LORD KITCHENER AND STAFF LOST LIVES WHEN CRUISER HAMPSHIRE SANK AT SEA

MANY LOST LIVES IN TORNADO

FORTY-NINE MET DEATH IN FIERCE STORM THAT VISIT-ED THE SOUTH WEST.
MUCH DAMAGE DONE

Property Loss Will Run Into the Millions. Boat Sank in River,
Drowning Five. Many Buildings Were Caved In.

(By United Press)
Memphis, Tenn., June 6.—Forty-nine have lost their lives in Mississippi and Arkansas due to a terrific tornado, which visited that section late yesterday evening. Dispatches claim that twenty-five met their death at Judsonia, Ark., six at Bedford, three at Hot Springs, eight at Natchez, Miss., and two at Jackson. Five are reported to have been drowned when a boat sank at Augusta, Ark.

No estimate is available as yet regarding the property loss, although it is expected that it will run into the millions. Many houses are known to have been totally destroyed and several of those who perished died when buildings caved in on them.

CHAUTAUQUA PARADE MONDAY AFTERNOON

Will Precede the First Performance.
Auto Owners Requested to Lend Machines.

Under the capable supervision of Captain George T. Leach, it is expected that the Chautauqua parade, which is to be held on Monday, the opening day, will surpass any similar event that has ever taken place in Washington.

A request has been sent out for every automobile owner to lend the use of his machine in the parade. It is desired to have at least 50 cars in the line of march.

The suffragists, civic club and all other organizations and lodges are invited to be represented in the parade. Children are requested to wear comic costumes and it is expected that they will turn out in large numbers. They may bring cow bells, rattles or any other noise-making devices with them.

The parade will form at the court house shortly before two o'clock and will go down Second to Harvey, Harvey to Main and Main to the Chautauqua tent, unless other arrangements are made.

Program Is Best Ever.
It is generally admitted that this year's program is superior in every way to any that has yet been produced by a Chautauqua here. It is well balanced and will furnish entertainment for all tastes and classes. The lectures will be particularly good and the musical numbers, plays and other features are sure to meet with a warm reception.

WHITE HOUSE INTERESTED IN ELECTION OF KITCHIN

Washington, June 6.—Official circles here again expressed interest today in the North Carolina primary returns with especial reference to the vote for Mr. Kitchin. The White House made inquiry for the latest figures. Democrats in high places were glad to know that Mr. Kitchin would remain in Congress, and that he had suffered no serious embarrassment, but it is suspected that joy was somewhat confined in the offices of a number of northern newspapers that have been keeping an eye single to that second district.

These Apache scouts were hurried over the border and on south to join General Pershing's forces in the pursuit of Villa. As the railway could not be used, they were transported in motor trucks.

GATES AJAR.

Miss Emily Augusta, daughter of C. J. and Sarah Stille, of sacred memory, and sister of W. R. Stille of Bluff Springs, Fla., O. K. and F. V. Stille, of Edward, passed the final review May 29, 6:30 p. m. She was a woman of unusually strong and intense characteristics, possessing a business capacity rarely found in woman, unostentatious in numerous charities, and an ideal lover of home and kindred. In early girlhood she gave her heart to the Savior, and lived out a long, consistent life in His service. The burial service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. E. Trotman, and her body laid to rest in the old family burying ground at Blounts Creek, to await the resurrection call of those "faithful unto death."

There was little opposition to the order. The committee, composed of the three above-named men, will proceed to get bids on the cost of a concrete road and if the bids are satisfactory, they will let out the contracts and the work will be started.

OFFICIAL RESULTS OF THE PRIMARY AVAILABLE TODAY

Today the machinery will be operated which will show officially the result of the primary of Saturday. In every one of the 100 counties of the state, the board of elections will meet at noon and canvass the returns. They have been instructed to telegraph the results to Raleigh and it is presumed here that the chairman of the state board of elections will have the vote tabulated at once and probably sometime during the evening today the results will be ready for announcement.

REV. E. B. JENKINS PREACHED COMMENCEMENT SERMON AT AURORA HIGH SCHOOL

Sunday morning, June 4, at eleven o'clock, Rev. Edward B. Jenkins, pastor of the First Baptist church, Washington, preached the commencement sermon at the Aurora Public High School. His subject was "The Mark of the Master." He said in part: "Our text is found in Galatians 6-17. 'Henceforth let no man trouble me for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.'"

