JAMES L. MAYO......PROPRIETOR

WASHINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, MARCH 30, 1916.

"PHOOLISH FEELINGS."

When a lady walks into the tailorshop and you're standing around waiting for the tailor to press the trousers you've just taken off.

Kinston certainly has a high opinion of herself. She attempted t join the baseball league in order to "lend dignity" to that organiza-Now her papers contain items to the effect that "Goldsboro wil get ideas for her fair from Kinston."

The candidates who have been lingering in the woods will so have to step up to the desk and sign up.—News and Observer. Why not make their step up to the bar and "sign up?"

In order the the matter may not be forgotten, it might be well to mention that the county commissioners are expected to be liberal in helping put the Red Hill road in shape.

SUFFRAGE AND PROHIBITION.

The House committee of the judiciary has decided to indefinitely postpone all action on resolutions looking to the amendment of the constitution. Prominent among these are the suffrage and prohibition issues.

In taking this step the committee unquestionably proceeded along the correct lines. Both of the above issues are questions that deserve much consideration and thought. This cannot be given them at the present time. There are too many their measures that are too vital to the welfare of the nation and the people. With foreign relations Eat less meat and take a grass of strained and the preparedness program to be considered during this session, congress will have its hands full until the time for adjourn-

Should the suffrage and pre-hibition questions have been brought up at this session, both of hom would undoubtedly have met with de-feat. Instead of being discouraged at the action of congress, advaeares of the two issues should feel content and bide their time until a more opportune time comes to present their cases, ity had gone over to the neighb ring town without funds and unable feeling has been eliminated and that the city and rural districts are in closer accord with each other than ever before. It is sincerely hoped that this condition will continue to exist.

Tomorrow will afford an excellent opportunity for a still close relationship. The residents of the city can make the visitors fethat they are welcome and that their presence is appreciated. It will not take much trouble to do this.

We sincerely hope that as many of the visitors as can, will visit the Daily News office tomorrow and allow us the opportunity of forming their acquaintance.

"ENTERTAINMENT" AT NEW BERN.

We are rather surprised at the Washington News for urging citizens not to come to New Bern to see "The Birth of a Nation." New Bern would have been tickled to death to have entertained them and as there is hardly any possibility that this picture will be presented in Washington in many years, those who heeded the "appeal" probably missed, the chance of a life-New Bern Sun-Journal.

We have no doubt but that New Bern would have been "tickled to death" to entertain the Washington residents. But we wonder whether this joy would have been as great if the residents from this city had gon over to the neighboring town without funds and unabl-Washington dollars there. We don't blame New Bern fe endeavoring to entice our citizens to visit the city on the Neusco That's good business. At the same time, we don't approve of spend ing money out of town when it can be spent just as well in Washing ton. Neither will our residents have to wait many years" befor the above-mentioned picture is shown here.

If there is any "out-of-town spending" to be done, we feel that the people of New Bern should do it in Washington, instead of our resi dents going to New Bern. The people of a large metropolis neve travel to the smaller suburbs to do thir shopping. New York's pop ulation, for example, doesn't visit Yonkers, White Plain-, Rochelle or any of the other smaller towns nearby to secure bar gains. On the other hand, the people in these towns usually do all their purchasing in New York. The same ought to hold good here It is up to the residents of New Bern to come to the larger and better-stocked stores of Washington.

You Need a Tonic

There are times in every woman's life when she needs a tonic to help her over the hard places. When that time comes to you, you know what tonic to take—Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is composed of purely vegetable ingredients, which act gently, yet surely, on the weakened womanly organs, and helps build them back to strength and health. It has benefited thousands and thousands of weak, alling women in its past half century of wonderful success, and it will do the same for you.

You can't make a mistake in taking

The Woman's Tonic

Miss Amelia Wilson, R. F. D. No. 4, Alma, Ark., says: "I think Cardui is the greatest medicine on earth, says: Think Cardin is the greatest medicine on earth, for women. Before I began to take Cardui, I was so weak and nervous, and had such awful dizzy spells and a poor appetite. Now I feel as well and as strong as I ever did, and can eat most anything." Begin taking Cardui today. Sold by all dealers.
