NUMBER 83.

HARD WORK NOW IS TO COUNT BIG

PRESENT OFFER WILL NEVER BE DUPLICATED. EARLY START IS URGED.

GET MANY VOTES

Contestants Who Take Advantage of the New Offer Can Secure Big Advantage Over Their Opponents in the Race.

On the offer just closed most of the contestants waited until the last few days to do their work, and the result was that many subscriptions were missed.

Do not make a mistake of that kind now. Start out today and do your best work right now at the beginning of the offer and you will have the last few days to look around with leisure to see who you have missed in your search for subscriptions.

This offer will enable you to secure nearly as many votes as the one just closed. But it is the last big inducement of the contest. A marked decrease in the number of votes given on subscriptions will go into effect at the expiration of this clubbing offer.

The Clubbing Offer.
Every TWELVE dollars worth of subscriptions turned in between noon of Monday, April 10th, and Wednesday, April 12th, up to nine o'clock in the evening will earn one hundred and fifty thousand extra votes. (The offer being the same as the one just closed except it requires two dollars more to make up the club.)

Turn your subscriptions in as fast as you procure them. We keep a record to determine when you have completed a club.

SECURE AS MANY CLUBS AS YOU CAN.
Contestants who had a club started on the other offer but failed to complete it may count the amount from the incomplete club in making up a club on this offer.

Votes will be issued according to the vote table on each subscription when you turn them in, and the extra ballot for one hundred and fifty thousand will be issued when the club has been completed. You can obtain ballots for all of the votes and hold the ballots back to vote later in this contest.

This is guaranteed to be the BIG-GEST and BEST offer of any kind that will be made at any future time of the contest. And it will expire at nine o'clock in the evening of Wednesday, April 12th.

Vote Table.

JOHN BARRYMORE AT THE NEW THEATRE

John Barrymore could not be more ideally cast than in the stellar role of the film production of the sensationally successful farce, "Are You a Mason?" by Leo Ditrichstein, produced by the Famous Players Film Company in five parts, and the current Paramount release at the New Theatre tonight.

Two escape-graces, father-in-law and son-in-law, have both hit upon the device of pretending to be Free Masons so as to be able to plead lodge meetings as an excuse for spending their evenings away from home. There is genuine fun in the fundamental relationship of these two mock Masons, each of whom fears detectors by the other, and the domestic and comic complications caused by their indiscriminate and harlestic lying provide a fund of humor rarely evidenced in stage or screen comedies.

SPECIAL MASONIC MEETING.
Orr Lodge No. 104 A. F. & A. M. will hold special communication this evening at 7:30 o'clock, work in first degree. All Master Masons, Entered Apprentices and Fellow Crafts fraternally invited.

BILL IS PASSED TO INVESTIGATE PRICES OF OIL

SENATE UNANIMOUSLY PASSED THE KENYON RESOLUTION IN SESSION HELD TODAY.

WANT FULL REPORT

Ordered Attorney General to Investigate Charges Against Standard Oil and Other Companies Charged With Boosting Prices.

(By United Press)
Washington, April 11.—The Senate today unanimously passed the Kenyon resolution, directing Attorney General Gregory to send in a full report of the investigations against the Standard Oil and other oil interests, charged with boosting prices and fixing discriminatory costs.

The passage of the bill followed the reading of charges by the Western Oil Jobbers Association, which declared that resolution suits were "absurd failures" and demanded Congress to make the Sherman law effective or abandon it altogether.

INTERESTING CASE IN COURT TODAY

J. J. Hodges is Defendant in Suit for Recovery of Title to Farm in This Township.

The case of Sarah Spell and Emily Jenkins, colored, vs. J. J. Hodges, white, will be brought up before the Superior court today. The case was tried once before, but a mistrial was ordered.

The plaintiffs are suing to recover the title to a farm, which was deeded to Mr. Hodges by Sam Spell, who died some time ago. The circumstances under which the deed was given to Mr. Hodges were somewhat unusual and form the grounds for the suit. He was to have paid Spell $12 a year and pay all doctor bills while the latter lived. The negro died after having received about $25.

REAL CONDITION OF NAVY SAID TO BE UNKNOWN

Representative States Congress Ignorant, Accuses Daniels of "Hoodwinking Public."

(By United Press)
Washington, April 11.—Congress has been unable to frame a proper defense program because it does not know, nor can it learn, the real weaknesses of the United States navy, Representative Gardner today told the Big Navy League. He condemned Daniels for "hoodwinking the public."

Perry Belmont today advocated universal service and a permanent military commission.

Many Prisoners Taken.

Berlin, April 11.—The capture of more French positions northeast of Verdun and southwest of Fort Doumest, was announced today by the war office. The Germans took over 200 prisoners, in breaking up the counter attack on the east bank of the Meuse, south of Crows forest.

MANY CASES UP BEFORE RECORDER

Speeding, Intoxication, Retailing and Other Offenses Charged in Yesterday's Docket.

