SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months. I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles. Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me. At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead, and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing. I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health. If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years. At all druggists. NEW YORK TRIBUNE TELLS WHY IT COMES OUT FOR ROOSEVELT

The New York Tribune printed the following editorial yesterday morning:

Col. Roosevelt for President.

"Colonel Roosevelt and no 'pussy-footing'!"

"The Tribune likes this candidate and this issue."

"We are for Colonel Roosevelt because we believe the country needs him. No one else will quicken the pulse of the nation as he will quicken it. No one else will stir the conscience of the people as he will stir it. No one else will inspire patriotism as he will inspire it. No one else personifies the issue which the Republican party must make as he personifies it. No one else presents so effective an antidote to Wilson as he. If we are Americans, real Americans, the Colonel is our man. While timid politicians were consulting the census books and counting the German vote he spoke and the country harkened. He is the leader in the fight for Americanism, and we don't believe in changing leaders when we are going to the front. We are for Colonel Roosevelt in spite of the fact that we were against him four years ago. No one fought him harder than we. No one will fight harder for him. It has been easy to put aside our pride, our sense of resentment at what occurred in 1912, and the hundred other things that tend to keep alive divisions."

Choosing Country's Path.

"As a people we should feel that we had hung back, that we hadn't gone the limit in the true American way. The governments of Europe would feel this, too. They would conclude that we meant to temporize. 'Something would be lost of the moral effect of moving straight on under the leadership of the man who represents the purpose of this country as no one else does or can.'"

"The Colonel stands for the things the Tribune stands for. These things will be advanced more by his nomination than by any other nomination that can be made. The Tribune must support him."

"We are doing more this year than shooting a new President. We are choosing which way the country shall go in the era that is now opening, just as our fathers chose the nation's path in the days of 1860."

TO WITHDRAW TROOPS FROM MEXICO WOULD MAKE VILLA A HERO

By MAJOR E. W. DAYTON, Associate Editor Army and Navy Journal.

An American army is several hundred miles south of El Paso in obedience to an order of the President. With singular success, they have marched through that wide region without causing friction with a populace whose more ignorant and lawless elements are known to be bitter enemies of Americans. It is significant that the first attack by the civil population occurred on the day when the Carranza demand was made for the withdrawal of the American forces. In considering the general situation in Mexico it is only fair to admit that the Carranza attitude was an inevitable result of his political situation. Zapata Rival of Carranza. Of all the Mexicans who have maintained a leadership with real power back of it none has been more consistently popular than Zapata. The great factors in the Zapata programme are his propaganda to kill or drive out every American and confiscate his property. That is the most popular slogan in Mexico. Its popularity enabled Pancho Villa to recruit a large party of men willing to extend the idea across the frontier and kill and loot on the American side. Carranza is a weak leader in Mexico because he is trying to stand midway between the few who have money and property and the man who want it. It was inevitable that if Carranza strongly favored the American effort to punish Villa he would greatly weaken such prestige as was his. The refusal to put the railways at the disposal of the American forces proved his desire to see the American effort fail. It is to be hoped that no shortsighted political exigency may induce the recall of our soldiers with their task not accomplished. That would crown the murderer Villa with a glory as a great hero among a large element in Mexico. Villa's Opportunity. There is little doubt that if Carranza's demand were obeyed and our forces withdrawn Villa would promptly outrank Carranza in popular favor and soon establish himself in control of the war-torn country. The Carranza demand will have the effect of definitely branding the American soldiers who are in Mexico as enemies of the country. What happened yesterday at Parral is likely to be repeated at scores of places. The recent concentrations of Carranza troops toward the north had no benevolent purpose. They are there to give color to the claim which Carranza hopes later to make, that his troops ejected the "Gringos" from the soil of Mexico.

CONGRESS OPPOSED TO ANY WITHDRAWAL

Washington, April 15.—An unofficial poll of congress today disclosed an overwhelming sentiment against compliance with Carranza's demand for withdrawal of American troops in Mexico. The prevailing opinion is that the troops should be kept there until the object of the expedition is accomplished, regardless of the consequences. The question put to each member of the House and the Senate was the following: "Do you think the United States should comply with Carranza's demand?" The result of the poll follows:

The House.
YES—Democrats, 5; Republicans, 5; Socialists, 1. Total, 11.
NO—Democrats, 78; Republicans, 33; Prohibitionists, 1; Progressive-Protectionist, 1; Progressive, 1. Total, 115.
Non-committal—Democrats, 77;

The Senate.
YES—None.
NO—Democrats, 16; Republicans, 14. Total, 30.
Non-committal—Democrats, 26; Republicans, 16. Total, 42. Absent, 27.

The members of the House who are in favor of withdrawal, follows: Gray and Huddleston, Democrats, Alabama; S. O. S. Republican, Nebraska; Meyer London, Socialist, New York; Small, Democrat, North Carolina; Helgeson and Norton, Republicans, North Dakota; Bailey, Democrat, Miller and Crago, Republicans, Pennsylvania; Saunders, Democrat, Virginia.

RUSSIA CUTS ALLOWANCE OF MEATS

Petrograd, April 15.—A bill permanently prohibiting the sale of beverages, containing more than 1 1/2 per cent of alcohol will be prepared shortly by the Ministry of Finance. The Agricultural Committee of the Duma has approved the bill restricting the consumption of meat. It has recommended that the slaughter of cattle be prohibited on Tuesdays and Thursdays and the sale of meats in restaurants on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

She Grows Nervous at Nightfall.

More dreaded than an alarm of fire by night is the hoarse, brassy cough of croup to the nervous mother who fears this terror of childhood. Why worry, when a few timely doses of Foley's Honey and Tar will ward off croup and clear the throat of choking phlegm. It will give you confidence to face nightfall without fear of croup. Mrs. Ben Meyerling, Clymer, N. Y., says: "Our little girl would surely have had croup but for Foley's Honey and Tar stopped it at once." Davenport Pharmacy.

500,000 CANS OF IRISH STEW FOR SOLDIERS

(By United Press)

Eau Claire, Wis., April 15.—This town's canning factory, beginning today, is being remodeled to turn out twenty six million quarts of good old Irish stew, at the rate of half a million cans a week, for the Canadian soldiers on the European fronts. In a few days hundreds of giant kettles with big fires under them will begin to sing their bubbling, boiling song of beef and carrots, beans and corn, day and night. The stew will be packed in cans and shipped via Halifax to Europe. The contract was awarded by the Canadian government. The first half million cans should be ready by the middle of May.

Feel All Used Up

Lots of Washington People Do. Does your back ache constantly? Do you have sharp twinges when stooping or lifting? Feel all used up—as if you could just go no further? Why not look to your kidneys? Why not use Doan's Kidney Pills? Read the statement of this nearby resident:

Mrs. P. E. Buck, R. F. D., Grimesland, N. C., says: "I had a nagging pain in my back, which caused a lot of worry. In the morning I was sore and stiff and tired easily. Headaches and dizzy spells were frequent and the kidney secretions passed too often. I had other symptoms of kidney trouble. Finally I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me." MISRIAL IN HODGES CASE

Widow of Spell Allowed Her Dower. Jury Couldn't Agree on Rest of Case.

The case of the heirs at law and the widow of David Spell, colored, against J. J. Hodges, white, was decided in court yesterday. The widow will be allowed her dower, but the suit over the disposition of the property resulted in a mis-trial, the jury failing to arrive at an agreement. It is understood that they stood 11 to 1.

This is the second mis-trial that has occurred in this case. It will probably be taken up again at the next term of court.
