JAMES L. MAYO, PROPRIETOR CARL GOKROH, EDITOR

WASHINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, APRIL 17, 1916.

PHOOLISH PHEELINGS.

Your first appearance on the streets after you've been away from town for a couple of weeks and have taken the opportunity of growing a brand new moustache.

Query: Why is it that Governor Craig always finds business elsewhere when he is extended an invitation to visit New Bern?

Over in Kinston, a farmer suddenly died on his front porch when an automobile agent endeavored to sell him a car.

Whether we're going to have that improved road to Red Hill or not depends upon whether the business men of Washington can see a good thing when it is pointed out to them.

A travelling man, says the Washington News, remarks about the beauty of the delicious dainties of that city and comments on the superiority of their pulchritude over the beautiful bells at New Bern.

As far as we know, he didn't touch a drop while here, but he'll probably drink himself to death after he gets a look at a couple of New Bern's "beautiful bells."

THE "UNANIMOUS JURY."

Although a number of States have already discarded the custom of having a unanimous verdict from the jury in civil cases, or else have the case result in a mistrial, North Carolina still hangs on to the custom.

The custom is as unjust as it is expensive. It is extremely easy for the defense to have a number of "misfit" men on the front row in the court room and it is usually managed that one of these men is placed on the jury.

A majority verdict in civil cases would be much more satisfactory. It would do away with the present frequency of mistrials and justice would be apt to be rendered more frequently than it is.

It would not be necessary to make it a bare majority. Let the law be altered so that the decision of nine or ten of the jurors, who come to an agreement on a case, be taken by the court as the final verdict.

THE DEATH OF MR. SWANNER.

Considerable comment has been made by a number of local citizens over the circumstances which resulted in the death of William Swanner, a former resident of this city.

Mr. Swanner's death is to be regretted and we do not believe there is a single resident in Washington who does not regret it deeply.

Mr. Swanner was not "hounded," nor was the verdict of the court an unjust one. He was made to pay the penalty of a violation of the State law—a law for which the majority of persons in the State voted.

If a law is passed by the people, it must be enforced; otherwise it might just as well not be passed. If the people do not like the law, nor its enforcement, then let them repeal it.

THE RECRUITING PROBLEM.

Prosperity and military recruiting don't seem to go together. In spite of the strenuous efforts made by recruiting officers recently to fill up the ranks of the army, their efforts are less fruitful than they were a year ago.

In the whole metropolitan district of New York, for instance, including Jersey City, the earnest efforts of the recruiting agents during the month of March resulted in only 78 enlistments, against 238 the same month last year.

The explanation given is that today the eligible men have good jobs, and don't want to give them up for jobs that don't pay so well and don't advance them along the lines of any permanent civil-life occupation.

ALLEGED PLOTTERS TO BE TRIED TODAY

(By United Press)

New York, April 17.—The trial of Lieutenant Robert Fay, Walter Schultz and Paul Daeché, the trio of alleged German bomb plotters whose supposed comprehensive plans for blowing up allied munitions ships in New York harbor was nipped in the bud by secret service men here October 24th, were scheduled to go to trial before Judge Howland in U. S. Federal court here today.

With the trio was arrested Max Breitling, nephew of E. N. Breitling, the Michigan millionaire and copper king, a staunch pro-German.

The elder Breitling furnished bail for his nephew and put his millions at his disposal for defense. Young Breitling has been granted a separate trial. He came to New York from Chicago and gave himself up voluntarily the day after he learned his supposed associates had been arrested and he was being sought.

Fay at that time, was said to have made a confession stating that he had been taken from his field duties as a German army lieutenant and permitted to come to the United States, with the knowledge of his superior officers, to organize the ship bomb plots in the United States.

Fay also is said to have stated that as soon as he had his bomb plots ready for action here he was going to extend his operations to Canadian ports.

It also was said Fay claimed the two German embassy attaches who have since been recalled at the American government's request, Captains von Papen and Boy-od, knew of his presence in this country and of his bomb plots.

It is considered possible that the trial will be delayed today by the attempt of Daeché to get a separate trial. The point may be settled in a moment, however, and the trials proceed at once.

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated brown and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent little-water drink.