The recorder had a number of cases to dispose of yesterday. The following were brought up: Daisy Hill; speeding, $2 and costs.
Roy Rear; selling soft drinks on Sunday, costs.

E. J. Dillon; intoxicated and fast and reckless driving, $2 and costs.
Henry Hill; intoxicated, costs.
J. C. Wade; intoxicated, costs.
Ed. Matthews; not stopping at corner of Main and Market, costs.
Steve Johnson and George Fowie; assault; Johnson fined $2.50 and one-half costs; Fowie, one-half costs.
George Fowie; intoxicated and disorderly conduct, $2 and costs.
Moses Thigpen; carrying concealed weapon, $25 and costs.
William Dee; retailing, not guilty.
William Edwards, charged with selling two half-pints of liquor, asked for a jury trial. The case has been set for April 24.

ANOTHER DASH NECESSARY TO REACH VILLA

Bandit Is Still a Day's Journey Ahead of Pershing's Men.
Trail Is Still Warm.

(By United Press)
Washington, April 11.—The duplication of General Dodd's dash, which outed the Villistas at Guerrero, is necessary if the rebel bandit is to be overtaken. Army men here believe that the U. S. cavalry is equal to the task. All reports agree that Villa is a day or more ahead of Pershing's riders, but officials regard the trail as still "warm."

It is still predicted that the punitive expedition is nearing a success.
Denounce Carranzistas.
El Paso, April 11.—United States cavalry are reported as having crossed into Durango today with Villa far in advance and rapidly nearing Durango City.

Americans arriving from Chihuahua City strongly denounce the Car-ranzistas, saying they stepped out of Villa's way after the Guerrero fight.
How the Carranzistas under the Arrieta brothers will treat Villa is a problem. Some reports say that they have intrenched against Villa, being his personal enemies.

WAR TO END ON JULY 17?

For what it is worth the following story from The Financial News of London, is reprinted here:

In a latter half of last year—so runs a London legend—an officer called on his bank manager with regard to dispositions of his balance preparatory to his departure for the front.

"You won't be away long," said the manager.

"How do you know?" was the reply.

"You will be back in quite a short time, wounded in the hand."

When the officer actually returned, with a wounded hand, and in a short time, he was puzzled. However, his wound healed, and he was off again. He went to bid "good-bye" at the bank.

"Any more prophecies?" said he, jocularly.

"You will be away longer this time," replied the manager, "and then you will be rather badly wounded in the leg."

CABINET AGAIN TAKES UP THE U-BOAT ISSUE

PRESIDENT WILSON MUCH IM-PROVED AND DECIDED THAT SESSION BE HELD.

LITTLE EVIDENCE

Feeling Continues That This Country Must Wait for Arrival of the St. Paul. To Consider Everything by Saturday.

By R. J. BENDER.
United Press Staff Correspondent.
Washington, April 11.—The cabinet today resumed the consideration of the tangled threads regarding the submarine issue. In spite of his cold, President Wilson is much improved and decided that the session of the cabinet be held.

Lansing submitted the evidence to date. Officials are still convinced, in spite of Germany's expected denial, that German submarines are responsible for the Sussex, Manchester, Engineer and other attacks in which American lives were jeopardized. However, the feeling continued that this country must wait for the arrival of evidence that is being sent here on the liner St. Paul. This is expected to reach here on Thursday and will be submitted at Friday's meeting of the cabinet. By this time it is expected that Germany's informal reply to the United States will also arrive and at least preliminary steps for some definite formation of attitude taken.

DR. SCHUBERT OF AURORA WILL BE LOCATED HERE

Dr. L. H. Schubert, who has been practicing in Aurora for the last three years, has moved his residence to Washington and will make his home here in the future. His office will be located in the Blount building.

Dr. Schubert is already well known in Washington and has many friends here.

LEWIS W. PARKER DIED EARLY THIS MORNING

(By United Press)
Greenville, S. C., April 11.—Lewis W. Parker, former leading cotton manufacturer of the South, died early today after a long illness.

We have just received our second shipment of those Taffeta and Silk Poplin Dresses. They are the very newest creation in all the popular materials. Think of it, all silk dresses, $4.95 and up to $9.95. See our west show window.

GERMANS TAKE CENSUS OF THE FOOD ANIMALS

Berlin, April 10.—Maximum meat prices, the amount of meat to be allocated daily to each individual and the manner of distribution will be agreed upon tomorrow. Representatives of all the greater Berlin municipalities will meet for a discussion of the food problem.

Getting Ready For Easter

This is the busiest shopping time of all the spring season.
The new millinery, the new blouses, the new suits, dresses and apparel of all sorts are the things of the moment.

Each day the stores are getting brighter and busier.

It is a season when the advertising becomes most interesting news to every reader of The Daily News.

It tells about the things a woman wants to know, and saves her time, money and worry.

