JAMES L. MAYO Proprietor. CARL GOERCH Editor.

WASHINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, NOV. 20, 1915.

Seeing that Governor Craig has refused to accompany Henry Ford to Europe on a peace mission, we would suggest to the latter that he take either Crumpler or Britton along so that we may be spared the daily reference to the "luscious bivalves."

"Which did you get?" queries the New Bern Sun, referring to the Greensboro News' classification of the different kinds of "deals."—Raw, Square and Great. We can't exactly say, but we particularly remember a mis-deal one time when we laid four aces.

Instead of urging the president to support the conference in the cause of peace, the ladies who are behind the movement ought instead to urge the chief executive to send a few more regiments down to the border and aid Carranza in putting Sonora Villa on the run.

After all, one don't have to hunt so far for consolation. Take the remark in Saturday's News and Observer for instance: "Anyway, the Raleigh Highs won their game of football."

TOWN ORDINANCES.

In referring to the value of certain city ordinances, the Greenville Reflector states:

"We expect that there are a dozen or more ordinances of the town of Greenville which never have nor never will be enforced simply because they are foolish and unnecessary. It would be a great saving to the State or municipality that would strike off all such laws as cannot be or are not enforced."

We believe that the same is true in Washington, although there is only one such ordinance that we can call to mind without looking over the entire list. That is the ordinance limiting the speed of automobiles in the business section of the city to eight miles an hour.

There is not one automobile driver in ten but who violates this ordinance at least a dozen times a day. The drivers are hardly to blame for this, for eight miles an hour is hardly faster than a small boy can trot. If one has any idea of automobile speed and keep tabs on the cars that pass up and down Main street, he will see countless violations of this ordinance daily.

This, at least, is one ordinance that ought to be repealed or changed, for it certainly is not enforced.

TAKE THE AUTO TRIP.

It is expected that at least twenty-five automobiles will leave Washington Friday on a trip of inspection of the good roads in some of our adjoining counties. In this way the committee, who arranged the trip, are planning to give the voters of the township an opportunity of seeing how improved highways have benefited other communities and how they can better Washington township as well.

If there is anyone in the township who is opposed to the proposed bond issue, but who is open to conviction, they should by all means take Friday's trip. We believe that it will cause a material change in their attitude and make them strong advocates of the good road movement here.

Belhaven and John Arthur are today entertaining the delegates at the drainage convention, which opens tonight in that city. We don't know about Belhaven, but we can watch for John's ability as an AAAI entertainer.

With an auto trip Friday, a probable meeting Sunday, a big barbecue a few days later and some good shows at the theatre, Washington is fairly well provided with attractions from now until Christmas.

For the benefit of some of our reader-writers, who are flitting on sending us the usual Christmas gift, we desire to state that we prefer a mild brand of cigars, loud neckties and checks made payable to "Cash."

SHOULD PAY OFFICER.

We have just learned that in order to vindicate himself and prove that the charges made against him in Belhaven were false, Officer Nye of the local police force was made to pay out of his own pocket about fifty dollars for attorneys' fees and automobile hire between Washington and Belhaven.

Mr. Nye, had he not been an officer on the local police force and therefore eager to have his reputation upheld as soon as possible, could have saved himself a greater part of the expense which he incurred. As it is, we believe that the city owes it to the officer to reimburse him for the money he paid out.

Last week we had occasion to criticize Nye for his manner of making an arrest. We stated the facts as we had them told us. If we did the officer an injustice we are sorry for it, for we have no personal grudge against him. On the other hand, we are not, through this article, trying to get "on the soft side" of the police force. We only desire to see fair play, and we believe that Nye should be paid the money he expended in clearing himself.

In making the arrest, above referred to, Nye obtained injuries which necessitated his visiting a doctor for treatment. As he incurred the wounds in the performance of his duty, we hope that the police committee will also see fit to pay these bills.

The salary that the city pays its police officers is no princely sum. In fact, it is lower than that paid in most cities in this section of the State. We therefore feel that the police committee should make some allowances and try to assist the members of the force when they can legitimately do so.

Special Reduction!

We are cutting to the BONE prices on COAT SUITS for this week to clean up stock. This is a rare opportunity to save about one-third the price of a suit.

Table with former and current prices for coats: Formerly $27.50 - this week $18.15, Formerly $25.00 - this week $16.40, Formerly $23.50 - this week $15.75, Formerly $18.50 - this week $11.50

Take It In Time

Just as Scores of Washington People Have.

Waiting doesn't pay. If you neglect kidney backache, urinary troubles often follow. Doan's Kidney Pills are for kidney backache, and for other kidney ills.

Washington citizens endorse them. Mrs. G. W. Hay, 224 Bonser St. Washington, says: "I was a great sufferer from kidney complaint, had a dull pain in my back all the time and couldn't sleep well. In the morning I was sore and stiff and tired so easily I could hardly do my housework. Headaches and dizziness were common and my sight became blurred. I tried several medicines, but got no relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They soon relieved me, and four boxes cured all the symptoms of kidney trouble."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Hay had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

A WONDERFUL ANTISEPTIC. Germs and infection aggravate ailments and retard healing. Stop that infection at once. Kill the germs and get rid of the poison. For this purpose a single application of Sloan's Lintiment not only kills the pain but destroys the germs. This neutralizes infection and gives nature assistance by overcoming congestion and gives a chance for the free and normal flow of the blood. Sloan's Lintiment is an emergency doctor and should be kept constantly on hand. 25c, 50c. The $1.00 size contains six times as much as the 25c.
