

Charged With Violating State Liquor Law. Case is Being Brought Up in Belhaven.

Officer Nye, of the local police force, will be tried in Belhaven today on the charge of having violated the State Liquor law. The outcome of the trial is being awaited with considerable interest on the part of his friends in Belhaven and Washington.

Mr. Nye had a warrant served on him last week, charging him with having violated the law while a resident of Belhaven last year. The general sentiment on the part of those who knew him in Belhaven is that he will show himself guiltless of the charge which has been brought against him.

DEMOCRATS EXPECT FIGHT

New York, Nov. 3.—The Democratic National organization will swing into the 1916 Presidential fight within less than six weeks. And Chairman William F. McCombs admitted today that it will be a real fight, though he sees nothing but Democratic success in the offing.

"When the Democratic National Committee meets in Washington December 7, I shall urge it on the members that the work of organization for the 1916 campaign be begun at once," said the Democratic chair-

PREPARATIONS COMPLETED FOR AURORA FAIR

MANY EXHIBITS ALREADY IN THE CITY. OTHERS COMING IN DAILY.

ON LARGER SCALE

Committee Left This Morning for Tarboro and Will Probably Do Some Attractions for the Aurora Fair.

(Special to the Daily News) Aurora, Nov. 3.—With the big Aurora fair less than a week away, preliminary arrangements have been practically completed and visitors here next week are assured of the best fair that has ever been held in this city.

Every department will be larger and better than ever before. Many exhibits of farm produce are already in the city and others are arriving daily. Practically every farmer in this section will be represented in his fair in either the agricultural or live stock departments.

A committee left this morning for Tarboro, where they will visit the fair that is being held in that city. They will look over the amusement rides and if there are any other special merits, will make an attempt to secure them for the fair here.

The Washington & Vandremer have arranged to run a special train from Washington to Aurora during the three days of the fair. This train will leave Washington in the morning and will return to that city the same evening. In this way everyone is afforded a convenient way of seeing the many attractions here.

MAY EXPORT TOBACCO

Effort Being Made to Have England Modify Blockade. Serious Injury to Tobacco Growers.

Washington, Nov. 3.—In behalf of tobacco shippers, Senator Martin of Virginia, and Representative Furness of Tennessee, today asked Secretary Lansing to endeavor to modify England's blockade. Serious injury to the dark tobacco growers through their inability to reach the principal markets in Germany and Austria is reported. Part of the 1915, all of the 1914 and 1915 crops are held in the warehouses waiting for a market, he said.

"President Wilson will be the nominee, and the party will go before the country with the Wilson administration's achievements as its argument appealing for votes.

"The Progressives will not figure in next year's campaign," said Mr. McCombs. "I do not believe they will carry a single state."

GIRL KILLED BY STR'T CAR

Accident Occurred This Morning at New Bern. Girl Was Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hagood.

(By Eastern Press)

New Bern, Nov. 3.—This morning at eleven o'clock, one of the street cars of the New Bern-Ghent railroad, in charge of Motorman Phillip Weiss, ran over and instantly killed Virginia Hagood, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hagood, of 137 Pollock street.

The accident occurred in front of the little one's home. She had been crossing the street and was returning when she ran into the side of the street car. She was run over by the rear wheels of the car and her body crushed almost beyond recognition.

FORMALDEHYDE CAUSES DEATH OF OLD FARMER

JOHN PATRICK BOWIE DEAD AS RESULT OF MISTAKE IN LIQUID.

BURIAL TODAY

Came from Prominent Family in Scotland. Had Lived by Himself Near Outskirts of the City for 15 Years.

John Patrick Bowie, aged 65, died last night as the result of drinking formaldehyde. He was attended by Doctors Dave and Josh Taylor but they were unable to rid him from the effects of the poison. It is believed that the death was the result of an accident.

Mr. Bowie was a Scotchman and is said to come from a very prominent family of that country. He was also extremely well educated. It is reported that some trouble or difficulties resulted in his coming to this country and living the life of a recluse about two miles from Washington. He has been a resident of Beaufort county for about fifteen years.

He left a written statement, giving some details of his life and the disposition of his affairs. He requested that the following laudatory inscription be placed on his tombstone:

John Patrick Bowie, Scotchman, 1854.

The funeral services were held this afternoon, Rev. H. B. Searight, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiating. Interment was in Oakdale cemetery.