Believe Jimmy Glass Is Found in Kentucky

Was There Answers Description of the Parents Are There Today.

Lexington, Ky., April 11.—Tomorrow morning Mr. and Mrs. Chas.
L. Glass, of Jersey City, will know whether the waif in the custody of Link Miller and wife, near Pink, Jessamine county, is their missing son Jimmy, aged four.

Jimmy was stolen from their summer home at Greeley, Pa., last May.
The child answers every description in the most minute detail. Mr. and Mrs. Glass arrived tonight to see him.

They started at 10 o'clock on a long drive to the home of the Millers, in a remote section of the county. An announcement as to whether they have identified the boy as their own is expected by 1 o'clock tomorrow morning. A vehicle was waiting for the Glass couple when they arrived from Jersey City tonight.

The Millers give a straight and very circumstantial statement of their connection with the child.
Neither can read or write. They say that last June, two women and a man appeared at their home with the boy. They asked permission to leave the child for a few days. The Millers have not seen them since. A letter from the man, who gave the name of Bles Barnette, was received from Custer County, Montana, in February, saying they would send for the boy.

Real Name Jimmy, Boy Says.
In the meantime, the Millers moved to another part of the country, as remote as their former home.
Neighbors here, however, read the papers and they grew suspicious of the boy's identity. Finally, when a picture of Jimmy Glass appeared, they compared it with the little boy, and it was enough like him to induce Mrs. Miller to get one of her neighbors to write to Mrs. Glass.

Mrs. Glass sent a photograph, which strengthened the belief that the boy was Jimmy. Finally Mrs.
Glass wired she was coming to see the child for herself, and the arrival of the parents tonight was the result.

The boy was given the name of Holly Fairchild by the strangers who gave him to the Millers. He has never answered to that name, however, but says his real name is Jimmy. When questioned about his last name he says he does not know what it is, but that he remembers wearing overalls and playing in the street "way off yonder."

He says he then rode in a train, but does not remember details. He says, though, "My mamma and papa are coming after me."

He says he remembers a little sister, Blanche and an aunt Emily. Notice of $500 reward sent out by the Glass family said Jimmy wore overalls when he was stolen. That gives color to the belief that the child held is Jimmy Glass.

He is as bright as a dollar and answers all questions remarkably well for such a tiny fellow. Mrs.
Miller says she is constantly afraid of his being kidnapped from her.
She works away from home, the family being very poor, but keeps a good watch over him as she can.

Neighbors Guarding Boy.
Neighbors, however, are assisting Mrs. Miller in watching out for his wellfare. Today Jimmy had on a blue gingham dress, but said he would "rather be wearing pants." His little shoes are worn and his feet were sticking out. Mrs. Miller says she is willing to go anywhere in the country to identify the kidnappers if it is shown the boy was kidnapped. She has grown very fond of him.

Jimmy, held by the Millers, is of fair complexion; his cheeks are ruddy, his face is chubby, and his hair is divided in two "crowns." His teeth are good, he weighs a little when he talks, and he weighs about forty pounds.

There is not a mark on him which does not correspond with the description sent over the country by Jimmy Glass's parents.

Mrs. Miller says if this is not Jimmy Glass she will have to put him in some sort of a home soon, as she is not able to give him the care he should have. Her husband acquiesced in everything his wife said.

BATTLE AT VERDUN IS FIERCEST IN HISTORY

FRENCH LINE IS HOLDING FIRM AGAINST TERRIFIC ASSAULT OF THE GERMANS.

GROWING WORSE

Battle Is Hourly Growing More Desperate. If French Succeed in Repulsing Attacks, Verdun Will Be Saved.

(By United Press)
London, April 11.—Under the most tremendous hammering assault in the world's history, the French line is holding firm in the great attack raging around Verdun.

Wave after wave of Germans are rolling up against the French barricades along a six-mile front, northwest of Verdun. The French are repulsing each attack with savage hand to hand fighting. Each storm of bursting shells wrecks parapets and redoubts. The battle is growing more desperate hourly. It is believed that it will soon culminate in indescribable general fighting along both banks of the Meuse.

English military authorities believe that if the French hold this line, Verdun will be saved beyond a doubt.

The Paris official statement says that the Germans have lost 200,000.
The German official statement announces the capture of 35,000 French.

Germans Capture Trenches.
Paris, April 11.—Attacking Dead Man's Hill with liquid fire, the Germans today captured small fragments of foreign trenches after furious fighting which lasted all night, the war office announced. The attack along every other point was repulsed by the French.

GIVE OYSTER ROAST TO FIRE FIGHTERS

Captain Geo. T. Leach to be Host to Members of Local Department This Afternoon.

In recognition of the efficient work that the fire department has been doing in the past, ex-Chief George T. Leach has invited the members of the department to an oyster roast, which will be given this afternoon at five o'clock at the Erieoka mill.

A big supply of oysters has been secured and the boys expect a good time.
