JAMES L. MAYO, Proprietor; CARL GOERCH, Editor

WASHINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, FEB. 3, 1916.

The majority of North Carolinians will be thankful when their Government gets back home again and quits giving out statements to the papers one day and denying them the next.

Senator Simmons' plan for getting sufficient revenue to provide for a larger army and navy is the best that has yet been suggested.

Colonel House is now conferring with the French premier. And still they would have us believe that his is an innocent little mission abroad.

Readers of this paper will doubtless remember Editor Biggs, who at one time was chief deposer for the Greenville Reflector.

FAVORITISM OR WHAT?

The Board of Aldermen recently advertised for bids on making improvements to the city hall annex.

Why the city officials should have taken this action is not known. Even if they did feel that the men who gave the work would accomplish it better than the men who bid lower, they were fully protected by written specifications and a bond.

Several citizens brought this matter to our attention yesterday and this morning. We have not yet acquainted ourselves with the facts, but the voters evidently feel that there is an explanation due them from the board of aldermen and we trust that officials will make one.

NO NOISE FROM ROOSEVELT.

It might seem strange to many persons, who have given the matter thought, how unusually quiet Colonel Roosevelt has been keeping himself during the last few weeks.

The Colonel has been told to shut up. In view of the fact that he has "tayed out," he must have had some promise of reward made him.

What that "promise of reward" is going to be, remains to be seen, but unless we are not greatly mistaken, it will take the form of candidate for president on the Republican ticket.

Teddy will be held in reserve. When the Republican convention meets in Chicago, Root, Borah, Hughes and the other fellows will make their bid for the candidacy.

CRIMES COMMITTED BY CHILDREN.

There have been an astonishing number of crimes committed in practically every section of the country recently of which the perpetrators were boys of thirteen to twenty years of age.

In the trial of a number of these cases, it has been found that these juvenile criminals were not as much to blame for their acts as were their parents.

They were allowed to have their own way when young. They were permitted to wander about the streets as they chose, to play with whatever boys they might meet, to stay up until all hours of the night and to hang around pool rooms, saloons and other places where they learned the first steps of their criminal careers—profanity and drink.

There are thousands of men today, failures in life, or else criminals and doing time in prison, who might have made successful business or professional men if their parents had only devoted a little more time to bringing them up.

A boy who has not the proper home training, goes out into the world under a big handicap. He finds himself unprepared to resist temptations and to fight against them.

If the parents would only be a little more careful in seeing whom their boys associate with, if they would only counsel them regarding the right and wrong of things, and if they would keep an eye on their boys' play and his places for recreation, there would be a considerable decrease in this juvenile criminal wave that appears to be sweeping over the country.

1916 CROP WILL BE RECORD BREAKER

Expect Year Will Be One of the Most Successful in History of This Section.

Every indication, say local agriculturists, points that the 1916 crop year will be a successful one in this section. The difficulty presented by the shortage of fertilizer necessities is being solved after one method or another, and operations are probably further advanced generally now than at the same time last year.

WHAT CHILDREN NEED NOW.

In spite of the best care mothers can give them this weather brings sickness to many children. Safe, reliable family medicines are in demand.

DRINK NOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get the small package of Hamberg's Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamberg's Brant Tea," as a remedy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink it. You will feel the tea working in the system, and it is the most effective way to break a cold and cure it, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system.

RUB BACKACHE AND LUMBAGO RIGHT OUT

Rub Pain and Suffering away with a small bottle of old home St. Jacobs Oil. When your back is sore and lame or Hamberg's Oil or rheumatism has set in, rub it on. Get a 25 cent bottle of old home "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right into the pain or ache, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.