The speaker recounted the sufferings of Paul in his efforts to spread the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. In comparing the marks Paul received, he mentioned those Andrew Jackson received from the British officer when he refused to black his boots.

Then the speaker mentioned the marks of the Lord Jesus. These three he mentioned: First the pierced hands—Service; second the lacerated brow—Sacrifice; third, riven side—Suffering.

In speaking of service he mentioned that of which Jesus taught by washing the disciples feet. Two passages were quoted to show that he who would be greatest must be servant of all.

In referring to the life of John Paton, the great missionary, the speaker sought to show that a life was greatest which was one of service.

In speaking of sacrifice, the speaker pointed out four kinds: Unconscious, that of grass and wheat being used by man and beast; instinctive, that of a bear for her young in time of danger; Voluntary, that of a mother for her child the moment of serious trial; Divine, that of Christ on the cross making a great sacrifice for mankind.

The last point the speaker mentioned as a mark of the Lord Jesus was that of suffering. "Christ suffered on the cross not only physical pain but a broken heart. All the world's greatest blessings come thru suffering. The best in our civil and religious liberty has come thru suffering." The speaker exhorted the young people to live lives of service, sacrifice, and suffering for the uplift of community, state, nation, and church. The sermon drew many appreciative expressions from the congregation.

London Stunned By News of The Great Disaster

(By United Press)
London, June 6.—Earl Kitchener, the English Minister of War, with his entire staff, were lost when the cruiser Hampshire was sunk north of Scotland, it was officially announced by the admiralty today. The statement indicates that the Hampshire was torpedoed off the Orkney Islands.

There is said to be little hope that any of the staff survived. It is accepted as a fact that Kitchener is drowned. The Hampshire was 450 feet long and of 10,850 tons. She carried four 7 1/2 inch guns, six 6 inch guns, two torpedo tubes, 650 officers and men. No mention has been made of her having participated in any sea battle.

Horatio Herbert Kitchener, England's foremost soldier, was born in County Kerry, Ireland, in 1850. He was a son of the late Lieut.-Col. H. Kitchener and was educated in the Royal Military Academy at Woolwich. He became distinguished through service in Egypt, India and South Africa. He commanded the Khartoum expedition in 1898 and was personally thanked by Parliament for his services. He was raised to the peerage and granted thirty thousand pounds. He has been successively, chief of staff, and commander in chief in Africa and was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant General in 1902. He was made Minister of the War at the beginning of the present war. It is believed that Kitchener and his staff went to the Orkney Islands to review the battle fleet after last week's fighting.

The loss of Earl Kitchener and his staff is England's greatest personal loss since the war began. London is completely stunned. The following bulletin was issued this morning: "The Admiralty reports with deep regret that the ship, Hampshire, with Lord Kitchener and his staff aboard, was sunk last night at 8 o'clock off the Orkney Islands by either a mine or a torpedo. Four boats were seen from shore to leave the vessel. Heavy seas tossed the boats and although destroyers proceeded to the scene and the whole shore has been searched since, it is greatly feared that everyone was lost."

A later announcement by the Admiralty said that the searching party found only the empty boats and drowned bodies. There is a faint hope that some might have reached shore alive, but on account of the high seas, this is considered unlikely. The Admiralty discourages any possible hope.

It is stated that the Hampshire was on her way to Russia, where Kitchener planned to confer with officials at Petrograd.

He was succeeded by Minton, who finished the game, allowing two hits. The Washington players tapped Manning rather hard but were unable to bunt their hits. Professor Smith umpired the game.

Arrangements are under way for a series with Kingston, although the date for the games has not yet been announced.

Movement Taken Up By Sons of American Revolution. Citizens
Urged to Co-operate.

The National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution are endeavoring to have a general display of the American flag in evidence on all automobiles and homes on Flag Day, June 14. In connection with this movement, Frank H. Bryan, president of the North Carolina Society, today received the following letter: Des Moines, Iowa, June 3, 1916. Frank H. Bryan, Esq., President N. C. Society S. A. R., Washington, N. C. My dear Mr. President: President Carter of the Kentucky Society S. A. R., makes an excellent suggestion, viz: that an attempt be made to have every automobile display the American flag on June 14. The time is short and it will be impossible to get the publicity that will bring about a general observance, but every flag thus displayed will have a splendid effect and add to the interest of our people in Flag Day. Won't you personally take up the matter up thro' the press and urge such observance. Very truly yours, E. M. WENTWORTH, President General
