JAMES I. MAYO, PROPRIETOR; CARL GOERCH, EDITOR.

WASHINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, DEC. 27, 1915.

Exchange your Christmas gifts early.

New Year is the next stop. And we might add that New Year means Leap Year.

A report made by J. Bryan Grimes, Secretary of State of North Carolina, shows that the number of automobiles is rapidly climbing skyward.

The bill collectors will now proceed to get busy and have their girths ready within a few days.

NOT TIME FOR PEACE.

It will probably be a good thing for the world in general that Henry Ford failed in his peace mission. It is to be hoped that everyone else, who tries to ring the warring nations of Europe to peace at the present time will fail.

What Ford and so many other well-intending pacifists fail to understand is that the war is not an aimless Killkenny riot, nor an international battle-royal for a material prize.

The issue is as clear in Europe as ours was in our civil war. Then we settled for good the question whether slavery should continue to exist in America.

And so it is, in a way. That is to say, there is more autocracy on one side, and more democracy on the other.

And if the war is allowed to run its course, Europe will probably emerge able to live an orderly, civilized existence hereafter, without any outlary and gun-toting.

HALF THE BATTLE IS OVER.

The registration books for the coming election in Washington township have closed. Those who oppose the bond issue have made their fight.

From a survey of the registration books, it is believed that the bond issue will carry. The vote will be close, but it is expected that a majority of from fifty to seventy-five will be polled in favor of the issue.

The advocates of the project, however, still have their work to do. They should endeavor to make the majority as large as possible and they should remember that one important thing: TO CAST THEIR VOTE AT THE ELECTION.

If we are going to carry the issue, let's do so by a big majority, so there will be no squibbling or discussion after the election is over.

SPAIN'S ATTITUDE.

With all of the principal countries of Europe engaged in the war, it is rather surprising that Spain, noted for her impetuosity in war matters, has not joined in the conflict.

Now, however, another report is brought forward, which might be taken as an indication that Spain is about to enter the war. She is alleged to have purchased several million rounds of ammunition in New York and to have established a thirty million credit loan for other munitions.

Spain has no principle to fight for and is evidently going to enter the war—if she enters it at all—for the gain that it will be to her. Those who are in touch with national affairs of the Spaniards, claim that the only reason why that country is not already engaged in warfare is because the inducements have not been big enough.

Spain is in a class with Turkey, Bulgaria and the other countries of Europe of the lower type and she will probably join forces with them before the war is over.

E. G. Bright, carpenter, 235 E. Fourth-St., Washington, says: "My kidney trouble was caused by poor posture and hard work. I had dull pains in my back, loins and kidneys. In the morning I was sore and stiff, and it hurt me to put on my shoes. I had headaches and dizzy spells, and the kidney secretions passed too frequently, obliging me to get up at night. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in the papers, and bought some at Davenport's Pharmacy. They soon relieved me, strengthening my back and regulating the action of my kidneys."
